HARRISBURG, PA. Monday Afternoon, June 9, 1862.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—During the heavy thunder storm last Saturday afternoon, the smoke stack of the Pennsylvania railroad machine shops in this city was struck by lightning, fortunately doing but little damage.

INJURED AT THE CAR SHOPS.—A workman at the Harrisburg car shop had one of his hands severely injured last Saturday by a circular saw in that establishment. The same machine seriously injured Mr. Smith, the father of the triplets, a few weeks since.

ARRIVAL OF INDIANS.—A delegation of Indians from the far west passed through here this morning, en route to Washington, where they go to have a "talk" with their "great father," the President. Their appearance at the depot attracted much attention.

FROM NEW YORK.—The first regular through train from New York, via the Lebanon Valley, East and North Pennsylvania railroads, since the early part of last week, arrived here last Saturday evening. The interruption to travel was caused by the flood.

THE BATTLE OF NEWBURN is the last scene just finished by the artist Harry Davis, for his panorama of the great rebellion. It is a large double picture, and a magnificent battle piece. The men of the gallant 51st regiment, (Col. Hartant), occupy a prominent position in the painting.

BURGLARY.—The residence of Joseph Gillet, about a half-mile east of the city, on the road leading to the county poor house, was burglariously entered last Friday night and robbed of seventeen dollars in money. Two men named respectively James Smith and Alpheas Maclean, were arrested on Saturday and sent to prison by Alderman Caldwell, of the First ward, charged with being the robbers.

DEATH OF A FORMER HARRISBURGER.—We regret to announce the demise of Miss H. E. Sears, M. D., which occurred at the Exchange Hotel, in Hollidaysburg, on Friday the 6th inst. The deceased was well known to many citizens of this place, where she practiced medicine successfully for some years among her own sex, many of whom will mingle their sympathies with her bereaved mother, who still resides among us.

THE QUANTITY.—A gentleman who keeps a record of such matters, has kindly furnished us with the following table, showing the quantity of rain that fell since Sunday morning a week, until last Saturday, derived from accurate measurement by the hydrometer:

Table with 2 columns: Day and Inches. Sunday .210 inches, Monday .710, Since then 7.170

Making for the week 8.170 " Perhaps a better idea of the quantity of rain indicated by the above figures, may be shown by supposing the earth within the line of the storm last week, to be a perfect plain, in which case the surface would have been covered with a volume of water 8.170 inches in depth—a quantity, which, with few exceptions, has not fallen in this vicinity in any one year, for the last forty years.

VAN AMBURGH & CO.'S MENAGERIE made its grand entree this morning, according to programme, presenting the finest display of the kind we have ever witnessed. The band chariot is a marvel of splendor, and the long train of richly decorated cages and baggage vans, with their splendid teams, made a most imposing appearance. The huge elephants Hannibal and Tipso Saib added greatly to the effect of the procession. The exhibition will be open to-day and to-morrow, upon Second street, near the cotton factory, both afternoon and evening; and the mammoth tent will doubtless be thronged on both days with the curious of all ages and both sexes. At each exhibition a pupil of Van Amburgh will enter the den of lions and tigers, while various performances provocative of hilarity and wonder will be given by the trained elephants, ponies and mules.

CITY COUNCIL.—The regular monthly meeting of the City Council was held at the Council Chamber, in the Court House, last Saturday evening.

A petition was read from citizens of South alley, asking for a sewer from Spruce to Sixth streets, in said alley. Ordered to be done, provided petitioners take out a permit to tap said sewer; to be paid for out of the appropriation for street purposes.

The petition of the citizens of Third and Walnut streets, asking for a sewer from Third street to connect with the sewer at the county prison, was agreed to, provided that they (the petitioners) take out a permit to tap the sewer, to be paid for out of the appropriation for street purposes.

A communication from Mr. Berkibine was received relative to a new boiler for the water house. Referred.

On motion of Mr. Macyer, it was ordered that the Fire Committee have the Hope Fire Engine house painted and blinds made therefor.

A motion was made and agreed to that the Council adjourn to meet on Tuesday evening next to take into consideration the ordinances, and continue to meet every evening thereafter until the whole business is dispensed with.

Mr. Stall called for the reading of the ordinance relative to the wearing of badges by our constables. Agreed to. After considerable discussion thereupon relative to the proper construction of said ordinance, a resolution was adopted appointing the six ward constables policemen without salary.

Y. M. C. A.—The regular monthly meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held to-morrow (Tuesday) evening at 7 1/2 o'clock, at the room of the associating.

POCKETKETS ABOUT.—A man had his pocket picked of a watch while standing in the crowd at the lower end of the depot this morning.—The thief managed to elude the vigilance of the police.

