WASHINGTON, May 22.

SENATE. Mr. WADB, (Obio,) moved to take up the bill donating public lands for the benefit of colleges for the instruction of agriculture and the mechanical arts. Mr. LANE, (Kansas,) and Mr. WILKINSON,

(Minnesota,) opposed the motion. The bill was taken up by a vote of 23 yeas to 19 nays, and was further discussed till 1 o'clock.

For the Telegraph.] YORK, May 21, 1862. Mr. EDITOR:—If there be two things, that afford more pleasure and joy to the Union etit-zens of this locality, than any thing else, it is the triumphant successes of the Federal arms, and the unceasing and scathing manner in which the Morning TRIEGRAFH pours hot shot into the ranks of the dismayed and terrified Breckinridgers. So, on the other hand, if there be any two things, that chagrins and saddens this same class of Breckinridgers, more than anything else, I take it to be the fact, that the rebellion is so nearly crushed out, for which the Administration is attaching to, and cover-ing itself, with so much glory and praise, and At 1 o'clock the Senate proceeded to organ-Emancipation in the District of Columbia Senate.

Col. JOHN W. FORNEY administered the proper oath to the Vice President and Senators.

The House was notified that the Senate was organized into a high court of impeachment and ready to receive the managers of the trial for impeasement from the House. The managers on the part of the House, Brig. Gen. C. P. Buckingnam, United States rolunteers, is assigned to special duty in the War Department, from the 1st inst.

Messrs. Bingham, Pendleton, Dunlap and Train, then appeared at the door of the Senate. The managers took seats at a table which had been placed directly in front of the Vice President's desk. The managers then rising, Mr. BINGHAM read the articles of impeachment made by the House against West H.
