HARRISBURG, PA.
Friday Afternoon, May 16, 1862.

AMONG THE CURIOSITIES OF BARNUM'S DOG SHOW is a King Charles spaniel, which is capable of imitating its mistress, a Genoa lady, is singing a familiar melody.

ONE OF THE FEDERAL BRIGADES entered the battle at Williamsburg, with over two thousand four hundred men, and lost more than twenty-five per cent. of that number.

A BIBLE was found in an officer's tent at Yorktown, evidently intentionally left with a mark in it, and a leaf turned down at 2d Kings, 9th chapter and 19th verse, onward. Any reader can find the passage and apply the name of J-h-u to McClellan, that of J-h-r-a-m to Gen. Lee, and that of A-h-a-z-i-a-h to Jeff. Davis.

SWORN INTO OFFICE.—In the matter of the petition of citizens of the Fourth ward remonstrating against the qualification of Bernard Campbell, constable elect of said ward, his honor Judge Pearson yesterday made an adverse decision, whereupon Mr. Campbell appeared, was sworn, and entered upon the discharge of his duties.

WHEN General Butler took possession of Baltimore, shortly after the breaking out of the war, the New Orleans journals made merry at his expense, and declared he was an old colored barber, known as "Picayune Butler," who formerly kept a shop under the St. Charles Hotel in the Crescent City. We presume the New Orleans people will be pleased to meet their old friend "Picayune." It is feared, however, that they won't like his razor, nor even the shaving to which some of his journeymen will subject the rebels.

HORSE AND BUGGY THIEVES.—A buggy belonging to David Mumma, was stolen from his residence in Susquehanna township, this county, on the evening of the 14th inst. A description of the vehicle can be found in an advertisement in another part of this evening's TELEGRAPH.—Mr. Mumma offers a reward of $150 for such information as will lead to the conviction of the thief.

A horse belonging to Mr. David Metzgar, residing about three miles below Middletown, on the river road, was stolen on the night of the 12th inst. A description of the animal can be found in our advertising columns. A reward of $50 is offered for the capture of the thief and recovery of the horse.

A LUCKY WOMAN.—Mrs. Opie, a lady from New York city, on arriving at Easton last Saturday evening in the late express train from this city last, in the car, a valuable diamond ring. He, son-in-law, Mr. Lane, calling upon O. W. Shattuck to see what could be done to reclaim the lost treasure, was advised to telegraph immediately to the general ticket agent, J. C. Clyde, of this city to search the car. This was on Sunday morning, and on Wednesday afternoon Mr. Lane was sent for at the Lebanon Valley depot, at Easton, by Mr. Shattuck, and he and his wife traveled over four different railroads. The ring was valued at sixty dollars.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Thursday night last, Samuel Witt, of Altoona, a brakeman on one of the freight trains between that place and Harrisburg, fell from his train and was run over and killed. It appears that, for the purpose of riding more comfortably, he had placed a board diagonally across a stock car, between the sills, leaving one end protrude over the bumper he occupied. While passing through the narrows, below Lewistown, it is supposed that the board was shaken out of its place at the opposite end from the one to which he sat, thereby causing it to tilt and letting him drop between the bumpers. He fell with his legs across the rail and his body on the outside of the track. One of his legs was crushed from the thigh to the knee, where both legs were cut off. He lived but a few hours after the accident. His remains were taken to Altoona on Friday morning. He leaves a wife but no children.

SAD AFFAIR.—Joseph Updegraff, a private in an Elmira company, who has a number of relatives residing in this city, was lately shot dead in Virginia. He was a promising young man, and his tragic death must have fallen upon the ears of his patriotic mother, who freely gave her husband and four sons to battle for the right, with startling and overwhelming grief. He, with a companion, had strayed from the camp to the distance of about a mile, when they were challenged by the guard, and ordered to halt. His companion did as ordered, and delivered up his arms. Updegraff halted, but refused to lay down his arms, and after a parley was shot down by the guard. The parties in this affair were strangers, belonging to different brigades, and there can be no doubt that poor Updegraff fell a victim to the delusive belief that the challenging party was a mock patrolman. In fact, he had been imposed upon in that way but a day or two before.

