PENNSYLVANIA HOSPITAL.

[FROM OFFICIAL HOSPITAL REFORMs.]

MAY 19, 1860,—ElieB S., set. 23, single, never was very strong. Two years ago she had an attack of acute rheumatism, from which she was confined to her bed for two weeks and subseqently from a relapse for four more. She has been well since then till last Satur day, while engaged in house cleaning, she took cold, had pain in her back, felt cold, hot had so decided chill. Two days later her ankles began so swell, which was followed by swelling of the knee joints and of the hands. She has now dull pain in her shoulders, and her knuckles are very tender, red and painful; both hands are affected, but the right is most so. This, then, is a case of neute rheumatism, or, as it is new fashionably called, rheumatic fever. It is a well remarked typical case. We will carefully watch the case, and from time to time call your attention to the various symptoms which present themselves. My chief object in bringing her before you now, is to call attention to a remedy which has recently been recommended in the treatment of rheumatism. I mean propylamine. Dr. Awenarius, of St. Fetersburg, recommends it in the highest terms, having derived great benefit from its use in 250 cases which came under his care. Various commendatory testimonials respecting it have appeared in our journals, and I propose therefore to give it another trial. I must confess I am always incredulous as to the worth of new remedies, which are yaunted as specifies; but this comes to us recommended so highly, that we are bound to give it a trial.

SAME CASE FOUR DAYS LATER!

MAY 23, 1860.—I will now exhibit to you the patient for whom I prescribed Propylamine, and was then laboring under an attack of acute rheumatism. She has steadily taken it in doses of three grains every two hours (intermitting it at night.) The day after you saw her, I found her much more comfortable, better than she expected to be for a week or wore, judging from her other attack. (The patient now walked into the room.) The improvement has steadily progressed, and you cannot fail to notice a marked change in the appearance of her joints, which are now nearly all of their natural size.—Thus far our experiment would have seemed very successful; but, gentlemen, we must wait a little while before we can give a decided opinion as to what is to be the result.

e result. Here is another patient who was placed on the use of Here is another patient who was placed on the use of the same medicine on Sunday last; she has long been suffering from a bronic rheumatism, and I found her at that time with an acute attack supervening upon her chronic affection. The wrists and knuckles were much swollen and tense. She took the chloride of Propylamine in three grain doses every two hours, and you will perceive that the swelling of the joints has much diminshed.

THREE DAYS LATER!!

THREE DAYS LATER!!

MAY 28, 1860.—This is the case of acute rheumatism treated with propylamine, the first of those to which I called your attention at our last clinic. She is still very comfortable, and is now taking three grains thrice daily. In this case it has seemed to be followed by very satisfactory results. The second case to which your attention was called at our last lecure, has also continued to do well. I will now bring before you a very characteristic case of acute rheumatism, and if the result be satisfactory, I think, as good jurymen, we shall justly render our verdict in favor of propylamin

He is a seaman, set. 26, who was admitted a few days ago. Has had coassional rheumatic pains, but not so as to keep his bod, until eight days ago. The pains began in his right knee, subsequently affected the left knee, and later, the joints of the upper extremities. These joints are all swollen, tense and tender. His tongue is furred; his skin, at present dry, though there has been much sweating. His pulse is full and strong, and about 90.—He has now used propylamine for twenty-four hours.

This gentleman is what may be called a strictly typical case of acute rheumatism. There was exposure to cold and wet, and this exposure is followed by a feeling of coldness, severe articular pain, beginning, as it usually does, in the lower joints. There is ferer and the profuse sweating, so generally attendant on acute rheumatism. I did not bring this patient before you with the intonion of giving yon a lecture on all the points connected with rheumatism, but to again give a trial to the new remedy we are testing, and to exhibit to you this typical case, as I have called it, than which there co ultimute to a fairer opportunity for testing the medicine in question. We are, therefore, avoiding the use of all other medicines, even anodynes, that there may be no misgivings as to which was the efficient remedy. You shall see the case of a future clinic.

THE RESULT.

