BARRISBURG, PA Wednesday Morning, May 21, 1862.

ADMITTED TO PRACTICE.—On motion of C. C. Kiwa, Esq., B. F. Etter, Esq., was on Monday similated to practice as an attorney-at law in the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

COMPLAINT has been made to us by several ladies of the bad conduct of a crowd of boys, who make a practice of loafing at the north corner of Third and Market streets until late bours at night, and disturbing peaceable people with their doings and conversation. We commend them to the attention of the police.

THE OWNER of the street sprinkler requests us let is an excellent institution, and we would very much regrot to see it laid aside just as we ar approaching the season when its services are go much needed. Viva le sprinkler, say we.

A Novel mode of giving the rebels news was recently practised by some of the soldiers of the Sixty-second Pennsylvania regiment, before Yorktown. They caught a secesh dog outside of the enemy's lines, and, fastening a newspaper with an account of the taking of Fort Pulaski around his neck, they tied a tin kettle to his tail, and started him back to his brethren, whither he went at an Eclipse pace.

PICATUNE BUTLER.—A correspondent, writing from New Orleans, inform us that the rebel melody, beginning

"Picavune Butler has come to towa," has almost ceased to be sung by the secession-

THE REMAINS OF GEN. KEIM will be removed from the Brady House in this city at 7 o'clock this morning to the Lebanon Valley railroad depot. The State authorities having no troops at their disposal at this point to constijute the funeral escort, prescribed for a brigadier general, the corpse of the distinguished dead will be followed to the depot by the First City Zouaves, Capt. F. Asbury Awl, and from thence will be accompanied to the place of interment at Reading by the family of the deceased, and the Adjutant General, Quartermaster General, and Commissary General of the State.

AMUSEMENTS NEXT WREE .-- Our citizens are promised a fund of amusement next and better after the long interval. The first on the carpet will be Mr. and Mrs. Peabody's enterrefinement, wit, humor, and sparkling vivacity which pervades their entertaiments, have rendeted them at once deservedly popular, whilst the extraordinary changes of personal identity or initivaluting a new parlor pastime of a moral passed some months ago!"

It seems that an elderly man named Fredpoint on the canal, from the west, a canal boat, stables. whose progress was much more rapid, attempted to pass it, which movement, however, was objected to by the occupants of the raft, one of whom, Moss' son, declaring with an oath that the boat should not pass upon any conditions, and then commenced abusing an old man, who seemed to be the owner of the boat. These part es were getting considerably excited, when and lenly old Moss sprang to the canal boat and inding himself likely to be overpowered, seized man. hold of an axe and with it struck the canal boat owner's son a violent blow on the head,

THE TRIBULATIONS OF PICKPOCKETS-INFORMA-TION FOR MAGISTRATES. -The last Legislature selves. Magistrates were authorized to commit A. M., or after 3 o'clock, P. M. such persons for ninety days. The act caused quite a flatter among the pickpockets, and indignant protests of its unconstitutionality were uttered by the few of that class who laid claim to legal knowledge. Two of this number, Byers and Davis, were arrested, and under its provisions committed for the term just men- NORTH. tioned. They employed counsel, and took the case to the Supreme Court, where the constitutionality was argued. It was insisted that the SOUTH. act was repugnant to that clause in the Declaration of Rights in the Constitution which guarantees " that trial by jury shall be as heretofore, and the rights thereof remain inviolate.' The case was heard in this city last week, and the opinion of the Court, as delivered by Justice Strong, has been published.

In it the Judge stated the objection to the act, and then refers to the condition of the law to inform the public that unless he meets with prior to the adoption of the Constitution, and better patronage he will be compelled to with-takes the ground that the clause quoted is to draw that machine from service. The "sprink | be interpreted by a knowledge of the usage and practice prior to the use of that language. The Judge concludes: But never in England was there any usage, and, consequently, never was there any right in the subject, that every litigated question of fact should be submitted to a jury. Summary convictions for petty offences against statutes were always sustained, and they were never supposed to be in conflict with the common law right to a trial by jury. Vagrants, including rogues and vagabonds, and those who frequent public places for unlawful purposes, are liable to summary conviction and punishment, notwithstanding anything in the Constitution, for they were before the Constitution was adopted. The conviction was affirm ed and the petitioners remanded.

"RELIABLE INFORMATION."-The notice in reference to the meeting of the stockholders of ists of New Orleans. Our men, however, have the Northern Central Railroad last Friday. caught it up; the camps of the federal army published in Monday evening's Telegraph are alive with it, and it can be heard of a was taken by us bodily from the Baltimore moonlight evening on the vessels ascending the American, generally considered to be one of the most "reliable" papers in that city. The announcement, however, contained in the notice, that "George Small, Esq., was elected to fill the office of President, made vacant by the resignation of the Hon. Simon Cameron, is manifestly a mistake, as that position has been for some time, and is at present very creditably filled by A. B. Warford, Esq., of this city. We presume our Baltimore cotemporar ice, (for the Sun and Clipper made an almost precisely similar notice,) confounded the office of "president," with that of "director," and was thus inadvertantly led into making the error. In regard to that portion of the para graph announcing the removal of the different offices of the company, at present located in this city, back to Baltimore, we have only to the following week, which will come all the say in reply to the inuendo in yesterday's Pairiot and Union, that it is more than probably the Baltimore papers were led into the error tainments at Sanford's Opera House, which by the following announcement which appear-Commence next Monday evening. FOR CONGRESSIVAN THEODORE ADAMS The selection of a person properly qualified to re-present this congressional district in our national legislature is at all times no ordinary task and especially so now through the disorganized condition of our country. While his watchful care will be taxed in securing the immediate interests of the district, more enlarged views of parties were getting considerably excited, when of our unhappy country. Our choice must-then be influenced for the general good, and in then be influenced for the general good, and in the singlet hold of the old man, its owner, and this connection, we mention the name of Theomenous beating him, when a son of the latter hastened to his father's assistance, and the thinking of a congressman, do not forget attempted to push Moss away.
