A MIDDLETOWNER IN THE PITTEBURG FIGHT. Mr. George F. Ross, son of Rev. Joseph Ross, of Middletown, and a brother of H. A. Boss, of the firm of Gross & Co., druggists, of this city, was in the hottest of the battle fought at Pittspieces. We are happy to say that Mr. B. escaped with two slight wounds.

The river has overflowed it in some places and it cannot be repaired until the water falls. Boating in the Union had been quite lively. and the obliging collector. Mr. John Snavely, informs the editor of the Middletown Journal that the channel is in first rate order, and that the prospects for a good run this season is quite flattering.

We HEARD it stated yester d ymorning that the woman found drowned in the canal near the "two mile lock," below this city, a notice of which appeared in last Monday's Telegraph, was identified as the wife of a man living somewhere below Middletown. She had been residing in this city for several weeks, where she contracted habits of drinking, and it is supposed that while laboring under the influence of liquor she wandered to the canal, and either accidentable wandered wan

He was breight to Mr. Erb's tavern, at the end of the in, who found it necessary to amputate the halis leg, which duty was performed in a highly satisfactory manner, and yesterday he was doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances. The wounded man is said to be a switch-tender on the railroad at York.

ATTEMPT TO ROB AT MIDDLETOWN .- It seems that the citizens of our neighboring borough, Middletown, are not altogether exempt from the visitations of burglars. On Sunday night, as we learn from the Journal, an attempt was made by some daring fellow to enter the store from of Messrs. Meily. The scoundrel tried to force an entrance through the office attached to the rear of the building, and succeeded to pring open the shutter, when he was heard by one of the clerks, who sleeps in the store .--While attempting to force the window, the clerk grasped a large duelling pistol, and disfore did not hit the intruder, but the shot took would have received the contents in his heart. b heavy was the charge, that the defender was bjated to some extent by the "kicking" of the pistol. The thief has not yet been apprehended, but we may here state that the same weapon has been reloaded with about one hunded buck shots, and wee be to the man who dares to make a similar attempt.

It is true that the proposed ordinance states that the aforesaid sum of money, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated for the ordinary expenses and improvecents of the several departments of the said city, for the year ending March 31st, 1963— "the same to be expended at such times as may be directed by Council." But, in no part of the same are any particular improvements specified; nor are the main items of exp-nditures for the water works, "for city lamps and other lights," stated therein; with regard to the appropriation of three thousand nine hundred dollars ordinance to the Mayor from which he can as certain the propriety of the sum? And I think your spectfully call the attention of the public, at body will agree with me in saying that all appropriations for the expenditure of money arising from whatever cause they may, short of absolute and imperious necessity, should be withheld until the present intamous rebellion charged the contents, consisting of two bullets and about sixty buck shots, at the robber. OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—Our citizens should feel the highest degree of gratification for the ad vantage they possess in the system of public schools now in operation in this place. Under the careful supervision of the board of directors, the utmost caution is manifested in the selection of teachers, and we venture to say that there is not a city in the State of Pennsylvania blest with more competent teachers in their public schools.
