Medical.

DR. JOHNSON
BALTIMORE
LOCK HOSPITAL!

HAS discovered the most certain, speedy and effectual remedy in the world for DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.

RELIEF IN SIX TO TWELVE HOURS.

No Mercury or Noxious Drugs.
A Cure Warranted, or no Charge, in from one to Two Days.

Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Strictures, Affections of the Kidneys and Bladder, Involuntary discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsy, Tardiness, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Trembling, Dimness of Sight or Giddiness, Disease on the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible disorders arising from the Solitary Habits of Youth—those secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.

Young Men

Especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of Young Men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence or waked to ecstasy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

Marriage.

Married Persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, being aware of physical weakness, organic debility, deformities, &c., speedily cured.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a Physician!

Organic Weakness

Immediately Cured, and full vigor Restored.

This distressing Affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgences. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms to both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, a Wasting of the Frame, Cough, Consumption, Decay and Death.

Office, No. 7 South Frederick Street.

Left hand side going from Baltimore street, a few doors from the corner. Fail not to observe name and number.

Letters must be paid and contain a stamp. The Doctor's Diplomas hang in his office.

A Cure Warranted in Two Days.

No Mercury or Nauseous Drugs.

Dr. Johnson,

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind were cured immediately.

Take Particular Notice.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or marriage.

These are some of the sad and melancholly effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsy, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded—Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forbodings, Aversion to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

THOUSANDS of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of consumption:

Young Men

Who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons MUST, before contemplating reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholly reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own.

Disease of Imprudence.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often hapens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms on this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease become a horrid object of commiseration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveler returns."

It is a melancholly fact that thousands fall victims to this terrible disease, owing to the unskilfulness of ignorant pretenders, who by the use of that Deadly Poison, Mercury, ruin the constitution and make the residue of life miserable.

Strangers.

Trust not your lives, or health, to the care of the many Unlearned and Worthless Pretenders, destitute of knowledge, name or character, who copy Dr. Johnson's advertisements, or style themselves in the newspapers, regularly Educated Physicians incapable of Curing, they keep you trifling month after month taking their filthy and poisonousness compounds, or as long as the smallest fee can be obtained, and in despair, leave you with ruined health to sigh over your galling disappointment.

Dr. Johnson is the only Physician advertising.

His credential or diplomas always hangs in his office.

His remedies or treatment are unknown to all others, prepared from a life spent in the great hospitals of Europe, the first in the country and a more extensive Private Practice than any other Physician in the world.

Indorsement of the Press.

The many thousands cured at this institution year after year, and the numerous important Surgical Operations performed by Dr. Johnson, witnessed by the reporters of the "Sun," "Clipper," and many other papers, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, besides his standing as a gentleman of character and responsibility, is a sufficient guarrantee to the afflicted.

Skin Diseases Speedily Cured.

Persons writing should be particular in directing their letters to his Institution, in the following manner:

From our Morning Edition.

FROM MISSOURI.

CAPTURE OF REBELS.

GEN. CURTIS' PROCEEDINGS IN ARKANSAS.

REBEL CAMPS BROKEN UP.

GUERRILLAS ROUTED.

THE STATE CONVENTION.

ROLLA, Mo., June 5.

Col. White and Van Selling, of the rebel army, and James Massey, Secretary of State, under Claib Jackson, together with about twenty ordinary rebels, were captured at Cassville a few days since.

Advices from Gen. Curtis' army in Arkansas says that scouting parties from Generals Carr and Osterhaus' divisions in front of Little Red River, and from Gen. Steele's, on the left and rear, have been very successful lately in breaking up rebel camps and running down guerrillas.

Lieut. Col. Lewis, of the First Missouri, fell in with a party west of Searcy, charged on them, killing four, and wounding about twenty, and scattering the rest.

Near West Point a party was routed by Maj. Hawkins, of the Sixth Missouri, and a rebel Lieutenant taken prisoner.

Lieut.-Col. Rickets of the 9th Illinois Cavalry atttacked a party at Cachke river, killing four; wounding four and taking two prisoners and driving the rest into the swamps.

Major Bowen, commanding a detachment of his own battalion, and Third Iowa cavalry, at nine P. M., on the ninth of May, fell upon a rebel camp at Kickapoo Bottom, west of Batesville, about 55 miles, killing three and scattering the rebels in every direction, capturing a large amount of camp and garrison equipage, twenty two prisoners twenty-one horses fifty-four guns thirty or forty bowie knives, and thirty revolvers. This was a daring attack, the men leaving the horses and chasing the swamps with their carbines. Our troops can take the rebels on their own ground of guerilla warfare and show superior arms and brave conduct.

JEFFERSON CITY, June 5.

Not much of special importance transpired in the convention to-day.

Mr. Brodhead, from the Committee on Congressional Districts, reported a bill dividing the State into nine Congressional districts.

During the afternoon session, the special order, the ordinance defining the qualifications of voters and civil officers was discussed.

SAMPLE ORR opposed the clause disfranchising persons who have taken up arms against the government or who have given aid or encouragement to the rebellion, and Mr. Hatchcomb of St. Louis, and Williard P. Hall. The present Lieutenant Governor spoke strongly in favor of it.

FROM CAIRO.

EARTHQUAKES.

Fort Wright Abandoned by the Rebels.

THE BAGGAGE, CAMP EQUIPAGE AND STORES DESTROYED.

