All communications recommending candidates for political offices must be sent in at the time they are handed in, otherwise they will be laid aside.

HARRISBURG, PA. Friday Morning, May 23, 1862.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—The annual election of officers of the Harrisburg Cemetery Association will be held next Monday week, the 2d of June.

IN TOWN.—Col. Wynkoop, of the Seventh Pennsylvania Cavalry, was in town Wednesday, en route to Schuylkill county.

WEDDING FEES.—The religious papers occasionally get off a spicy item. The reverend editor of one of these papers, in a recent issue, says: "In our experience, we have married people for 37 1/2 cents; we have married for a counterfeit bill!"

FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT.—The fly-wheel in the rolling mill at Auburn exploded last Tuesday, instantly killing a fireman in the shop named John O'Hara.

REMO BUSINESS.—The number of civilians with the army of the Potomac, hunting relics, is so large, and the prices paid so liberal, that the soldiers are said to be doing a good business in selling articles which they get up by a very simple process.

SABBATH BREAKING.—We are informed by one of our readers, who resides in the country, that he and his neighbors are exceeding annoyed on Sundays, by boys and men from the city, who make a practice of taking the Sabbath day for gaming, and coming into his woods for that purpose.

WORK FOR THE POLICE.—We have been requested to direct the attention of the police to the conduct of a certain individual, said to be an attorney-at-law of this city, who, for the last two weeks, has been in the habit of visiting the western side of Capitol Park and making objectionable remarks to certain of the lady occupants of the dwelling houses on Third street, between State and Liberty alleys.

WELL DONE.—In a car on the Reading railroad the other day, the seats were all full except one, which was occupied by a pleasant looking Irishman, and at one of the stations a couple of evidently well-bred and intelligent young ladies came in to procure seats.

PENNSYLVANIANS IN THE FIELD.—Pennsylvania has now one hundred and fifteen regiments enrolled, of which all but one are in active service. The latter is nearly full, and will be ready to take the field in a few days.

ON ARRIVING AT THE CEMETERY, the solemn service for the burial of the dead, in accordance with the ritual of the Protestant Episcopal Church, was most impressively read by the Rev. Mr. Leacock, of St. Stephen's Church, Harrisburg.

FOUND.—In the Capitol Park, on Tuesday last, a small gold breast pin, containing a miniature portrait, (d'guerrytype.) The owner can have the same by calling at this office, and paying for this notice.

ON FURLOUGH.—Adjutant Motion of the Seventh Penna. Cavalry, was in town yesterday, en route to Schuylkill county, where his family reside.

MILITARY GOVERNOR OF WILLIAMSBURG.—Col. David Campbell, of Pittsburg, of the Fifth Pennsylvania Cavalry, is appointed Military Governor of Williamsburg.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—We hear of a general smash-up, on Tuesday night, on the Pennsylvania railroad, about two miles west of the Narrows crossing, by a freight train breaking down, throwing several cars off the track.

CAPT. JOHN S. DETWEILER, of Harrisburg, attached to company "E," 9th Penna. (Lochle) Cavalry, has been appointed Assistant Adjutant General, with the rank of Major, on the staff of General Dumont, by order of Major General Buell.

WE congratulate Major Detweiler upon his promotion, and General Buell upon his good judgment in selecting so good and competent an officer.

PENNSYLVANIANS AFTER THE GOLD MINES.—Spirited skirmishes with the Rebels.—A Harrisburg Distinguishes Himself.—The Eighth regiment, Pennsylvania reserves, and two companies of the Fourth Cavalry, all under the command of Col. George S. Hays, left Fredericksburg last week on a reconnoitering expedition to the Virginia gold mines.

DR. F. O. ALLEMAN, of this county, who is Assistant Surgeon of the Eighth Reserves, was selected as Surgeon of the expedition. He participated in the fight, and during the engagement captured a rebel officer mounted on a fine blooded steed, who was handsomely equipped with a brace of pistols and a fine opera glass.

