MISS A. M. STODDARD will open, Thursday, May 1, Spring and Summer Millinery. [29.81*

Down the River -A large number of rafts, arks and several new canal boats, passed down the river this morning.

In Town.-Hon. Hendrick B. Wright, Member of Congress from the Luzerne district, was in town to-day looking remarkably well.

THE MAN found drowned in the river yesterday, noticed in last evening's TELEGRAPH is supposed to be John Askey, who some three or four weeks ago was drowned in attempting to iump from a raft to the guard wall at Lock Haven, Clinton county.

BAD FOR THE ORGAN GRINDERS. -The Prussian Minister of the Interior has decided that organ grinders, like pedlars, must take out the annual next. license for the exercise of their vocation. It is "feared" the grinders, in consequence of this decision, will emigrate in a body. Will they come to this country?

POLICE MATTERS.—The redoutable Cal. Harris was arrested last evening by officer Fleck, charged with indecent conduct on the street. Alderman Kline sent her to prison for thirty davs.

The same policeman also arrested two white girls, notorious prostitutes, at Allison's bill last evening charged with bad conduct. They were also sent to prison by Alderman Kline.

WHO ARE ENTITLED TO PENSIONS.—The Attorney General has decided that all disabled soldiers of the three years' or war men are entitled to invalid pensions under the act of July 22d. 1861, and that all disabled three months' soldiers, called into service under the President's proclamation of April 15, 1861, are entitled to pensions under the acts of 1802 and 1816. He also decides that there is no law giving pensions to widows and orphans of deceased soldiers of the present war.

A RESTAURANT CAR lately reached Philadelphia from Wilmington, attached to a train. It is the intention of the Philadelphia and Baltimore company to add a similar car to each of their through trains, and they are being constructed at Wilmington with dispatch. Edibles are to be furnished hot in these cars, which will be either eaten there, or handed on trave to the passengers at their seats. This will be a great accommodation, the value of which cannot be estimated by those who are not travelers; and we hope to see the Pennsylvania Railroad company adopt a similar arrangement.

WILLIAM W. REITZEL SAYS the Washington Sunday Chronicle (with which newspaper he was formerly connected as business agent) has been appointed by Postmaster General Blair, to the position of mail agent between Harrisburg and Philadelphia. Mr. Reitzel was for several years engaged in the express business, with years engaged in the express business, with Adams & Co., and is thoroughly acquainted with railroading in all its varied details. A bord or artist when the truth is it is not in the property of the property better selection, we think, could not have been made. He leaves a host of friends at the capital, who wish him all possible success in his Strange that the immortal heroes of song, and a few more years pass over the heads of Jobling icle in its good wishes for Mr. Reitzel, and we know that there are many in this city who will respond to the same congratulation. He is deserving of his success.

COURT PROCEEDINGS - Monday Afternoon .- The Court met at two o'clock, the Associate Judges April and May, and if there is anything enhaving arrived, his Honor, Judge Pearson livening or inspiring in mud and rain every charged the Grand Jury in his usual able manner; Charles A. Snyder, Esq., acting as foreman to the Grand Jury.

The first jury trial was then taken up, it being the case of the Com. vs. Mary Orr. The prosecutor in the case was the husband of the lady, James B. Orr, who complained that the lady in question had committed an assault and flowers are unnatural, and are induced by high Burnside Expedition n South Carolina, and battery upon him. A DANGEROUS ALTERED NOTE -Our readers should be careful about taking the ten dollar notes on the Corn Exchange Bank of Philadel phia. Counterfeits of this denomination have been issued, but, as yet, are not in extensive circulation. They are altered from 1's on the same bank. The vignette is an oval portrait of Gen. Scott; the figure 10 on each upper corner; a female with sheaf and sickle on the lower left corner, and a female with a basket of fruit on the lower right.

LECTURE THIS EVENING .- We again call the attention of our readers to the lecture of Rev. S. P. Henson, of the Broad street Baptist church, Philadelphia, to be delivered in the Presbyterian church, corner of Third and Pine streets this evening. Mr. Henson has never appeared before a Harrisburg audience, but his reputation as a lecturer, gained in Philadelphia and elsewhere, is a sufficient guarantee that a treat awaits us. While we by no means believe that it is necessary to go beyond our own city to find able and eloquent lecturers—and the four preceeding lectures of the course abundantly prove that it is not—we yet commend the action of the Lecture Committee in giving us an opportunity to hear one of the best that dred per annum. > TWENTY-TWO FEET OF BLACKSNAKES. -- On Sunday afternoon Jacob Seitz amused himself in hunting snakes on the South mountain, east of this city, and succeeded in killing five blacksnakes, the aggregate length of which was twenty-two feet. The snakes appeared to be in company, and were apparently lured from their winter quarters by the warm sun of the last few days. We approve of Mr. Seitz's plan in killing all such reptiles wherever met. It is much better than that pursued by some of the Union generals now commanding our armies, who, when they catch a rattlesnake, usually administer the oath and let it slide, so that it may sting somebody else.

House Cleaning. - During the past two weeks the tidy housewives have been busily engaged with brooms, brushes, pails and all the usual implements pertaining to the cleaning art, in removing and obliterating the accumulated filth of winter, and putting affairs in order for the coming season. These operations are always attended with great tribulation and preeent discomfort to the sterner sex, who are at such times unceremoniously put to flight and sanished from the premises doomed to be put to rights. The destruction of papers and derangement of all their favorite arrangements must be submitted to by the lords of creation with the best possible grace, as no remonstrance during house cleaning times has ever been known to produce any effect. We must admit, however, that a regular cleaning does improve the appearance of things, and in a short time all the temporary inconveniences caused by the operation are overcome, not to be renewed until the next annual visitation.

JOBLING has just been getting married. He married a nice girl-remarkably nice-just from boarding school. She has golden hair, violet eyes, roseate cheeks, pearly teeth, snowy hands, neat ancies, and has no occasion for bullet proof breast-works.