TOTAL ECLIPSE OF THE MOON.—A total eclipse of the moon, visible throughout the United States, occurs on the night of Wednesday, the 11th inst. The duration of the whole eclipse will be three hours and seventeen minutes, and during sixty-two minutes the moon will be wholly immersed in the shadow of the earth. The eclipse will begin here about midnight and end at 3:15 A. M.

ARREST OF RUNAWAYS.—Two girls, between fifteen and eighteen years of age, were arrested at the depot of the Pennsylvania railroad this morning charged with having run away from their parents who reside in Pittsburg. The girls were quite prepossessing in their appearance, and didn't seem to like their detention. They were sent back to their parents in charge of an officer.

COMPLIMENT TO A HARRISBURGER.—There will be an interesting occasion next Friday a week at that popular institution, "the White Hall Academy," and Col. A. J. Herr has been selected as the orator. The well deserved reputation of this gentleman as a speaker and scholar, will be fully maintained.

MUNICIPAL OFFICERS ON THEIR TRAVELS.—Both branches of the City Council of Baltimore and several members of the Board of Trade arrived here at noon to-day, via the Northern Central railroad, on an excursion to Pittsburg, Chicago, Detroit and other places of note, North. Extensive arrangements have been made all along the line to greet the excursionists with true Northern hospitality. The excursionists will be absent about ten days.

A SINGULAR AND STARTLING FREAK of the lightning was noticed in the Susquehanna Company's telegraph office in this city and the connecting battery at Dauphin, on Friday afternoon last. About 2 o'clock, P. M., when there was no appearance of a storm either in this city or at Dauphin, the magnet connected with the battery in this city was completely shattered and melted, while the operator on the Dauphin battery received a severe shock. Will some of our telegraphers or scientific men explain?

DR. ALEXANDER SMALL, a much respected and influential citizen of York, Pa., died on Saturday evening last, after a painful illness of several months duration, aged about 60 years.—Dr. S., was for a number of years past a prominent business man, and a director of the Northern Central Railway, and extensively engaged in the iron-founding and flouring business, and was probably one of the most liberal and enterprising citizens of the borough and county, in which he was so widely known and universally respected. His patriotism knew no bounds when the war-cloud of rebellion first boomed up in the Southern horizon, and many a brave fellow in the 87th Penn'a., (Thos. A. Scott's Regiment,) in the formation of which Dr. Small lent a ready hand and willing heart—will learn with deep regret of his journey to that bourne from whence no traveller returns.

Dr. S., we believe was a bachelor. In his intercourse with the world, he was generous, affable and universally respected—a friend to the poor, and man of extraordinary enterprise and industry. In his demise, our neighboring borough of York has sustained an irreparable loss.

MIDDLETOWN, PA., June 6, 1862. Geo. Bergner, Esq.—DEAR SIR: As our worthy townsman, A. WEITING, has been named as a suitable person to represent this district in Congress, by persons living at a distance from his place of residence, and as we have no doubt he will be very strongly opposed at the convention which will shortly assemble, to select a delegate that will carry out the principles of the present administration, we, citizens of Middletown, knowing his worth, and knowing that his name has been made use of without his knowledge or consent, have thought it very proper that we should express our feelings in some public manner, and knowing the circulation your paper has in this district amongst all good Union-loving men, we ask you to do us the favor to give this room in your paper. We, the citizens of his home, adopt the suggestions which have appeared heretofore in the Harrisburg TELEGRAPH, recommending our neighbor, A. Weiting, as a candidate for Congress, as worthy of more extended notice. His neighbors and townsman have long been convinced of the eminent fitness of the man for the place. With talents of a high order, he combines a sound and discriminating mind and quick perceptions. He has long since convinced persons in this neighborhood that he has the energy to accomplish that which he undertakes. He is frank, open and generous, almost to a fault, of very decided opinions, yet modest and unassuming. Enemies such a man naturally has. What person of his sterling worth has not men and who do not find the enemies of such men as he? Neither the good, the intelligent nor the poor will be found amongst them, we are sure. He is just the man for the times. A working majority of such men in Congress would make the third house a dead letter, and administer such a rebuke to them that they would give up in despair.—His honesty is unquestioned and above price. He has the respect of all classes—the mechanic, the laboring man and the poor will always be for him. As to his principles—the principles which you advocate to-day in your paper—he has advocated for twenty years, showing a foresight of which very few are possessed. He has never sought nor desired the office, although he has ever been found at his post battling in the front, ranks to convince others of the mismanagement of the so-called Democratic party; but has always sought to exemplify the doctrine that the office should seek the man, and not the man the office; and upon this principle only would he accept a nomination. We know that the name of ARCHIBALD WEITING, as our candidate, would make the opponents of the administration in this vicinity beat such a retreat as we hope the friends of the good, that what we have written may find appreciative readers, we are conscious that in our communication we have avoided misrepresenting, and do represent the true feelings and wishes of all true friends of the country, in Middle-town and surrounding townships, where Mr. WEITING is well known. MANY CITIZENS.