FUNERAL OF GEN. KEIM.—The funeral of Gen. Keim took place at Reading on Wednesday. At an early hour the bells of the city churches, with that of the court house, pealed forth muffled tones, while the flags were at half mast and draped with mourning, not only from the public buildings, but on private dwellings, whilst along the entire route of the procession every house and place of business was closed.

WILLIAM H. KEIM, Died May 18th, 1862. Aged 43 years.

Hundreds of the citizens of Reading and vicinity availed themselves of the opportunity of beholding, for the last time, all that was mortal of one so dearly beloved in life as a citizen, friend and soldier, and honored in death by the only tribute a grateful people could bestow.

ORDER OF PROCESSION. Citizens. Firemen. City Councils. Ringgold Light Artillery. U. S. Officers.—Capts. Muhlenberg, Brown and Millmore; Lieuts. Wier, Williams and Paul.

Carriages containing carriers of Masonic Order from Harrisburg, to wit: John T. Wilson, John Edwards, Theo. F. Sheffer and George W. McCalla.

Carriages containing relatives and friends of the family, among whom was Gen. Sheaffer, Mr. Heister, Dr. H. H. Muhlenberg and Chas. H. Hunter.

The funeral arrangements in this city were conducted by Messrs. Sloan & Boyd, and superintended in Reading by Mr. B. Berollet.

The organization of a bachelors association is at present in progress in this place. All who wish to become members must soon apply at Headquarters, as the first entertainment will be given before long.

WANTED.—Four or five active men to travel in various parts of this State, and our good salesman to go into New York. Persons wishing employment will do well to call on J. R. Asher, at Mrs. Johnson's boarding house, corner of Fourth and Market streets, before 9 o'clock a. m., or after 3 o'clock, p. m.

EDITOR OF TELEGRAPH: With no desire to disparage the qualifications or claims of the several gentlemen who have already been suggested as candidates for the next Congressional term, but with a view to bring prominently before the people other names, which would unquestionably reflect honor upon our district, we take pleasure in asking at your hands the publication of this card of Congressional choice.

While we would cordially support either of the candidates already announced, if their nomination should be determined upon, yet we believe that no man would so faithfully and ably represent us in the councils of the nation as ARCHIBALD WEATING, of Middletown.

Whist faithful to his duty to the nation, he will moreover carry out the principles, upon which he would be elected, forgetting not the wishes of his constituents. His nomination will give strength to the ticket and success to the cause. Doubting not our preference will be duly considered, we leave the matter to a discerning people. LOWER FAXTON.

LOOKING INTO THE FUTURE.—In conversation with distinguished gentlemen from one of the New England States, he gave as his opinion that, upon the termination of the war, his impressions founded upon the best information at his command, that the advance on cotton goods must exceed any thing that we have experienced. Yet it would be well, then, (as the termination of the war is now a foregone thing) not only to read the advertisements of Ulrich & Bowman, but call at their cheap dry goods house, corner of Front and Market streets, and purchase.

CARPET! CARPET! CARPET!—Having returned from New York, I now have on hand, and I am daily receiving from the New York auction sales, a large assortment of goods, which I offer cheaper than ever. 20 pieces of carpet, from 37 1/2 cents up to 87 cents; 40 pieces of beautiful Carpet mullin, very cheap; splendid black silks at 75 cents, worth 90 cents; good black silks at $1, worth $1 25; black silk 32 inches wide at $1 10, worth $1 37; very fine black broadcloth at $1 40, worth $1 50; summer silks at 50 cents a yard; 10 pieces of the finest Irish linen at 75 cents, worth $1; 1,000 hoop skirts, at 50 cents and $1, very cheap. Great bargains in stockings; 20 dozen hemstitched handkerchiefs, at 25 and 31 cents, cheap. Wholesale buyers we respectfully invite to our large stock, all bought for cash at New York auction. Having a buyer in New York, we are daily receiving job lots from the weekly sales, which we promise to sell at city prices to wholesale buyers. S. LAW, 181-y.

REMOVED from auction 25 pieces of colored and white stock Wadding 25@31c. Also, a magnificent assortment of embroideries, such as bands, edgings, insertings. At Law's.
