Your obedient servant, A. MoD. McCOOK, Commanding 2d Division,

HARPER'S WEEKLY has another splendid oppor tunity afforded for one of those monster wood cuts, with which it illustrates the prowess and superiority of the Knickerbocker soldier. The New York Eleventh Regiment answering the summons of the War Department, hastened, as they imagined, to have a good time in Washington city, lounging in the entrenchments and forts which surround the federal Capital; but when they discovered that they had been ordered to do military duty at Harper's Ferry, and after they had reached that locality, the entire regiment refused to be mustered into service. We insist that Harper illustrate this whole conduct on the part of the New Yorkers. It is worthy one of its graphic wood cute

THE PITTEBURG DISPATCH says that Ex Secre tary Cameron has won a great triumph through the magnanimous assumption by President tions in that contest, has at length made its Lincoln of the responsibility for the extraordinary measures adopted for the public defence in the earlier days of the rebellion. The only mealled to bitcher of but hor or but the uncalled for butchery of human beings, merely from bloodthirstiness or revenge, and from which no military results are expected, is as essentially murder as it would be in a community of Quakers in a season of profound peace. The enemy have exhibited all the prac. tices of rude and reckless barbarians, with very few of those of civilized soldiers, and have certainly displayed none of the traits of true chivalry. If they ever did, we have never heard of them. They are always ruthless when their power is unchecked-they are almost always timid when opposed to an equal force, and invariably so when attacked by superior numbors. The " ohivalry" of Secessia are very different from that of any other Obristianized portion of the globe. Imagine a chivalrous knight of the olden time breaking his parole of honor ! and yet the modern knights of the order-self ture. styled. it is true-break their pledges of honor daily and without scruple. We see by the last advices from New Orleans that Gen. Butler is about to shoot a half dozen rebel officers for violating their paroles given at Fort Jackson. Cruelty, perjury and treason go hand in hand.