MAY PARTY.—Childhood is the May of life. Little girls are the mocking birds of humanity, and the boys are the larks. The grace of song and sentiment are the flowers of the school days. Such were our reflections as we noticed on the street last evening a buoy of bright eyed little girls, who had evidently just returned from the woods, where they had been enjoying a day of unalloyed happiness. They wore white dresses and gay hats of every hue wreathed in smiles and flowers, careless and happy, prettier we fear than ever they will be when the troubles of courtship and the cares of life are upon them. As the troupe of young nymphs passed through Third street they struck up "Gay and Happy," which they carried forth with the vivacity of black birds and the grace of canaries. It was a delightful affair, and many such may the little folks joy.

TARGET SHOOTING.—The First City Zouaves hold a special meeting at their armory to-night for the purpose of making arrangements for target shooting to-morrow.

IN TOWN.—Hon. Joseph Casey, one of the Judges of the U. S. court of Claims at Washington city, is in town to spend a few days among his many warm personal friends of the Capital city of his native State. The Judge is looking remarkably well. He is stopping at Herr's Hotel.

FATHER M'OSKER, chaplain of the Fifty-fifth Pennsylvania regiment, who has been home on a furlough for the last week or so, will return to his regiment, with the army in South Carolina, some time next week. Rev. M'Osker gives a very flattering account of the boys from this neighborhood, all of whom are much attached to him. We have no doubt he will be happy to be the bearer of any small packages or boxes to the men of his regiment from their friends in this city, if left at the residence of Rev. P. Maher, in State street, any time to-morrow.

KILLED ON THE RAILROAD.—A short time since a boy named Andrew Topper, son of the late Josiah Topper, of Youngstown, was run over on the Pennsylvania railroad, near Herrod's Crossing, about three fourths of a mile west of Derry Station, Westmoreland county. During the last eighteen months, he had been living with Mr. Henry Sindsor, of Unity township. On Monday, the 5th inst., he left home, and was wandering through the county until the time of his death. As engine No. 237 was passing the above point, the deceased was observed lying on the track, with his right leg horribly mutilated, two of the toes of the left foot cut off, and his head cut and bruised to a considerable extent. The accident occurred about 2 o'clock, P. M., and he lingered until 9 P. M., when death put an end to his sufferings.

AMERICAN SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION.—The thirty-eighth anniversary of the American Sunday School Union was held at Philadelphia on Tuesday. From the annual report of the Board of Directors, we learn from March 1st, 1861, to March 1st, 1862, the whole number of persons holding the commission of the American Sunday School Union, and acting as missionaries under its direction, has been sixty-four. One thousand and seventy-five new schools have been organized, and three thousand two hundred and fifty-five visited and aided. By this labor, the influence of the missionaries has been brought to bear on some thirty thousand teachers and upwards of two hundred and fifty thousand children; twenty-two thousand families were visited and received religious instructions. Bibles, testaments, text books and periodicals were profusely distributed.

RUN OVER.—A little girl about five years of age, while crossing Second street, a short distance above State, about dusk last evening, was knocked down and run over by a horse and buggy, driven by two flashy dressed "bloodes" of the city, whose brains put together wouldn't smother a flea. To the astonishment of all who beheld the accident, the child escaped without experiencing the least damage, although she was literally picked from beneath the horse's feet. It was a clear case of reckless driving, and some even go so far as to say that the men in the buggy actually observed the child before the accident occurred, and made no effort to check the speed of their horse. The affair created quite an excitement in that neighborhood, and the Jesus very narrowly escaped receiving a sound thrashing from the crowd who witnessed their reckless conduct. This business of turning our principal thoroughfares into race courses has become a serious nuisance, and the sooner it is "played out" the better. If one or two of the Jesus were brought before his honor the Mayor, we have no doubt the lesson would have a salutary effect.

