All communications recommending candidates for political offices must be paid for at the time they are handed in, otherwise they will be laid aside.

HARRISBURG, PA. Wednesday Morning, May 27, 1862.

DAUPHIN COUNTY MILITARY RELIEF FUND.—The families of volunteers, who have formerly been in charge of the City Committee, will call at the Court House, on Friday evening next, at half past five o'clock, when payment will be resumed.

ELECTION OF RAILROAD DIRECTORS.—An election for eleven Directors of the Franklin Railroad was held recently at the office of the company, at Harrisburg, and resulted in the choice of the following gentlemen:

CASE IN MAKING BANDAGES.—A private letter from St. Louis impresses the necessity of care in the making up of bandages for hospital use. They should be made two inches wide, from six to ten yards long, and every bandage should be pinned at the end and not sewed, one or two pins being always needed by the surgeon for fastening the bandage.

RELIEF FOR THE SICK AND WOUNDED.—The contributions for the relief of the sick and wounded soldiers in the hospitals at Baltimore and Fortress Monroe, continue to arrive at the depository, (Wm. S. Shaffer's store, Market square), in quantities that speak volumes for the benevolence and patriotism of our citizens.

DEAD FROM THE INJURIES.—Mr. Jacob Empehler, an employee of the Northern Central Railroad company, who was injured a short time ago on the railroad between Bridgeport and Marysville, died of his injuries on Thursday, the 16th inst. One of his legs was amputated just above the ankle, and though every care and precaution were taken, mortification took place, and caused his death.

BERKS COUNTY AGAIN IN THE FIELD.—Colonel Young, Capt. Nagle and Lieut. Paul arrived in this city yesterday from Reading and immediately waited on the Governor, offering the service of one thousand men from Berks county. A large and spirited meeting was held on Monday evening, upon the receipt of the news that General Banks had been compelled to retreat, at which J. B. WARNER, Mayor of the city, presided.

OUR ROLL OF HONOR.—While the summons to arms was stirring the people of Harrisburg to arms, and while the streets on Monday were filled with recruits, all hurrying to their respective quarters, the men in the TELEGRAPH company's room were determined not to be left in the rear by their fellow-citizens.

What other printing office in the State can do better than the TELEGRAPH?

THE MILITARY FIRE BURNS brightly in the city, and the souls of our young men are in flames. The First City Zouaves, Captain Aul, and up the full complement of their number were sworn yesterday, and might have had many more men. They were mustered into U. S. service, at 1 o'clock this afternoon, and will probably leave for Washington city tomorrow morning, all fully armed and accoutred.

THE "Russell Guards," started by the members of the Hope fire company, are rapidly filling up, and we should not be surprised to learn that the company was nearly full by this evening. They hang out their flag at the Hope fire company's house, in North Second street, where every young man will find the roll.

IN addition to the above two companies, Capt. John J. Ball, late one of the drill masters of Camp Curtin, has raised his flag for recruits, and is meeting with the most encouraging success. He is an excellent military officer, capable of bringing a company to a fine state of perfection in drill and discipline.

WE observe, also, by a notice in another column of this evening's TELEGRAPH, that a meeting of those wishing to form another company, will be held at Brent's Hall, to-night, and we do not doubt, meet with a favorable response.—Daily of Yesterday.

GRAND COMMANDERY OF PENNSYLVANIA.—Arrangements have been made for the issue of excursion tickets on all the railroads leading to Easton, for the use of the delegates to the next annual convocation of the Grand Commandery of Pennsylvania, to be held in Easton on the second Tuesday of June.

SERIOUSLY INJURED.—Mr. Wm. H. Caslow, was seriously injured yesterday about two o'clock, on the Pennsylvania railroad, whilst he was engaged in coupling cars. It is feared that the collar bone was broken and that he is also injured internally. He was conveyed to his residence in this city in an express wagon.

THEY ARE COMING.—About twenty cars filled with troops, comprising the famous New York Seventh Regiment, passed through here yesterday noon, via the Lebanon Valley and Northern Central Railroad, on route for Washington. They are only the van guard of the hundreds of thousands of sturdy freemen of the North who are preparing to move in response to the recent call of the President.

JONES—Shattered, inebriated, and filthy Jones—who controls the local columns of that common conductor of filth and offal, the Patriot and Union—indulges in one of his usual misrepresentations yesterday to hiss on a repetition of the attack made on the local reporter of this paper on Monday. It is a matter of small consequence to the people of Harrisburg whether we were wronged in a personal encounter, or whether we are able to defend our person from attack; but it is of importance that the public should know that this poor wretch is licensed to emit his bitter spleen on all subjects through the columns of a sheet that is daily beseeching that public for support and countenance. For his vices and excesses, brutal, loathsome and infectious though they are, we can mingle our disgust with the common pity that fallen humanity ever deserves—but for his dastardly meanness and perversions, we have no patience or pity, nor language sufficient to express our abhorrence and contempt. He is a liar by plain, simple, unadorned practice—a cowardly whelp—a boasting trader, because he imagines the decrepitude of a body which his besotted life still animates, security from the chastisement of honorable men. And he is right—so we dismiss him.

MR. AND MRS. PEABODY AT HOME.—This new, elegant and most amusing entertainment, which was given at Sanford's Opera House for the second time last evening, was a decided success, though the house was not so full as we could have desired.

THE THOMAS GREGG mentioned in the above paragraph was the father of Messrs. John C. and Joseph Gregg, both Methodist ministers, the former stationed at Bainbridge, and the latter in this city. Mr. John C. Gregg, a few days since, submitted to our inspection a copy of the original drawing, made by his father in 1814, of the proposed gun-boat, and we were particularly struck with the striking resemblance it bears to the picture, representing the rebel gun-boat Merrimack. We understand it is the intention of Mr. Gregg, to procure from the Patent office, at Washington, certified copies of the caveat of his father's invention, after which a representation of it will appear in one of the illustrated papers.

ON TO MARYLAND.—Owing to the excitable condition of our citizens this morning, on account of the retreat of our force under General Banks, we feel backward in adding to the already overcharged mind of the community, in the announcement of the new and beautiful assortment of summer goods just arriving at the cheap dry goods house of URICH & BOWMAN, south east corner Front and Market Sts.

[Communicated.] EDITOR TELEGRAPH.—Permit me to recommend Hon. A. O. Hiler as a suitable candidate for Congress from this district. Unlike to his eminently good parts is the fact that he is well known throughout the district as a gentleman of unflinching patriotism and unyielding integrity. He has a clear head, a good heart, and has always sought the best good of his fellow-citizens. Give us him as a candidate and we will put the hosts of the enemy to flight. Yours, m27-10 24 CITIZENS OF LOWER FACTION.
