THE "KENTUCKY BOY" will lecture on temperance and the war in this city, under the auspices of Advance Lodge I. O. of Good Templars, on Thursday evening, the 24th inst. Due notice will be given of the place of delivery. The "Boy" is represented as a gifted orator, and will no doubt attract a large audience. Temperance should not be neglected by those at home, on account of the intense interest every one feels in the success of the war for the Union. The cause is as good as ever, and the agitation of temperance questions as important, and we have no right to throw off the responsibility of helping the work along armies are deciding the great questions of the day, and let us at the same time be doing a good work in destroying the power of intemperance. Nothing ever succeeds without strennous efforts; and if the temperance cause does not in the end prevail, it will be because of for fear of popularity or other selfish considerations, expose it openly.

ASTRONOMERS have lately been astonished by the complete disappearance of the large nebulæ discovered by Mr. Hurd in 1852, in one of the northern constellations. M. Leverrier is the discoverer of the change, which is certainly a most startling one, for if these nebulæ are not stars, all the astronemers have been playing with a false theory, and if they are stars and such a change as this has taken place, the fact would indicate that a radical change is beginning in the heavens, which may herald the clash of all the heavenly bodies together.
