Builu Celegraph

saturday Afternoon, June 14, 1 s62.

| Arrival of Mortahs.-Two large mortars passed through this city on Wednesday lust, from the Fort Pitt works, Plttsburg. They are on the way to New York, via the Pennsylvania Central, and Camden and Amboy Railroad. |
| :---: |

| few miles fiom Lancaster city are offered for salc. See advertisem-nt.  Stranwbrares, from Olwine's celebrated patch, will be for sale at the lower market house hatween seven aud eight o'clock this evening, by Christain Evy.  A corbrspondent in another part of this oveniug's Telearara, writiug from Tennessee, highly complimenta the bravery and military skill of Captain C. C. Davib and other Harris burgers of the 7th Pennsylvania cavalry regiment, attached to the army in that State.  Piof. Hegman has opened a German and English school in the basement of the German Lutheran charch; where all the branches of a good English education, together with the German, French and Latin languages are tanght. He also gives private leesons. Apply at the office of the German Democrat, oppo- |
| :---: |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |

|  of tarting some five very strawberries ralsed by ir Gro. Rodfong, of Middletown. In richness dinur, size and beaty of shape, they were |  |
| :---: | :---: |
|  |  |

| New Marbiejand Stone Yabd. - Mr. Henry Brown, by his card in our adverttsing columns, announces to the public that be has opened a new Marlle and Stone yard on Meadow Lane, between Market and Chestnutstreets, where he is prepared to execute, in a manner not to be excelled in this city, any orders that the public may give him.  City Tax.-The Connty Commissionera announce that they have completed the levs and assebsment of taxes for the year 1862, and an abatemant of five per cent on the amount of their respective city taxes, on payment of the same to Joun T. Wrison, Esq., city Treasurer, (at his office in the new Court House,) | bouse hatween seven and eight o'clock this eveuing, by Christain Evy.  A corbrspondent in another part of this eveniug's Teleararb, writiog from Tennessee, highly complimente the bravery and military skill of Captain C. C. Davis and other Harris burgers of the 7 th Pennsylvania cavalry regiment, attached to the army in that State.  Prof. Hegman has opened a German and English school in the basement of the German Lutheran charch, where all the branches of a good English education, together with the German, French and Latin languages are tanght. He also gives private leesons. Apply at the office of the German Democrat, oppo- site this office. |
| :---: | :---: |

4

 Inuicipal authorities who passed through thit dify list week on a visit porth and west, are restrin Acilials. The last hand from the thes were stiring up the elephant in th
" "smokey city."

路

mind

|  | One-handred-and fifteenth Pennsylvania ment, Colonel Robrrt E. Pattrrson, n. |
| :---: | :---: |
| Orders | military organization, in Philadelphia |
| pre head | liag ts to be five feet by eight in size. On |
|  | side will be a represen |
| ent's no- | sbamrock, and on the |
| goon | General Sanssrad, mon |
|  | form. Yellow trimm |
|  |  |
|  | eagle surmounts the pole, with the |
|  | fro |

