RAILROAD ACOIDENT. - Explosion of a Locomo tive Boiler -Yesterday morning the local freight which left Lancaster at 7.45 met with a terrible accident some three or four hundred vards east of the Conestoga bridge. The train was drawn by engine "No 179," formerly known as "Old Fogy," being one of the first built at man George O. Fisher, both of Columbia.-When at the point named the boiler exploded, blowing off the dome with terrific force, which struck Mr. Finkinbine on the head, smashing his skull and killing him instantly, and serious ly injuring the fireman, Mr. Fisher.

The conductor of the train at once returned to Lancaster and gave notice of the sad casualty, ble to the wounded man.

It is impossible to give an intelligent conjecture as to the cause of the accident.