June 9, 1860.—The next of our convalescents is the case of acute rheumatism before you at our clinic of May 26th, which I then called a typical case, and which it was remarked was a fair opportunity for testing the worth of our new remedy. It was therefore steadily given in three grain doses every two hours for four days. The patient has got along very nicely, and is now able to walk about, as you see. I do not hesitate to say that I nave never seen as severe a case of acute rheumatism so soon restored to health as this man hus been, and without being prepared to decide positive by as to the value of the remedy we have used, I feel bound to state that in the cases in which we have tried the Chloride o Propylamine, the oatents have recalled their health Propylamine, the patients have regained their health much earlier than under the treatment ordinarily pursued. I wish gentlemen, you would yourselves try it, and report the results.

BARR—DRAE SIR:—As I have learned that you have purchased the right to manufacture and sell M'Connell's Golden Electric Oil, for the benefit of the afflicted. I send the following:—I have been afflicted with a running sore on my left log for ten years. During that time I have been under the treatment of ten of the best Ductors in Harrisburg, Baltimore and Comberland county; but all could not effect a cure. A little over a year past, going into my blacksmith shop after dark, I hurt my right leg also, below the sinee! Itspread all round the leg, and became a running sore. Several Dectors told me I must have my leg taken off, mortification having taken place. Fortunately I got a bottle of your Golden Electric Oil for my child's sore mouth. It cured so soon that I thought I would try it on my legs. I have been using it about six weeks, and my legs are now healed up—sound and well.

J. C. Ayer & Co., Gents: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. Having inherited a Scrofulous infectien, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. ward and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was paintul and loathsome beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from anything. In fact, the disorder graw worse. At length I was rejoiced to read in the Gospel kessenger that you had prepared an alternative (Sarsaparitias,) for I knew from your regulation that anything you make must be good. I sent to Cinc mant and got it, and use it till it cured me. I took it, as you advise, in small doses of a teaspoonful over a mouth, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin soon began to form under the scab, which after a while fell off, my skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the a osites of the age, and remain ever gratefully.

I have cured with it, in my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the cure of Veneral and Mercarial Diseases. They had become so sensitive to the weather that on a damp day she suffered excruciating main in her joints and somes. She, too, was cured entirely by your sarsaparilla is a few weeks. Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint. INDEPENDENCE, Precton Co., Va., 6th July, 1859.

Dr. J. C. Ayes: Sir, I have been afflicted with a pain ful chronic Rheumatism for a long time, which baffled the skill of physicians, and stuck to me in spite of all the remedies I could fin, until I tried your Barsaparilla.—One bottle cured me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine.

Jules Y. Getchell, of St. Louis. writes: "I have been afflicted for years with an affection of the fiver, which destroyed my health. I tried every thing, and every thing failed to relieve me; and I have been a broken down man for some years from no ther cause than derangment of the Liver. My beloved pastor, the Rev. Mr. Eapy, advised me to try your Sarsaparrilla, because he said he knew you, and anything you made was worth trying. By the blessing of God it has cured me. I feel young again. The best that can be said of you is not half good enough."

Schirrus, Cancer Tumors, Enlargement, Ulceration, Caries and Exfoliation of the Bones. A great variety of cases have been reported to use where cures of these formidable complaints have resultiorm the use of this remedy, but one space here will not admit them. Some of them may be found in our American Almanac, which the agents below named are pleased to furnish gratis to all who call for them.

Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Melancholy, Neuralgia, Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alternative power of this medicine. It stim-ulates the vital functions into vigorous action, and thus overcomes disorders which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a remedy hay hear required.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral Goughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness,

Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the Relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced Stages of the Disease of the Disease

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of throat and long complaints, that it is useless here to publish the evidence of its virtues. Its unrivalled excellence for coughs and colds, and its truly wonderiul cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the earth.—Few are the communities, or even families, among them who have not some personal experience of its effects.—some living trophy in their midst of its victory over the subtle and its personal disorders of the throat and lungs. As all know the dreadful fatality of these disorders, and as they know, to, the effects of this remedy, we used not do more than to assure them that it has now all the virtues that it did have when making the cures which have won so strongly upon the confidence of mankind.
