H $\triangle$ B B I I B © B G, PA. Wednesday Afternoon, June 4, 1882.

 esterminate the New York Aerald as one of that mot pestiferous and malignant inflaences tha has ever threatened liberty truth with pollution and patriotism with dise grace. In this struggle the Elrold has played sycophant to all parties-adulater of all men in authority-and libeller of everor principle a stake. While the Union is in danger, the Grade howls on its path like a hyenea in the devotion, rescuas that Unioo from immediante ruin, the Erath howls again that to ite infuence is the credit of the escape dae-and thus from treachery $t$, faleehood, and from बlander criuging aduataion, this worse thas bandi and agassian plys its work, the thina bording its thousande for its proprietors, who in luxurious living and sensual debaucheries, pass the days and nights of thetr existence, as other con elther struygle or dio in the defence of our countre The NNew York Berald is the bane of ull that io pure in the American goverument.
It hasd done more than all the influences which traitord co-ld command to misrepresent the cause of the government abroad. It has percan statesmen. It lives on the pleasures of the mob, and fiourishes on the support derived from the protite of every crime. It is the organ of the gamestor- the laureute of harlote, the advocate of treason hand the detender of tyrants. What In any community, than the Neen Yorkh Itrald.
We do not bope, by denouncing, to get rid of sheet, we are certain that we are strengtheniog one man's devotion to his couutry, and there fore will feel pertectly rio time and space thas devoted.

As an instance of the imposition practiced in the Elerald, by ith coirespondents, we are cogolizant of a fact which may opso the eye of the pubbico on the subject of the Herald mierepresentations days since, to g ve fuil a aud accourate descrip tions and accoants of the late battle befor Richmond, when the fact mas well known Fortress Monroe and York 10 n that the "spe clal" of the Herald was not in the viciuit where those battes occured. Nor did he make facts involved, than the simple picking u and appropriation of such gossip as he wa able to gather from stragglers from the fight or or that retailed by the uubal hangers on of the army. Yet much stuff is palmed off on the connoieance of, or participation in battle. An other instance of the untainess and dastardy misrepresentation of the Elerald, is in its issue of yesterday, io a paragraph claining that tre thirdz of the patriota who are fighting th a more infernal lie so audacionsly declured it
It ont-Bennatt' Bempett, particuarly when it is remembered that one of the pleat of then Herald, at the inauggration of rebellion, that as the war was a Black Repablican on the south, Black Republicans must do Ighting. The Herald was dlligent in its tworairds of the fightivg men aire loevfocos,
If $\mathbf{t}$ Baid been claimed that four-fifths of the men in the ranks of the federal armies claim .that two-thirds are Democrats, is onl worthy of contempt, after we have thus exposed the corruption talsehoode of the Nev York Herald.

 of these statese, does not equal that cast in an While Dauphin county has a white population aboat equal to the entire number of voter in the Elate of Louisiana. But these comparison are three hundred and twenty-nine thoasancl voters undertaking to keep one million five hundred thousand votors isolated on the prairies and among the monatains they inhabit, and force them to surrender their right of an outlot to the sea.

The comparieo in these figures is the same in the figanes reletating to the poplation of all the rebel in comparieon to the loyal states. It is it iterally a few hundred thousand rebels and traitory endeavoring to dictate to the millions of free white loyal men. It is absolutely eluvery endeavoring to crusu north-w and as the free white men of the ne are asserting their right to the navigation on the waters leading to the Gulf of Mexico, so the waters leading to the Gaif of Mexico, so will the free white men of the north-east assert their right to transit along the coost the territory and and Full Details of the Second Day's Fight.

| THE OLD FLAG.  In all the wars that have ever been waged |  |
| :---: | :---: |
|  |  |
| there were times when the belligerents would regard each other with a degree of favor not |  |
| partaking of the sternness which composes the main featares of war. Those taken in battle |  |
| oonsigned to the hospital, became a friend in  oonsigaed to the hall, beca a froad in |  |
|  |  |
| thus where even the prison life failed to su idue a captured foe, hamanity put to flight his bel- |  |
| ligerance, and for the time enemies become friends. The trophies taken in battle, were |  |
| deemed honorable and worthy of preservation; |  |
| and thus all wars have been softened down as much as possible, so as to make some amends |  |
|  |  |
| for the suffering and the deatruction which could not altogether be avoided. Bat in the |  |
| conflict in which we are now engaged, every principle of warfare seems to have been changed by those to whom we are opposed. |  |
| The rebels have not only deprived war of its |  |
| honorf, but the have rebbed batile of the little bum + nity it was supposed to possess. |  |
|  |  |
| While science and mechanism are busy inventing and construzting such implements as are |  |
|  |  |
| ing and construasing such implements supposed to tale away the barbarous practice of |  |
| belligerento soting these noble objects by stimulating their fellows and their folluwers to the worst excesses and most inhuman deeds. The Old Flog of the |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| Slars and Stripes, that has covered the land with clory for more than balf a centurp-that has |  |
| been respected on the waters of the universothat has rallied its hosts whenever wrong attempted the outrage of right-that has been |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| the emblen of purity to the world, and the |  |
| signal of safety to the Union-that Old Mlag is not deemed worthy of being preserved as a |  |
|  |  |
| trophy by the rebels, whenever they can mavage to wrench one from an inferior furce o |  |
| Union men, or steal it from the hands of de. |  |
| fenceless women and children. The rebela fear and hate that Old Flag. They fear to preserve |  |
|  |  |
| it as a trophy, because they do not trust its Influence upon the minds of their deladed fol- |  |
| lowers. Any other enomy, taking tho Slurs and Siripes in an honorable coniest, would esteem |  |
|  |  |
| it a trophy worthy to decoratt a palace or add |  |
| lustre tona throne. Yet ont traitor foes felign to despisî̀ it-despise an emblem which guarded |  |
|  |  |
| them to equality in a free government. Surely bistory has no equal for such barbaric treat nent. It will never find its equal, but will |  |
|  |  |
| live in time as the meanest ingratitude and ureachery that ever diggraced any people. |  |
|  |  |
| Elicorion in Wabinequos Cxfr, while on of the result it looke like a complete |  |
|  |  |
| Union viotory, must not bo regarded as a purg- |  |
|  |  |

Uniocs of the result it lookik pike a complote Union of totory, muat not be regarded as a purg.
ing locality from traitors and their as

To

Nem 2dopertisemente INDERENDENCE ISLAND T THE uderapgod would respectulu in $4=4$

Dr. WM. R. DE WITT, Jr.,
OFFIGE
SECOND STREET ABOVE LOOUST.

A

|  |
| :---: |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
OFFIOE THIRD STREET:

