to-morrow. SENTANCE OF PRISONERS.—The prisoners tried and convicted at the last term of court will receive their sentence to morrow.

SPRING AT THE SOUTH .- Everything is very forward at the South at present. The Union flower, now in the bud, will soon be in full blossom. The federals are shooting, and the rebels begin to leave.

INFORMATION has been received here of the death of Charles D. Hineline, Esq., which occurred at the residence of his father-in-law in Philadelphia last Friday. Mr. Hineline was formerly publisher of the "State Sentinel" in Muggins' Last.-Muggins was passing up street one day with a friend, when he observed a poor dog, that had been killed, lying in the gutter. Muggins paused, gazed intently at the defunct animal, and at last said: "Here is another shipwreck." "Shipwreck! where?"-"There's a bark that's lost forever." His companion growled and passed on.

SUDDEN DEATH. - William Reamsheart, son of Nicholas Reamsheart, the well-known butcher of this city, died very suddenly night before last, at the residence of his father in Locust street He was in good health on Saturday and attended to his usual daily avocation. The immediate cause of his death is supposed to have been congestion of the brain.

EGGS THAT WERE NOT EGGS .- At Fortress Monroe, recently, a number of flour barrels were received which were marked, "eggshandle with care." They were addressed to private parties, but some army official opened that harmless "jarb," however, the merchant said barrels, when the eggs were found to be had given her a "camphene cocktail." This made of glass with long necks, and their con-

It is not Mr. Kunkle of the kle, who intends putting up a very handsome house with press brick front, for a private residence, and when completed will be an ornal degree to improve the morals or enhance rement to the city.

THE DAINTY-FOOTED .- "Dainty-footy May" furnished us with a very fair specimen of her blages a wide berth, at the expense of no little best "licks" to-day. The skies were bright as inconvenience, preferring to brave the material a new silver half dollar, and the air was as which clings to their feet, rather than take the balmy as a breeze from a hay field. ATTENTION. HOPE.—A special meeting of the Hope Fire Company, No. 2, will be held this evening, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of making the necessary arrangements to attend the funeral of our late fellow-member, G. W. Getty.

THE FUNERAL of the late Washington Weaver will take place from the residence of his fatherin-law, Mr. Willis, in Third street, at 3 o'clock, to-morrow afternoon. The members of the Friendship and other fire companies together with the Odd Fellows will attend the funeral in a body.

THE MEMBERS of Harrisburg Lodge No. 68, I. O. O. F., are requested to meet at the lodge room at two o'clock to-morrow afternoon to attend the funeral of their late brother Washing Weaver.

The members of No. 160 and 70 are invited to participate in the funeral obsequies.

A SPECIAL meeting of the Friendship Fire Company will be held in their hall this, (Monday) evening, at the usual hour, to make arrangements to attend the funeral of our late member, Washington Weaver. The Fire Department of the city is respectfully invited to attend the funeral of our late fellow member, Washington Weaver, on Tuesday afternoon, without further notice. By order.

S. S. CHILD, Secretary.

A WELL KNOWN FEMALE of the ancient and honorable fraternity of bummers was arrested by one of the police last Saturday. Her crime was that "she drank not wisely, but too much." In her defence she said that she had gone into a shop back of the hill and called for a little peppermint as a medicine for a complaint to which she had always been liable. Instead of very naturally had fired up the old lady, and, tents were found to consist of the oil of corn. having once started, she found it impossible to hold her horses.
