HARRISBURG, PA. Monday Afternoon, May 26, 1862.

Body Recovered.—The body of Manassah M'Fadden, an interesting son of Wm. C. M'Fadden, of this city, aged about six years, who was accidentally drowned in the canal last Friday, was recovered about 10 o'clock yesterday morning, just below the bridge at the foot of Market street. The funeral of the deceased will take place from his parents' residence, No. 3 Filbert street, at 10 o'clock this morning.

Davis' Panorama.—Four additional scenes have been added by Harry Davis to his great panorama of the rebellion, embracing the bombardment and capture of Forts Henry and Donelson, and the great battle of Pea Ridge. That of Fort Donelson is a double scene, and one of the most stirring battle pictures ever looked upon. We predict that it will create a marked sensation when exhibited before the public. There are now altogether some fifteen scenes added to the panorama since its public exhibition, all painted in that superior style for which this artist is so celebrated.

Movements of U. S. Regulars.—Yesterday morning two companies of U. S. regular troops were ordered forthwith, upon receipt of the news from Gen. Banks' command, to leave Fort Hamilton for Washington city. They arrived in Baltimore this morning and were immediately ordered to Harper's Ferry. We are pleased to state that Lieut. Charles Snyder, of the 8th U. S., son of Charles A. Snyder, Esq., of this city, is adjutant of the command. Lieut. Snyder has hosts of young friends in this city who will be gratified to learn that he has gone into active service. We hope to hear a good account from the regulars as we are certain Lieut. Snyder will acquit himself creditably.

The Oriole, called by some the "golden robin," "hang-bird," "fire-bird," has just made its first appearance. It is the most beautiful of our summer visitors, and is universally admired both for the richness of its plumage and the sweetness of its song. The Oriole enters Louisiana in early spring, probably from Mexico, and gradually makes its way North, to return in autumn. They often are seen clinging by their feet in search of insects, which form their principal food in spring. Its nest is built at the bottom of a skillfully constructed network suspended like a pouch from the end of a branch shaded by overhanging leaves. They are not at all timid, and are often kept in cages, and fed on raisins, figs, and hard boiled eggs.

Relief for the Sick and Wounded.—We are glad to see that the call for articles for the relief of the sick and wounded soldiers in the hospitals at Baltimore and Fort Monroe, is meeting with a hearty response from our patriotic citizens. A large number of articles have already been deposited at the store of Mr. W. S. Shaffer, Market Square, and additions are being made daily. We hope that those who have not yet contributed, will at once bestir themselves in the matter, as it is highly desirable the goods collected should be shipped to their destination with the least possible delay. Shirts, drawers and clothing of all kinds, together with butter, eggs, dried fruits, preserves, jellies, bandages, lint and other hospital supplies, are much needed and will be gladly received by the committee. Those of our citizens who desire to make contributions of either the above enumerated articles, should leave them at Shaffer's store, on or before next Wednesday morning, at which time they will be packed for transmission to the fortress.

Mr. and Mrs. Peabody will be "at home," this evening, at Sanford's Opera House, Third street, the opening in this city of a series of their new, moral and amusing drawing room entertainments. The success of the Peabody's in Philadelphia, exceeded all other concerting in the same locality for a long time, and from the tone of the criticisms in the press of that city, we are led to believe that no similar entertainment was ever attempted in the same city.

Mr. and Mrs. Peabody will be "at home," this evening, at Sanford's Opera House, Third street, the opening in this city of a series of their new, moral and amusing drawing room entertainments. The success of the Peabody's in Philadelphia, exceeded all other concerting in the same locality for a long time, and from the tone of the criticisms in the press of that city, we are led to believe that no similar entertainment was ever attempted in the same city.

Excitement in the City.—The startling telegraphic dispatches received yesterday respecting the defeat of General Banks, created an intense excitement throughout the city. During the afternoon the sidewalk in front of our office was literally jammed with people, who devoured every additional item of intelligence pasted on our bulletin board, with an avidity that indicated the feverish anxiety of their minds which the first brief dispatch was so well calculated to inspire. The news came in unusually tardily, and we were still receiving dispatches after two o'clock this morning.