$5000 DOLLARS WORTH OF NEW GOODS!—400 pair of mits direct from auction, at 25, 37, 50, 62 and 75 cts.; 1000 Ladies' white collars, at 10, 20, 30, up to 75 cts. Great bargains! 500 new hoop skirts for 50, 62 and 75 cts., up to $2.50—cheapest in town; the largest assortment of low priced dress goods—all prices. 100 pieces white brillants at 12 1/2 cts.; some at 15 to 18 cts.; 50 dozen of shirt breasts at 12 1/2 cts., 20, 25 and 37 cts., extra cheap. 200 dozen of Ladies' white stockings, at 12 1/2 and 16 cts. A magnificent assortment of embroidered cambric bands, and cambric edging and insertings, at all prices. 50 dozen of linen pocket kerchiefs, at 12 1/2 cts.; also hemstitched kerchiefs. Wholesale buyers we would invite to our large stock; and as we have a buyer in New York, who buys only at the large auctions. We promise to sell goods at city prices. S. LEWIS.

[From Our Morning Edition] SERIOUS ACCIDENT ON THE NORTHERN CENTRAL RAILROAD.—Three Men Killed.—We learn from a passenger on board the Express train southward, on Saturday morning last, the particulars of a shocking accident, which occurred in the vicinity of the outer (Bolton) depot, about one mile and a half from Baltimore city, resulting in the death of Wm. T. Duke, brakeman, J. Vansant, a machinist, or shop hand; and a free negro in the employ of Mr. John White, residing near Cockeysville, Md.

The Express train, Capt. J. J. Maglaughlin, conductor, Engine No. 9, Theodore Vickers, engineer, and Washington Morton, fireman, collided with engine No. 4, (camel-back) at the north end of Bolton's switch. Engine No. 4 was attached to way freight, North, and ought to have been on the siding out of the way of the passenger train, (due at the time,) as it had been ordered.

Six men, wreck-hands from Bolton shops, (who had been up the road to clear the track of some broken down freight cars,) were riding on the platform of a baggage car, and escaped by jumping off. Vansant, Wm. Duke the brakeman, and the negro were standing between the baggage car and first passenger car, the platforms of which were crushed together, killing the negro instantly—the top of his head being smashed, and skull broken.

Van Sant was injured about the head, and also internally, and died soon after the accident occurred. He leaves a wife and two children.

Mr. Duke had his legs horribly lacerated, and died at noon on Saturday. He leaves a wife, but no children, to mourn his loss. Mr. D. was a quiet, unobtrusive man, attentive, sober and obliging, respected by all who knew him, and considered a first class hand.

Mr. Louis Epply, of York, the agent who had charge of the United States mails, also made a narrow escape—the end of the baggage car, or mail department, was completely demolished, yet Mr. E. escaped unhurt.

Mr. Martin, the fireman, leaped from the engine, and escaped with a few scratches on his face. None of the passengers were injured, except the negro killed. The same negro was ordered into the car a short time before, but did not obey, and so forfeited his life. Dennis, in the employ of Mr. Benshaw, baggage agent at Calvert Station, Julien Dempsey, a newboy, and several others were slightly injured.

ACCIDENTAL DROWNING.—A lad named Wenneke, aged about ten years, the son of a widow lady residing in South street, while swimming in the river, at the third pier of the Harrisburg bridge last Saturday afternoon, ventured beyond the calm water formed by the eddy into the adjoining swift current, from which he could not extricate himself, and was carried rapidly down the river. He was an excellent swimmer for his age, and when last seen, he was manfully buffeting the water, near one of the piers of the railroad bridge, which point he ultimately gained, but owing to the extreme swiftness of the water, and his exhausted condition, his hands refused their hold, and he was again borne on by the resistless force of the current. He was still seen swimming a short distance below the Railroad bridge, but finally disappeared from view, a victim to the merciless waves. Several gentlemen who witnessed the disaster started out in small boats, with the view of rescuing the lad, but he disappeared before they reached him.

A rumor prevailed this morning that the body of the boy had been found on one of the islands below the city, which upon inquiry, we learn is not the case. Our exchanges along the river are respectfully requested to notice this item, with the view of having the body, if found, restored to his mother. Any information on the subject should be addressed to the Mayor of the city, or to W. O. Hicock, Esq.

FOUND.—On Saturday night, when on our way home, after the following week had ended, our foot struck an object; and in taking it up, we discovered, (as Professor Drake would say,) that your uncle had fallen down on a pocket book. Upon examination, we found it contained a Lady's neck chain, ring, breast pin, stud, pencil, and a medal upon which is the likeness of James Buchanan; all of which articles the owner can have by calling at the cheap dry goods house of ULRICH & BOWMAN, corner of Front and Market streets.
