Forever float that standard sheet! Where breathes the foe but falls before us, With Freedom's soil beneath our feet, And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us.

OUR PLATFORM. THE UNION—THE CONSTITUTION—AND THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAW.

HARRISBURG, PA. Thursday Afternoon, May 8, 1862.

As our armies advance, reconquering and taking possession of the territory and fortifications which the rebels stole from the federal government, it becomes necessary that each point should be garrisoned by soldiers who are faithful, loyal and competent for such service.

How far a MAGNANIMOUS PEOPLE may from self-respect choose to carry their forbearance towards demagogic rebels, is a question for themselves to determine. There is no wrong to the rebels in employing and arming slaves for the suppression of this "slaveholders' insurrection," after what they have done in the very spirit of the bottomless pit for the overthrow of the government.

WHEN MODERN DEMOCRATS are tested by the facts of the record, and when a fair comparison of their acts with their profession is made, we discover at once the real authors of our present national embarrassment.

It is a fact that the only persons from the North, who have been found by us in the rebel army, and taken prisoners, are Democrats.

It is a fact that the only parties at the North who justify or apologize for the rebels are Democrats.

It is a fact that the only party in the North supported by the disloyal is the Democratic.

It is a fact that the only men elected to office at the North about whose loyalty there is any question are elected by Democrats.

It is a fact that the only disloyal newspapers at the North are Democratic.

It is a fact that the only papers which have been suppressed for their treasonable utterances were Democratic.

It is a fact that the only Northern apologists and defenders of the institution of slavery are Democrats.

It is a fact that the only parties which oppose the complete prostration of the rebellion by the force of arms is the Democratic.

It is a fact that all the opposition to a full and complete vindication of the majesty of the Government, in this unholy war upon it, comes from the Democrats.

Let our Republican readers make a note of these facts, and when assailed by a Democrat, quietly ask for a comparison of records.

THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY will seek to restore the Union upon its ancient basis.—Breckenridge organ.

RICHMOND papers declare that the rebels will stand and give the federalists fight, two miles from that city. The same journals also state that "the Yankees are to be driven from Virginia." If we can judge, we have no notion that our armies are to be "driven" from that state, as they pass through in pursuit of the flying traitors.

TELEGRAPHIC 2D EDITION. Later From Yorktown.

THE REBELS STILL FLYING. Gen. McClellan Catches up to them Eight Miles beyond Williamsburg. A SEVERE SKIRMISH. The Rebels get Whipped and Retreat Across the Chickahominy.

A Large Number of Rebels Captured. HEAVY CANNONADING HEARD ON THE RIVER.

The Bridges Across the Chickahominy Destroyed. The Enemy just where McClellan wants Him.

Probable Capture of the Entire Rebel Army. BALTIMORE, May 8.

The following was received from Yorktown, dated yesterday at 12 o'clock: To-day, as I close my letter, the latest intelligence received from the field of battle is that Gen. McClellan has come up with the enemy, about eight miles beyond Williamsburg, and after a pretty severe skirmish with his rear, he again put him to flight, and without the intention of making a stand anywhere, and unless they reach Richmond in boats by way of the James river they will certainly be intercepted and captured by the forces landed and landing at West Point.

There is no doubt but that the whole army of Lee, Johnson and Magruder are in a state of disorganization, and under the rapid pursuit of Gen. McClellan are fleeing with great precipitation, and without the intention of making a stand anywhere, and unless they reach Richmond in boats by way of the James river they will certainly be intercepted and captured by the forces landed and landing at West Point.

On Monday the enemy took about eighty of our men prisoners and captured one of the Pennsylvania batteries, having first killed all the horses and they having but a small support of infantry were overpowered by a superior force, and were compelled to abandon their guns, but before the close of the day this battery with one of the companies was recaptured by Gen. McClellan, and the prisoners they had taken were found in Williamsburg next day attending on the wounded of the enemy left behind.

It will be remembered that the Chickahominy river runs parallel with the James river, into which it empties.

It is the general impression that Gen. McClellan has now got the enemy just where he wants him.

FROM WASHINGTON. Address to the Democracy.

Despatches from Commodore Dupont. Expedition to Capture a Rebel Battery.

THE REBELS LEAVE IN HASTE. The Battery Destroyed. Capture of a Rebel Schooner.

WASHINGTON, May 8. Messrs. Richardson, Knapp and Robinson, of Illinois, Law and Vethies, of Indiana, Allen, White, Noble, Pendleton, Morris and Anderson, of Ohio, Johnson and Ancona, of Pennsylvania, and Shiel, of Oregon, have their address to the Democracy of the United States, setting forth party organization as a positive good and essential to the preservation of public liberty.

The Navy Department has received despatches from Commodore Dupont to day, dated Port Royal, May 2d, giving interesting particulars of an exhibition on the 29th ult., with the fleet, to capture a battery on Grumhall's plantation, near the junction of the Dawho, Poa-Pow and South Edisto rivers.

It appears that the enemy opened on the Hale when within eighteen hundred yards and continued their fire as she would her way to engage them at close quarters, but when the Hale reached the last bend and was making a straight course for the battery the rebels fled in haste.

Lieutenant Gilliland with a party of men destroyed it. The work was about three hundred and fifty yards from the river bank and mounted two fine long twenty-four pounders on excellent field carriages. One of the guns, so rapid was the flight of the rebels, was left loaded and primed.

The Hale returned to her anchorage without having a man injured. Another report details the proceedings at Bull Bay.

Lieut. Nickels crossed the bar with the Onward on the 7th ult., and anchored within 800 yards of a light house on Bull's Island, and opened fire on a small work situated about fifty yards to the southward of the light house. Shortly after he landed in his boats, covered by the guns of the Onward. The rebels fired upon the party, but not awaiting an attack, escaped from the island to the mainland.

The Onward has now complete command of the channel, so that no vessel can either enter or go out.

On the 3d ult. Lieutenant Commanding Nicholson, of the Isaac Smith, then stationed at St. Augustine, having heard that a schooner had come in over Matanzas for some thirteen miles to the southward, dispatched three armed boats, together with a detachment of twenty-five men from Colonel Bell's command to capture her, which was done, and the schooner brought to St. Augustine.

The schooner was called the Empire city. She had an English register and cleared from Nassau for St. Johns, N. C. Her cargo consisted of provisions, dry goods, medicines, etc. In consideration of the fact that the citizens of St. Augustine was without the necessities of life and with no means of getting them, Lieut. Nicholson sold the cargo, or a portion of it, at auction, considering the overruling necessity.

FROM FORTESS MONROE. ARRIVAL OF PRESIDENT LINCOLN.

HE VISITS NEWPORT NEWS. THE MERRIMAC STILL VISIBLE.

FORTRESS MONROE, May 7. President Lincoln arrived here this morning and spent the day with Gen. Wool.

This afternoon he visited Newport News to see Gen. Mansfield and to have a closing view of the Merrimac, which has been lying off Craney Island all the afternoon, for the purpose, no doubt, of preventing our gunboats from running up the James river. She made no attempt to come out.

The Geo. Peabody arrived here from Hatteras to-day, and started immediately for New York. No news has transpired here.