The excitement in the city to-day has in no manner diminished. The late news was the principal theme of discussion in the household, the stores, hotels, in the streets and at the corners. Third street, in the neighborhood of the magnetic telegraph and news offices, in particular, were alive with news seekers; and every rumor, growing out of conversations on the report of those who professed to have reliable information directly from the scene of conflict, intensified the crowds, and for a while created the wildest excitement.

ROUTE AGENT APPOINTED.—S. L. Sears, of Baltimore, has been appointed Mail Agent on the Northern Central Railroad, between this city and Baltimore.

CAVALRY COMPANY.—Several of our young citizens express a willingness to join a cavalry company of volunteers, if started by some competent parties. Who will first move in the matter?

SEWING FOR THE SOLDIERS.—Miss Burdett and Mrs. Clark respectfully tender to those who have volunteered to sew shirts and under clothing for the sick and wounded soldiers, the gratuitous use of their sewing machines, with their own services during the night and to-morrow. The rooms of these ladies are in Wyeth's building, corner of Market Square, and we hope the ladies of the city will accept their patriotic offer.

THE CALL FOR TROOPS has given a new energy to the military spirit of the city, and already we learn that the standards of several captains have been raised, and active preparations are being made to recruit and organize companies. The First City Zouaves, Capt. F. Asbury A. W., offered their services this morning, and are now rapidly filling up their ranks. Capt. John D. Ball, late Drill Master at Camp Curtis, is, we understand, also about to recruit a company. He is a good soldier and an experienced officer, capable of taking charge of a good body of men. These organizations will be filled up very fast, so that those who desire to be connected with crack companies, should enlist immediately.

REFRIGERABLE CONDUCT.—Some individuals, excited by the news, and bad whisky, procured two tenor drums and paraded through the city at a late hour last night, making the streets resound with their bacchanalian shouts, and a din and clatter generally that would have done infinite credit to the most expert performers in Pandemonia. The noise must have awakened half our population, and no doubt filled the minds of the timid with the belief that Johnson's rebels had actually commenced peppering away at the city from the high bluffs on the opposite side of the river. It is to be regretted that the police were not on hand to make a descent on these midnight prowlers, so that some or all of them could have had the benefit of a nap on the soft side of a Lock-up plank. It might have improved their vocalization. They would certainly have sung differently before the Mayor this morning.

THE AMUSEMENTS OF THE SOLDIERS.—Anything affording amusement is eagerly sought for by the men. Quoits is a favorite game, and but few of the regiments in McClellan's army are not supplied with several sets. They find time between the exercises of the day for practice, and much rivalry already exists between different companies of the same regiments as to which company contains the most accomplished players. Chess and checkers are seldom seen. Cards are plenty, but not in much vogue, except after pay day. Then they make their appearance for a few days, and disappear until the next visit of the paymaster. It must not be thought for an instant that our army has any number of men in a fair way of becoming accomplished gamblers, but it is impossible to collect any great number of men in the manner in which these were gathered, without admitting such characters. The sums played for are small, as most of their pay is immediately sent home by the men to their families. Whenever the army is encamped near any river or large creek, the men take advantage of it, and are soon in the water, bathing.

ARRIVAL OF PART OF COL. KENLY'S COMMAND. Between forty and fifty men of the 1st Maryland regiment, Col. Kenly's command, who participated in the disastrous fight at Front Royal, last Friday, arrived here at 11 o'clock this morning, direct from Winchester, Va., via the Baltimore and Ohio, and Cumberland Valley railroads. Some of the party were slightly wounded, and all bore evidence of having endured much fatigue and hard usage.

Their statements respecting the affair at Front Royal, and the subsequent battle at Winchester, are very little different from those which previously reached us by telegraph. They confirm the report that during their engagement at Front Royal the rebels granted no quarter, killing the wounded without mercy, and even disfiguring the bodies of those already dead. The men state that Banks' army had succeeded in crossing the Potomac at Williamsport, and was in good condition. They would probably make a stand there to await reinforcements. The water in the Potomac is described as being too high to ford, and in the absence of a sufficient number of boats, they do not entertain any doubts of Banks' ability to prevent the rebel army from crossing.

