BARRISBURG, PA. Saturday Morning, May 8, 1862.

REV. C. A. HAY, of this city, is attending the chine, now in session at Lancaster city.

THE usual quarterly term of the Court of Common Pleas will commence next Monday. There are 40 cases on the trial list. It is probatheir sentences next Monday.

CITAINS THROAT.—We learn that an old soldie named Samuel Rouk, one of the "Silver ders, while laboring under the influence of honor Thursday night, somewhere on the Ridge mid made an attempt to commit suicide by cutting his throat. We could not learn further particulars.

Is April showers bring May flowers, a bountiful crop ought to be expected this month.-The weather the past week has been changealle-wet, dry, warm and cool The warm weatnest brought forth the buds and blossoms of early bearing fruit trees, fortunately the cold was not severe enough to injure them.

A PUZZLE -A and B went to market with pige, and, wishing to sell at the same rate, sold vania regiment. them at 5 for $2, and received only $24. Why should be not receive as much as when Bowned half of the pigs?

PREPARING FOR SUMMER .- Many of our citigens are exhibiting a commendable degree of away from the front and rear of their dwellings. This certainly should be done for the sake of good health during the hot and sultry weather to go into service. of summer. An additional number of shade trees have been planted in the streets of the borough, and the old ones trimmed out.

A WOMAN in Harrisburg, Pa., claims a divorce because her husband has joined the rebel army. Good for her, we hope it will be granted .- Lehigh Register .

Mifflin county, caught a deer under remarkable circumstances. While at breakfast the deer appeared in the field near the house, whereupon Mr. McD. immediately gave chase, over the field and into the creek, where he caught the doer by the exis. A tremendous struggle ensued, in the water, but strange to say, Mr. McD. sace ded in holding on until a rope was brought and the deer completely secured. This probaby the first time in the history of that county that a full grown deer was fairly caught by a single individual, without dogs.

BARNUM'S Great National Dog Show is announcbleeds of all the dogs that ever bayed the moon organied at a burglar. This "show" is origiad with Barnum, and it will doubtless afford the "fancy" of the country rare sport and Valuable instruction. If Barnum would call in this neighborhood he could secure several breeds of the hound and the puppy which would add to the interest of the "show."

SECESSION BOWIE KNIVES .- Mr. Augustus L. Armstrong, of the Land Office in this city, has laid upon our table two frightful momentoes of ktession in the shape of bowle knives, found the battle field of Manassas, and sent to him er his sou, Jacob Wm. Armstrong, of the army. The blades of the weapons are made of iron, and are respectively about eight and ten inches long; both are sharp-pointed, but their edges land. are exceedingly blunt, and would scarcely do to sare a Cheshire cheese. The handles are usile of roughly hewn hickory, and furnished with guards to protect the hands. They were ^{tridently} manufactured by some country black-
