This kind of beer in taste equals lager; is made much stronger in quality; is an introduction of the new lager which comes makes it a rather dangerous beverage for weakhed red people, especially those not customary dinkers of lager, but in spite of the immense quality of Buck sold at the several saloons, everything was as quiet as usual.

Recently the Kentucky Legislature petitioned Gen. Buell to permit the regiment to remain in that State as a guard, which, however, could not be done, as its services were needed with the main body of the army in Tennessee. CAMP HETZELL, Springfield, Tennesse March 21st. 1862

Col. E. C. WILLIAMS, Commanding Lochiel Cavalry Sin:—I have the honor, as Chaplain of the Lochiel Cavalry, to present you the following report of my labors and of the moral condition f your command.

My appointment is dated the 22d November, 1861, and I joined the regiment permanently. at Camp Andy Johnson, on the 15th December During the time I remained at that encamp ment, there were very few opportunities for public worship, owing to the unfavorable condition, alike of the ground and the weather but such as were afforded were embraced. My sold for a few days only in May, and is merely attempts to do good to the soldiers were, there fore necessarily restricted to more private ef immediately after the Buck Beer. Its strength forts. Among these were conversations on the subject of religion, distribution of tracts, testaments, and other religious books, and holding prayer-meetings. During our stay in that place, I preached four or five times in the open air, held service three times in the hospital, held four or five prayer-meetings, and conduct-ed three funeral services on horseback. A small church was organized, on the principle of receiving all members of evangelical churches in good standing, and with a pledge of mutual watchfulness and prayer. After leaving Camp Andy Johnson we were not able to have preaching, on account of the weather, or of moving on the Sabbath, except once at Bardstown and once at Munfordsville, until we came to Litchfield. In the latter place, the inhabitants were kind enough to offer us the use of their church. I preached there four times, and on each occasion, had a good congregation, mainly compo-sed of soldiers. After leaving Litchfield we were on the march two Sabbaths, and so situasplinter from one of the cabin boards. Harristed during the week, that it was not possible to hold religious worship, without great incontrate has scarcely been a battle of any note of the regiments, at our departure from Mun-

This short statement will be sufficient to show that the season has been very unfavorable for religious efforts, and that it has been rendered more so by our frequent marches, both unavoid able incidents of a winter campaign. The openhe his illness he was regarded as one of the lng spring, and the return of comparatively healthiest men in Harrisburg. For many years pleasant weather, give promise of more frequent opportunities of usefulness in the future.

As the result of my experience and observaoffices in this city as a pressman, and for a year tion thus far, I have the following statements and suggestions to make:

1. Our men have had their origin, in a sec tion of country where churches and schools abound, and seem generally to have enjoyed the usual religious advantages of such regions 2. Very many of them are the sons of religious parents, who have followed their sons, in and watched until his death, with a solicitude and care which speak in the highest terms for the hospitality as well as humanity of the profrequently observed in men so situated, which oo often found expression in dissipation and a

Also within the last two weeks there has been an increased attention to sacred music in the 1st battalion, and a very respectable choir has been formed, for the purfirtery dear friends are at tes with her, but pose of conducting public worship in a more becoming manner.
In view of all that has been said, I venture

therefore to suggest:

5. That neither by general order nor the

Tribute of Respect.

At a meeting of the Hope Fire Company No. 2, held in their Hall, Monday evening, May 12, 1862, the following preamble and resolution were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, This company has received the the intelligence that the arrow of Death has again winged its way in our midst, and guided by the unerring hand of an All-wise Creator, has struck in its course the heart of our much esteemed and late fellow-member, George Washington Geety, and now the once active frame and animated countenance which beamed with future hopes and expectations, lies a cold inanimate corpse, soon to be numbered with the clods of the valley. Therefore, Resolved, That in the death of George Washington Geety we deplore the loss of one of our oldest and most efficient members, untiring in the discharge of his duties as a fireman, social, kind and and agreeable companion, and one who enjoyed the respect and esteem of all who knew him; therefore,

Resolved, That we pay our last tribute of respect to his remains, by attending them to their last resting place, with the hope that as he endured his sickness with such patience and resignation, he will meet the full reward of the just made perfect; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the house and apparatus of the company be placed in mourning for the space of thirty days, and that a copy of the above preamble and resolutions be transmitted to the family of our deceased member, and also published in the daily papers of the city. Extract from the minutes.

Thomas G. Sample,

For the Telegraph.] General Synod of the Lutheran Church.

HARRISBURG, May 11, '62. Editor of Telegraph:

I am sorry that, in your kindly-meant allu-ion to myself in your yesterday's issue, you were led by an erroneous report of the ceedings of the General Synod of the Lutheran Church, to place me in a somewhat unfair light efore your readers.

What my views upon the great questions of the day may be, is, indeed, of little importance to the public; but as you have seen proper, doubtless with the kindest intentions, to call the public attention to them, it is perhaps due to me that I be allowed to correct the errors of blundering reporter, by whom you were misled.

I did not, as reported, merely reiterate one of the prominent ideas of the admirable series of resolutions that were passed almost unani-mously by the Synod. But, when the third resolution was under discussion, and the subect of slavery had thus been introduced, (as ] thought unnecessarily,) I suggested, in order to complete the historical statement contained in the resolution, that it would be proper to al-lude to the emancipation act recently passed by Congress, as the first national movement, under Providence, in the direction of the ultimate ompliments are squandered on their friends, services.

As a relief to the foregoing, I am happy to disenthralment of that race, for the oppression of which God is so severely chastising us.—

With those who are so happy as only which, of course, I am best acquainted, I have them occasionally they pass for miracles observed some favorable changes. Owing to odium of this crime against humanity with the States which, in their sovereign capa-city, are still willing to bear it.

This suggestion was received with cordial approval by the Synod; but, being subsequently incorporated in a proposition, brought forward by Rev. Dr. Storke, (as a substitute for the resolution presented by the committee,) in which the propriety of national compensation to loyal owners of slaves was called in question, it fell with this substitute, and I did not care to renew or press it, as I was very well satisfied with the resolution as it stood. I take the liberty of herewith once more preseating this resolution, as enthusiastically adopted by the Synod, to the careful attention of your readers:

"Resolved, That, whilst we regard this un happy war as a righteous judgment of God, visited upon us because of the individual and national sins of which we have been guilty, we nevertheless regard this rebellion as more immediately the natural result of the continuance and spread of domestic slavery in our land, and therefore hall with unmingled joy the proposition of our Chief Magistrate, which has received the sanction of Congress, to extend aid from the general government to any State in which slavery exists, which shall deem fit to initiate a system of constitutional emancipation.'

Respectfully yours, &c., CHARLES A. HAY.

FOR CONGRESS, F. K. BOAS.—It is not our purpose to take part in politics, but in associating the name of F. K. Boas, with the next Congressman from this district, we give but exsions to the popular voice, and in his election, will secure an able advocate, and high-toned gentleman, to protect our rights in the halls of national legislation, the importance of which is as patent to thinking minds, as the facilities offered to the public for good investments at the cheap dry goods house of Urich & Bowman, corner of Front and Market streets.