Some of the men also bring the report that Col. Joseph F. Knipe, of the 46th Pennsylvania regiment was killed in the engagement at Winchester, having heard so from some of the men of that regiment at Williamsport. One of the party, a drummer, even went so far as to state positively that he saw the dead body of the Colonel carried into Winchester, but upon being asked the personal appearance of the Colonel, he replied that he was a "big stout man with heavy brown whiskers," which made it clear to all present who knew the gallant Colonel, that the soldier was mistaken in his identity. Under these circumstances the rumor is entitled to little credence.

Since writing the above we understand that Mrs. Knipe, has received a telegraphic dispatch from her husband announcing his safe arrival at Hagerstown, Maryland. This will be gratifying intelligence to the many friends of the gallant Colonel in this city, who, under the influence of the painful rumors entertained serious apprehensions of his safety. The same dispatch also announces the safe arrival at Hagerstown of Adjutant George W. Boyd and Captain George A. Brooks, both of the 46th regiment.

During their brief stay in our city the men were provided with dinner at the residences of some of our citizens, which seemed to give them very favorable impressions of Harrisburg hospitality. They left in the 1.20 train this afternoon.

ATTENTION, HIVERS!—The young men of this city, members of the Hope Engine Company and all others desirous of joining a volunteer militia company, are requested to meet at the Hope Engine House at 7 1/2 o'clock. Let there be a ready response to the call of our country!

GRAND BALL.—On Thursday night the Odd Fellows' Hall in Columbia was crowded with the beauty and fashion of the colored population of Columbia, and visiting delegations from Harrisburg, York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Lancaster, all of which sent a full representation. The ball was kept up until the "wee small hours" of the morning, and was conducted in so quiet and satisfactory a manner as to earn the commendation of observers. The only disturbance connected with the affair was started by some white rowdies of the town who interfered with some of the visitors on the streets; thus showing, to their own disgrace, that these colored people were ten-fold more respectable than they.

ON TO MARYLAND.—Owing to the excitable condition of our citizens this morning on account of the retreat of our force under General Banks, we feel backward in adding to the already over charged mind of the community, in the announcement of the new and beautiful assortment of summer goods just arriving at the cheap dry goods house of NICHOLS & BOWMAN, south-east corner Front and Market Sts. 26

CARPET! CARPET! CARPET!—Having returned from New York, I now have on hand, and I am daily receiving from the New York auction sales, a large assortment of goods, which I offer cheaper than ever. 20 pieces of carpet, from 37 1/2 cents up to 87 cents; 40 pieces of beautiful Carpet in plain, very cheap; splendid black cloths at 75 cents; worth 90 cents; good black silks at $1, worth $1 25; black silk 32 inches wide at $1 10, worth $1 37; very fine black Bombazine at $1 10, worth $1 50; summer silks at 50 cents a yard; 10 pieces of the finest Irish linen at 75 cents, worth $1; 1,000 hoop skirts, at 50 and $1, very cheap. Great bargains in stockings; 20 dozen hemstitched handkerchiefs, at 25 and 31 cents, cheap. Wholesale buyers respectfully invited to our large stock, all bought for cash at New York auction. Having a buyer in New York, we are daily receiving job lots from the weekly sales, which we promise to sell at city prices to wholesale buyers. S. Lewis, 281 1/2 Rhoad's old stand.

RECEIVED from auction 25 pieces of colored and white slow Wadding 25@31c. Also, a large assortment of embroideries, such as bands, edgings, insertings. At Lewis's.

ICE CREAM! ICE CREAM!! ONE of the greatest improvements of the age is Ryan & Starr's Patent Ice Cream Freezer and Pea Grater, the great saver of labor. The small quantity of ice used and the exceeding short space of time required to make good ice cream is one of their great merits. They have received several medals and the highest premiums at exhibitions, over all other Freezers now in use. A principal objection to the very best receipt for making ice cream, is that a custard, ice waters, &c., with a number of carbohydrates and full directions accompany each Freezer. my9-dtd
