New Music Store .- A new agency for the sale of Steinway & Sons' pianofortes, sheet book music, and musical instruments generally will be opened in this city in a few days by Mr. Silas Ward, a gentleman well known to our citizens for his musical abilities.

MAN INJURED AT THE ROUND HOUSE. - One of the workmen employed at the round house of city, was very seriously injured yesterday by some of the machinery of that establishment. We could not learn the particulars.

AT HOME ON FURLOUGH. - Capt. D. J. Boynton, company I, 93d regiment, is at home in Middletown, having procured a furlough for several days, to recruit his health. He gives a good account of the Middletown boys in the recent brilliant engagement at Williamsburg, in which they took a prominent part.

"SECESH" RELICS.—Capt. C. C. Davis of the Harrisburg City Cavalry, attached to the Seventh Pennsylvania Cavalry, now with the army in Tennessee, has sent home to his family. as a memento of the war, a cavaly sword and an immense Bowie knife, the former cantured by the gallant captain from the rebel Colonel Pegram, during a spirited engagement with the enemy, in which the City Cavalry distinguished itself. The sword is an old fashioned concern, and looks as if it had done service in the revolutionary war. The knife is a formidable looking weapon, evidently manufactured by the peculiar indentations of that implement are still visible on the surface of the blade. JOHN STAGER. Attest: W. K. VERBEKE, Pres't.

VAN AMBURGH & Co.'s MENAGERIE.—This very extensive and most complete Menagerie ever get up in this country, is making a tour through the country, and will visit Harrisburg on Monday and Tuesday, June 2d and 3d, and make an afternoon and evening exhibition. The proprietors wish it distinctly understood by the moral the Pennsylvania railroad company, above our and religious portion of the community, that this is nor a circus, but a menagerie exhibition alone.

The display of lions, tigers, leopards, and elephants is unusually numerous. Among the elephants is the great warrior elephant Hannibal the largest animal in the known world.

Van Amburgh, the celebrated tamer of wild beasts, will enter the den of trained animals. at each exhibition. The magnificent proces sion of cages, wagons, &c., headed by a colossal golden chariot, with Otto Horn's cornet band, will pass through the town about ten o'clock, A. M., and will form a moving panorama of nearly a mile in length. See Advertisement.

A RETURNED PRISONER .- Private John Lehman, of Highspire, this county, arrived home on Saturday. He was captured by the ebels some seven months since, three of which he spent as a prisoner of war at Columbus, S. C., and four at Richmond. He was captured on the steamer Fanny. It will be remembered that this vessel was run aground by a rebel pilot and surrendered to the enemy. He states some country blacksmith from an old rasp, as that Colonel Corcoran and a number of other prisoners were sent from Richmond further south, that the rebels are getting scarce of provisions, and that the soldiers had been put on half rations for some time. The prisoners are badly treated, and only receive provisions enough to keep them alive.

MUSTERED OUT OF SERVICE.—The First City Zouaves, Capt. F. Asbury Awl, were mustered out of service on Wednesday by Capt. Lane, of the Third United States Cavalry. This was a great disappointment to the men composing this company, as each had hastily though thoroughly arranged his business for a three or six months' campaign, in whatever locality or service the government might have indicated: and we are certain that, had the opportunity been afforded, the Zouaves would have distinguished themselves and the city to which they belong.
