DIRECTORS. rush upon our scouts, forcing them to retire, but on the retreat they were met by Company F and the remaining portion of Company H when the combined force turned and engaged the enemy.

The rebel force was estimated to be four companies of cavalry, one of infantry and a section of artillery.

It did not take long to ascertain that the rebel force outnumbered that of our own, and that it wou, do neeless to attempt to break or drive them. But our gallant band was determined to do the best they could, and show the rebels that they they had a good quality of gallady.
