HAS discovered the most certain, speedy DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.

RELIEF IN BIX TO TWELVE HOURS. No Mercury or Noxious Drugs. A Cure Warranted, or no Charge, in from one to Two Days.

Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Strictures, Affections of the bidneys and Bladder, Involuntary discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsy, Ianguard, Conflusion of Ideas, Papitiatien of the Heart Timidity, Tremblings, Dimness of Sight or Giddiness, Disease on the Head, Throat, Nose or Skint, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible disorders arising from the Solitary Habits of Youth—those secuer and solitary pract cas more istal to their victims than the song of syrens to the Mariners of Ulyses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or antiolpations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.

Vanno Man

Young Men Especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of Young Mon of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced laterally Sonates with the hunders of eloquence or waked to ecstary the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

Marriage. Married Persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, being aware of physical weakness, organic debitiv, deformities, &c., speedly cured.

He who piaces blimself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his bonur as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a Physician.

Organic Weakness

Organic Weakness

Immediately Cured, and full vigor Restored.

This distressing Affection—which renders I is miserable and marriage impossible—is the penulty paid by the victims of improper indulgences. Young persons are too apt to commit excerses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to dony that the power of procration is lost seconer by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms to both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervious Irratibility, Dyspopsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitution, I Debility, a Wasting of the Frame, Cough, Consumption, Decay and Death.

Take Particular Notice.
Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper induigance and solitary habita, which ruin both body and mind, untiting them for either business, study, society or marriage.
These are some of the sad and melancholly effects produced by early habits of youth, vis: Weskness of the Back and Limbé, Pains in the Head, Dinness of Sight, Loss of Musuliar Power, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspopsy, Nervous Irratibility, Deraugement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, An MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded—Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Avil Forbodings, Averson to Society, Sei Distrust, Love of solitude, Ilmidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emacated, having a singular appearance about the cyes, cough and sympt of consumption.

of consumption.

Young Mon

Who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in when alone, a babit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are mightly felt, even when asleep, and if not oured renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a plity that a young man, the hope of his country, the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contembating

Marriage, reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pligrinage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholly red ction that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own. Disease of Imprudence.

Disease of Imprudence.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has inabled the seeds of this painful disease, it too often hapens that an til-timed sense of ahame or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from enucation and respecuability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms on this borr of disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, necturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the ahin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease become a horrid object of commiseration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to "that Undiscovvered Country from whence no traveler returns."

It is a melancholly fact that thousands fall victims to this terrible disease, owing to the unskilluliness of ignoant pretenders, who by the use of that Deadly Poison, Mecury, ruin the constitution and make the residue o lite misorable.

Strangers.

Strangers. Strangers.

Trust not your lives, or heath, to the care of the many Unlearned and Wo these Pretenders, destitute of knowledge, name or characler, who copy br. Johnson's adverver-beeneds, or stipe themselves in the newspapers, regularly Educated Physicians incapable of Curing, they keep you trilling month after moath taking their filiny and poisonousn'ss compounds, or as long as the smallest fee can be obtained, and in despair, leave you with ruined heath to sigh over your gailing disappointment.

Dr. Johnson is the only Physician advertising.

His credential or diplomas always hangs in his office.

His remedies or treatment are unknown to all others, prepared from a life spent in the great hospitals of hurope, the first in the country and a more extensive Private Practice than any other Physician in the world.

Halleck were read. Mr. Lane (Kansas) offered a resolution that the Committee on Public Lands be instructed to enquire into the expediency of reporting a bill to confiscate the public lands in Texas.

The bill prescribing an additional oath to grand and petit jurors in the United States courts was taken up and discussed till one o'clock, when the tax bill was taken up. Mr. Sherman offered an amendment providing a tax of ten cents a gallon on all whiskey on hand and held for sale on 30th June, 1862. He argued that there had been a great stock of earthly comfort and solace, was drowned on whiskey laid in, in anticipation of a tax, and the 17th inst., leaving her a desolate woman there would be no revenue on the manufacture for some time, and thus the tax only was to allow the government to a share in the profits of the speculations.

The spoken word, no less than the written, remains ineffaceable. The New York Tribune of Saturday gives dialogues of Mrs.

Davis with sundry persons, reported by the contraband coachman at considerable length, and bearing internal evidence of truth.

The coachman's representatious of Mrs. Davis are very graphic, quite Boswellian in their minuteness.

For instance, we note a few traits:

office. Davis don't tell her much; they say they "I have heard Mrs. Davis say, about two or three weeks before I left, she wished she was in Europe."

ELOPEMENT-A STRANGE CASE. - Three Veste ago, Mr. C. T. Peterson, a merchant of Minerva, Stark county, Onio, took into his family, as temporary boarders, W. W. Dennis and wife, from the Western Reserve. Dennis was a shoemaker, and his wife a milliner. In a few months they quit boarding and went to house-keeping, when the frequent visits of Peterson revealed an improper intimacy with Mrs. Den-nis. The intimacy increased until recently, when the scandal was upon many tongues, and Peterson was finally forced to leave the place. He was soon followed by Dennis and his wife, who joined him at Cleveland, from whence hey moved to Decatur, Michigan. Dennis, who seemed to be quite satisfied with this triple arrangement, was not so agreeable to the other two, who soon played him the slip, while he was absent on business. Dennis became almost was assent on business. Definis decame at most frantic, and after the most diligent search traced the parties to St. Louis, which place they had left for California. Soon after Peter-son's departure from Minerva, Mrs. Peterson applied for a divorce, alimony and change of name, all of which were granted. And then, as though her cup of sorrow were not complete, her little boy, "Willie," her only remaining earthly comfort and solace, was drowned on indeed.
