HARRISBURG, PA. Tuesday Morning, June 3, 1862.

IN Town - Rev. Isaac R. Gates, the popular air preacher, has arrived in this city, and favor our citizens with a discourse at the and of Market and Third streets next Friday remark. Rev. Gates is an excellent speaker. will no doubt attract adarge audience. The at et et his discourse will be "The Millenium qutil the Lord comes."

THEFE WHO delight in circulating idle rumors they know that by thus giving credence tals hoods they are wounding the feelings intocent persons, would as readily damage cause of the Union by allie as they now fully make use of the name of a Union in connection with the misfortune of g into the hands of the rebels. We have in jokers in this city.

RIVAL OF THIRTY-SIX SICK AND WOUNDED yearens. - A number of sick and wounded ers from Gen. Banks' division arrived here sterday, and are comfortably quartered in the spitals at Camp Curtin. Our patriotic citicomfort and benefit of these brave men, bled and suffered in our country's cause. ope to see a movement in this direction sart the ball?

LIEUT. GEORGE FISHER, company C, Lochiel Cavalry, has had in contemplation to resign, on account of the sickness of his father, J. Adams Fisher, Esq., a fact which rendered it positively imperative that Licut. Fisher should e at home to assist in the great professional labors of his father. This resignation has at ength been accepted by the War Department, and George Fisher is once more a plain civilian.
