THE GUNBOATS WITHDRAW

Washington, May 17, 11 o'clock, p. m. The following despatch has been received at the War Department:

WILLIAMSBURG, May 17. To the Hon. Edwin M. Stanton, Secretary of War: The gunboats Galena, Monitor, Arestook, Naugatuck and Port Royal were repulsed from Fort Darling, seven miles below Richmond yesterday.

A portion of them have returned to James town Island, near this place, in the James river. Lieut. Morris, commanding the Port Royal, sent overland to us this morning, for intelligence regarding the forts below the island, and also to assist in burying the dead which he brought down with him. Seventeen bodies have been interred on the banks of the river, and there are many wounded on board, including Lieut. Morris himself. The 100 pound gun of the Naugatuck exploded at the first fire. DAVID CAMPBELL, (Signed)

A NEGRO REGIMENT ORGANIZING.

NEW YORK. May 18. Letters from Port Royal, by the steamer At lantic, report that the accession of the negro pilot, Small, who ran away from Charleston with the rebel tug boat, is deemed more impor tant than the heavy guns she contained, as Small is thoroughly acquainted with all the intricacies of the navigation in that region.

Gen. Hunter's proclamation had been published in Charleston, and a negro insurrection was imminent. Vast preparations are making to bombard Savannah. Our gunboats have proceeded up the river, and our pickets are within four miles of Savannah. Massive batteries, mounting Par rott guns, have been erected all around the city. Our troops have a portion of the railroad between Charleston and Savannah, in their pòssession. A negro regiment is being organized by Gen. Hunter, its officers being selected from the Massachusetts regiment. The movement meets with favor, as they will be able to perform du ties which will relieve our troops.

The following is an official copy of the free papers issued to the blacks by General Hunter, under the terms of his proclacmation. The deed of emancipation reads as follows: "It having been proven to the entire satisfaction of the General commanding the Depart ment of the South, that the bearer, named -, heretofore held in involuntary servitude has been directly employed to aid and assist those in rebellion against the United States of America: "Now, be it known to all that, agreeably to the laws, I declare the said person free and forever absolved from all claims to his services Both he and his wife and his children have full right to go north, south, east or west, as they may decide. "Given under my hand, at the Headquarters of the Department of the South, this nineteenth day of April, A. D. 1862. "D. HUNTER, "Major General Commanding."
