Forever float that standard sheet! Where breathes the foe but falls before us, With Freedom's soil beneath our feet, And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us.

HARRISBURG, PA.

Saturday Afternoon, June 21, 1862.

PENNSYLVANIA AND NEW YORK.

We have no disposition willfully to deprive any of the loyal states of a full share of the credit they deserve, for contributing so liberally and fighting so gallantly for the defence and preservation of the national government.

The liberality of the gift, at a moment when the pressing necessities of the government seem to demand the support of every loyal man, at once elicits our approval and commands our respect.

The liberality of the gift of Philadelphia, in its generous offering to aid the government in its enterprise, by the donation of a large tract of land, for the purpose of erecting the new Navy Yard, is in striking contrast with the practices and designs of the people of a neighboring city.

We do not revive these facts to create any jealousy in the minds of the people of New York. The necessity to do so is forced upon us by the fact that the press of New York still persist in denying the credit which is due to the people and government of Pennsylvania.

SOLDIERS ROBBED OF THEIR PAY.—When sailors, after being paid off, are befouled out of their wages, the thieves are called land-sharks.

THE REPUBLICANS OF BUTLER COUNTY met in Convention on Monday, the 9th inst., and made the following nominations for Congressional and Legislative representatives.

THE LIBERALITY OF THE PEOPLE OF THE METROPOLIS.

Every Pennsylvanian has a common interest in the growth of the city of Philadelphia, and whatever concerns its interests in a commercial or business aspect, involves to a greater or smaller degree, the welfare and prosperity of the entire commonwealth.

The liberality of the gift of Philadelphia, in its generous offering to aid the government in its enterprise, by the donation of a large tract of land, for the purpose of erecting the new Navy Yard, is in striking contrast with the practices and designs of the people of a neighboring city.

THE REPUBLICANS OF BUTLER COUNTY met in Convention on Monday, the 9th inst., and made the following nominations for Congressional and Legislative representatives.

THE RESULT OF THE PRIMARY ELECTION, to nominate a Republican ticket in Somerset county, was as follows: Congress—Edward Seull.

CAMP CURTIN.

Lieut. Rhodes, whose name was announced in yesterday's TELEGRAPH as having charge of the entrance to Camp Curtin, paid us a visit last evening, for the purpose of denying some of the statements made in that announcement, and also of throwing the responsibility of the complaints made by the citizens generally, upon Capt. Dodge.

There is no reasonable excuse for refusing the citizens generally a free entrance to camp. Many of them have friends in the hospitals, and others have delicacies for the sick soldiers. The Scotch prisoners are quartered in the middle of the camp ground, and no person can get within twenty feet of them unless they have a pass to go through the outer pickets or guard which surrounds the prisoners.

We are satisfied that Capt. Dodge never gave such orders as have been executed by the Lieutenant at the gate. We know him to be an efficient officer in every respect, and he has no idea of treating these Scotch prisoners more leniently or honorably than the soldiers who are fighting for the Union.

Union Sentiment in East Tennessee

BRAUERGARDE'S ARMY AT OKOLONA.

CORINTH, June 19.

The telegraph lines North were prostrated during the early part of the week by the heavy winds; hence the interruption of communication with this quarter.

Our army has returned from Booneville, and now occupies a more Northerly position. Gen. Pope has gone North on a furlough.

The Memphis and Charleston railroad is in running order eastward to Tusculuma, and westward to Cypress creek, fifty miles from here.

The Mobile and Ohio railroad is running north to Jackson, and railroad communication is open with Grand Junction via Jackson.

The road west of Grand Junction is reported to be badly damaged. All the railroads and telegraphs are in good condition.

Maj. Gen. Ord and Brig. Gen. Sullivan and Hamilton have arrived here. There is considerable Union sentiment expressed in East-Tennessee, especially in Bolivar and Jackson counties.

Beauregard's army at last accounts was at Okolona, 80,000 strong.

Twenty thousand men under Kirby Smith were at Chattanooga, and 15,000 were under Price and Van Dorn at Fulton with a small force of Cavalry at Grenada.

The 7th Louisiana regiment was opposed to the 7th Indiana, at the battle of Port Republic.

The deadly effect of our fire can be imagined when the former left the field with only thirty-six unhurt. This is the evidence of a prisoner from that regiment.

Col. Carroll's artillery used nothing but canister and grape, and when the enemy came too near to use these with effect, the cannoniers used their revolvers with telling effect upon their assailants.

Col. Carroll led three successive regiments up to the support of the 7th Indiana, and drove the enemy back until they were flanked, and compelled to retreat. It is reported here that Col. Carroll goes to Washington to correct some misunderstanding in relation to his orders previous to the engagement.

A general court-martial, of which Col. Rogers, 3d Wisconsin, is president, and Lieut. Patterson, 2d Massachusetts, is judge advocate, is now in session here.

Charges against officers for absence without leave, selling or disposing of horses and other Government property, and private acts, are to be tried.

It is stated that there are now absent by authority from this command 1,576 men and 75 commissioned officers, greatly reducing our limited numerical strength.

The 20th Pennsylvania has been detailed as a provost guard at Hagerstown, Williamsport, and Martinsburg.

Col. Alexander, aid to Gov. Pierpont, is now here, looking after the sick and wounded of the Virginia Regiments.

The State jurisdiction has been re-established in Morgan and Berkeley counties, and will shortly be extended to Jefferson and Frederick counties.

The election in Berkeley last month gave 800 majority for Gov. Pierpont.

A considerable haul of guns, pistols, and ammunition was made in Berryville yesterday.

The arms were all loaded with ball cartridges. The office of the Berryville Conservator was conducted several days ago for secession publications, and the effects removed here to aid in army printing.

A large amount of loose and fixed ammunition, left here, is supposed, by Gen. Shields, to have been discovered by the enemy in their last visit to this place, to whom it would have been a valuable acquisition.

The first instance of the arrest of a colored man for abetting the enemy occurred to-day. It had been stated that he volunteered as guide and spy for Jackson in his late advance hitler.

General Sigel has been in command of this department during the temporary absence of Gen. Banks, who returns to-morrow.

Gen. Slough's brigade was reviewed yesterday preparatory to future movements.

The bridge over the Potomac at Harper's Ferry has been rebuilt, and the cars run regularly to the west.

At the instance of the government, the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company is repairing the Winchester and Potomac road, and travel will be resumed upon it by Thursday.

This will greatly facilitate the transportation of much-needed army supplies.

The occupation of the valley by our present forces has not restored a feeling of security to the loyal residents, and the Secessionists insist upon it that Jackson will shortly pay us another visit in his usual style.

From all indications daily intelligence is received from and despatched to Jackson's army. The house of a leading Secessionist was searched yesterday, upon information that a mail had been deposited there the previous night, but without success.
