The Rebel Outrages at Manassas.

Washington, April 30.
The committee on the conduct of the war, made a report to-day, on the subject of the bar-barities committed by the rebels at Manassas, on the bodies of the federal soldiers, who fell at hat battle.

The committee give ample evidence to sustain all the previous allegations. The report hows that the most inhuman acts were perpetrated by the rebels. The committee say:
"The outrages on the bodies of our dead will revive recollections of the cruelties to which were buried in many cases naked, face downwards In other cases, the testimony shows that the bodies were left to decay in the open air.— Their bones were dug up and carried off as trophies. Drinking cups were made of their

The testimony of Governor Sprague is extremely interesting.

One of our men, who was taken prisoner, testifies that five of his comrades were shot by sentinels. The murders were prompted by other rebels. Dr. Honiston, Surgeon of the New York Fourteenth regiment, testifies that the rebels brutally rejused him permission to aid the wounded who were under his charge on the field. He avers that he saw reb.l Surgeons unecessarily and inhumanly operate on ou soldiers. Some of our wounded were left lying on the field at Bull Run, through one rainy and one sultry day, and when they were at last brought in, their wounds were completely alive with larves deposited by flies Gen. Ricketts testifies that the rebels threatened to knock his brains out as he lay on the ground, wounded: that they stripped his first icutenant and left him naked on the field. Also, that our soldiers who died at Richmond were buried naked along with negro corpses.