THE CROPS.—Our exchanges continue to speak in flattering terms of the crops throughout the State, and the indications are now that we will have a most bountiful harvest. The wheat looks remarkably healthy. The winter has been mild, though lingering long in the lap of Spring. Few trees or plants have been injured, and hardly any killed by the severity of the last winter; and for fruit, no season for many years has opened with so rich a promise of an abundant crop. The peaches seem, so far as blossoms are concerned, to promise to make up this year for the failure of many that are past; and apples, cherries, pears, &c., look equally promising. In Western Virginia wheat looks unusually well, and a most abundant crop is predicted. The Wheeling Intelligencer, in alluding to the subject, says: "Our hills and valleys present broad acres devoted to this crop, presenting the appearance of one illimitable carpet of 'living green' spread over the earth. The appearance is one of unsurpassable magnificence and splendor. Really, it makes one's heart green and fresh to behold such evidences of Divine favor, and they should not fail to inspire our hearts with unbounded gratitude. Should nothing occur to injure this crop, it cannot fail to be one of the most bountiful ever harvested in Western Virginia; and while this is so, there are unmistakable evidences that the large surplus likely to be realized will command a better market than that of the past year."

CARPET! CARPET! CARPET!—Having returned from New York, I now have on hand, and I am daily receiving from the New York market, a large assortment of goods, which I offer cheaper than ever. 20 pieces of carpet, from 37¢ cent up to 87¢ cent; 40 pieces of beautiful Carpet in various colors; very cheap; splendid black silks at 75¢ cent, worth 90¢ cent; good black silk at $1, worth $1.25; black silk 32 inches wide at $1.10, worth $1.37; very fine black Bombazini at $1.10, worth $1.50; summer silks at 50¢ cent a yard; 10 pieces of the finest Irish linen at 75¢ cent, worth $1; 1,000 hoop skirts, at 50¢ cent and $1, very cheap. Great bargains in stockings; 20 dozen hemstitched handkerchiefs, at 25¢ cent and 31¢ cent, cheap. Wholesale buyers we respectfully invite to our large stock, all bought for cash in New York auction. Having a buyer in New York, we are daily receiving job lots of the weekly sales, which we promise to sell at city prices to wholesale buyers. S. LAWY, 381-y Rhoad's old stand.

REMOVED from auction 25 pieces of colored and white stow Wadding 26¢31c. Also, a magnificent assortment of embroideries, such as hands, edgings, insertings. At Lawy's.

FOR SALE.—The Novelty Iron Works and Machinery. Terms favorable to meet the purchaser. J. O. BUCHAN, Harrisburg.

GARDEN SEEDS.—Just received a large invoice of choice Garden Seeds—comprising greater variety of imported and home grown than has ever been offered in this city. Those who may desire to purchase, can depend upon getting the best in the world, at the wholesale and retail grocery store of WM. DOCK, JR. & CO.

FLORIST'S SEEDS.—A CHOICE LOT of ASTERS and TEN WEEK STOCKS, with a general variety of Fresh flower and Garden Seeds, received and for sale at No. 91 Market Street. KEELER'S Drugstore.

TURKISH PRUNES. choice article, just received for sale by NICHOLS & BOWMAN, Corner Front and Market streets.

CALL at Finley's stand in Market street, to-morrow morning, and try his bread, biscuits, and cakes, &c., &c. Twenty-five per cent. saved.

GOOD TEMPLAR.—A Lodge of this flourishing Temperance order was organized in Selinsgrove on Wednesday evening last, under very favorable circumstances.

ATTENTION HOPE.—A stated meeting of the Hope fire company, No. 2, will be held this evening at 8 o'clock. Punctual attendance is requested.

SHIPMENTS FROM THE WEST.—An immense amount of freight is now daily coming Eastward. Much of it is of a perishable nature and requires haste. Live stock forms an important item. It is said that at many of the principal depots in Ohio the freight has accumulated in such abundance as to be an actual burden to the transporting companies.

ONE OF FLOYD'S PUPILS ABOUT.—It was Wednesday evening, the rush of business for the day was over, and quiet reigned in our usual busy mart of iron, our senior partner had taken up the afternoon paper, to read of rebellion and its doings. Raising his eyes he beheld a sable female enter the door. Our heavy clerk in the distance observed her place a large piece of goods under her shawl, and directed the attention of our junior partner to the fact, who dispatched a messenger for the chief of police, who toted her off to durance vile. Now, while we insist upon selling goods at very low prices, we do not wish to be understood that we permit them to be carried away without any charge. UAZO & BOWMAN, 15 Corner Front and Market streets.