PROBABLE EVACUATION OF FORT RANDOLPH.

SOUTHERN ITEMS.

CAIRO, May 6.

Three distinct shocks of an earthquake here to-day were also felt at several different points north as far as Urbana. No damage was done as far as ascertained.

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

CAIRO, June 6.—There is yet some doubt that the fleet passed Fort Randolph, where the rebels are said to have taken the guns which were removed from the Fort above. They left five or six guns, and before leaving destroyed the barracks, camp equipage, gun carriages and such stores as could not be transported. They also burned the cotton of which the breast works were constructed.

The flotilla cast off at five o'clock yesterday morning, followed by the transports carrying the Forty-sixth Indiana, Col. Fitch, who now occupy the works, which are said to be of great strength, and if properly manned could have successfully resisted a large force.

The rebels, after leaving the fort, destroyed a pontoon bridge, which they had constructed some weeks since over the Hatche river.

When the Desoto, which last arrival from the fleet left, the gun boats had passed the Fort and gone down the river.

It is reported that the rebels have evacuated Fort Randolph. If this is the case, nothing can prevent the fleet arriving at Memphis today.

An intelligent and apparently truthful prisoner, just from Fort Pillow, says our flotilla can undoubtedly take Forts Pillow and Randolph, and Memphis, whenever it attacks them.

Col. Elliott, commanding the Union ram, is impatient for permission to commence the attack, being entirely confident of success.

Richmond dispatches of June 2d, say that "the Confederates have thus far driven the Yankees a mile and a half into a swamp, occupying their camp and capturing their baggage and over 500 prisoners. General Rhodes is wounded, and General Hatton, of Tennessee, killed. The Yankees fought desperately, but they were badly whipped. The carnage was terrible on both sides."

The rebel commander at Fort Pillow calls for 50,000 more men.

A despatch from Grand Junction, dated June 2, states that there are no Union troops between Grand Junction and Corinth.

The Little Rock Democrat, of May 29, publishes a hostile correspondence between Governor Rector and the editor of the Democrat, who denounced Rector for running away from the Capital, leaving the State without any Government.

General Curtis is still at Batesville. He had six thousand troops between the White and Red rivers.

The Vicksburg Evening Citizen, of Saturday, says: "Eleven gunboats have gone back, down the river, owing, it is supposed, to insubordination and mutiny. Several remained, and on Friday evening shelled the shore for several hours. The rebel batteries are being strengthened by having additional guns mounted."

REBEL ACCOUNT OF THE BATTLE OF SATURDAY.

CAIRO, June 5.—The Memphis papers of the 2d contain dispatches from Richmond, dated the 1st inst., of which the following is a substance:

"Gen. Hill's division commenced the fight on Saturday morning. Generals Rhodes', Garland's, Rains' and Anderson's brigades bearing the brunt, until the arrival of their reinforcements.

"The Federals were driven from their redoubts, and their batteries were turned on them.

"General Lee and President Davis were on the field. Their presence increased the enthusiasm of our troops. The Yankees stubbornly contested every inch of ground, while they gave way to the impetuous charge of our soldiers. Large numbers of the Confederate soldiers are wounded in the arms and legs.

"General Rhodes was slightly wounded.

"The enemy tried to make a flank movement about 7 o'clock in the evening, but were repulsed.

"On Sunday the battle was renewed, chiefly with musketry. Prisoners are constantly coming in. Gen. Hatton, of Tennessee, is killed. The carnage on both sides was dreadful, the Yankees losing two to our one. About 500 prisoners have already been taken.

"The latest intelligence from the battle field represents that the enemy had been driven a mile and a half from his position. Our forces occupy his camps.

"We captured three batteries after the most desperate fighting. The enemy were protected by the woods and their intrenchments."

The Vicksburg papers of the 31st say that eleven of the Federal gunboats have gone down the river. They say the fleet is no nearer the possession of the city now than it was two weeks ago, and that the insurmountable obstacles encountered below Vicksburg had caused disaffection among the Yankee troops, compelling the commanders to fall back to reorganize their forces.

GEN. POPE STILL PURSUING.

Fifty Thousand Prisoners and Deserters.

BEAUREGARD'S ARMY DWINDLING RAPIDLY.

CORINTH, June 5.

Gen. Halleck moved his headquarters to this place to-day, occupying the house previously occupied by Gen. Bragg.

Gen. Thomas occupies the house formerly in the possession of Beauregard. The enemy are reported to be 80,000 strong between Baldwin and Okolona.

At the last accounts, Gen. Pope's advance was this side of Twenty Mile Creek, and the enemy's rear guard on the south side, still retreating.

An Englishman who was made an officer in the rebel army and has deserted, says that a rebel officer high in position told him that they left there 120,000 strong, but when they arrived at Booneville 50,000 had deserted; the latter were mostly Alabamians, Louisianians, and Mississippians.

Governor Stanley's Act Revoked.

ACTION OF THE PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, June 5.

The excitement which was caused by the arbitrary acts of Governor Stanley, in North Carolina, is sensibly allayed to day by the prompt and decisive action of the Government.

It is definitely announced to-day that the President has instructed Mr. Stanley to recall his obnoxious orders, to reopen the schools for the contrabands, and to stop the remanding of fugitive slaves to their masters.

The friends of Governor Stanley are not at all pleased with this countermand. They declare that he will resign his office rather than recall his orders.
