DR. JOHNSON

BALTIMORE

LOCK HOSPITAL!

HAS discovered the most certain, speedy and effectual remedy in the world for

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.

RELIEF IN SIX TO TWELVE HOURS.

No Mercury or Noxious Drugs.

A Cure Warranted, or no Charge, in from one to Two Days.

Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Strictures, Affections of the Kidneys and Bladder, Involuntary discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsy, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Tremblings, Dimness of Sight or Giddiness, Diseases of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible disorders arising from the Solitary Habits of Youth—those SECRET and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.

Young Men

Especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of Young Men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence or waked to ecstasy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

Marriage.

Married Persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, being aware of physical weakness, organic debility, deformities, &c., speedily cured.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a Physician.

Organic Weakness

Immediately Cured, and full vigor Restored.

This distressing Affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgences. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent Besides being deprived the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms to both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervious Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, a Wasting of the Frame, Cough, Consumption, Decay and Death.

Office, No. 7 South Frederick Street.

Left hand side going from Baltimore street, a few doors from the corner. Fail not to observe name and number.

Letters must be paid and contain a stamp. The Doctor's Diplomas hang in his office.

A Cure Warranted in Two Days.

No Mercury or Nauseous Drugs,

Dr. Johnson,

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind were cured immediately.

Take Particular Notice.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or marriage.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsy, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded—Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forbodings, Aversion to Society, Self Distrust, Love of solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

THOUSANDS of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of consumption.

Young Men

Who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholly reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own.

Disease of Imprudence.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms on this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease become a horrid object of commiseration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveler returns."

It is a melancholly fact that thousands fall victims to this terrible disease, owing to the unskilfulness of ignorant pretenders, who by the use of that Deadly Poison, Mercury, ruin the constitution and make the residue of life miserable.

Strangers.

Trust not your lives, or health, to the care of the many Unlearned and Worthless Pretenders, destitute of knowledge, name or character, who copy Dr. Johnson's advertisements, or style themselves in the newspapers, regularly Educated Physicians incapable of Curing, they keep you trifling month after month taking their filthy and poisonousness compounds, or as long as the smallest fee can be obtained, and in despair, leave you with ruined health to sigh over your galling disappointment.

Dr. Johnson is the only Physician advertising.

His credential or diplomas always hangs in his office.

His remedies or treatment are unknown to all others, prepared from a life spent in the great hospitals of Europe, the first in the country and a more extensive Private Practice than any other Physician in the world.

Indorsement of the Press.

The many thousands cured at this institution year after year, and the numerous important Surgical Operations performed by Dr. Johnson, witnessed by the reporters of the "Sun," "Clipper," and many other papers, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, besides his standing as a gentleman of character and responsibility, is a sufficient guarrantee to the afflicted.

Skin Diseases Speedily Cured.

Persons writing should be particular in directing their letters to his Institution, in the following manner:

UNION RESTAURANT,

BILLIARD AND BOWLING SALOON,

NO. 119 MARKET STREET, NEAR FIFTH.

THE subscribers having erected a large building at the above place, expressly for the purposes above indicated, beg to call the attention of the public to the following:

THE RESTAURANT, on the first floor, with a dining room attached, is fitted up in first-class style, and it will at all times be supplied with the best OYSTERS to be had in the Atlantic cities, together with terrapin, fish, and all kinds of game in season. Oysters served up in every style, and meals to be had at all hours. The ales of all the celebrated breweries in the country constantly on hand.

The Ten-pin Alley, or Bowling Saloon, is in the rear, and contains three alleys of modern construction, where the lovers of this healthy exercise can enjoy themselves.

The Billiard Saloon is up-stairs—elegantly fitted up, and contains three marble top combination cushion tables, equal to any made.

Harrisburg has long felt the want of a grand combination of this kind, and as the proprietors are determined to conduct it in a quiet and orderly manner, and do everything in their power to make it a fascionable resort, they hope to receive a liberal share of public patronage.

BY TELEGRAPH.

FROM MEMPHIS.

GEN. LEW WALLACE IN COMMAND OF THE CITY.

The Argus Newspaper Office Taken Possession Of.

TWO NEW YORK EDITORS SUPERVISING ITS EDITORIALS.

The Stars and Stripes Float Without Molestation.

ARREST OF GUERILLAS.

MEMPHIS, June 18.

Gen. Lew Wallace has resumed command of the city. His first official act was the taking possession of the Argus office, which has been out spoken in its sympathies for the rebellion.

T. W. Knox, of the New York Herald, and A. D. Richardson, of the Tribune, have been appointed to supervise all the editorials which appear in that paper.

Threats having been made to tear down the Union flags flying over the houses of some of the citizens, the Provost Marsal issued orders instructing the guard to shoot down any one attempting to haul down a flag, or offering to insult, or molesting the residents and citizens who have thus manifested their devotion to the Union.

An order was also issued to imprison all citizens carrying concealed weapons.

Guerrilas are prowling about the country.—Five were arrested last night by the pickets in the suberbs of the city.

☞ Owing to the scarcity of change, the board of aldermen voted to issue one hundred thousand dollars in fractional notes, as the public exigencies require.

The guerrilla bands are burning the cotton in the counties of northern Mississippi, which has not already been destroyed by the owners.

The boats going north are loaded to their utmost capacity with freight and passengers.—The oath of allegiance was administered to over four hundred persons yesterday, half of them being soldiers.

The Avalanche says that the rebel authorities ordered all the rolling stock of the Mobile and Ohio railroad, from Pendue to Meridian.

FROM WASHINGTON.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT TO GEN. McDOWELL.

Attack on the James River Fleet.

THE REBELS DRIVEN BACK

WASHINGTON, June 20.

The President has nominated to the Senate Col. John Cochrane and Gustavus Adolphus Scroggs, both of New York, to be brigadier generals of volunteers.

Gen. McDowell, when thrown from his horse, on Wednesday, was so stunned, that it was feared the accident would prove fatal, but the report to-day concerning him, is that he will not long be delayed in resuming the saddle.

Dispatches have been received here that on the 17th the rebels opened upon our ships-of-war in the James river, from the bluff at City Point by artillery and small arms, but our squadron returned the attack with shell and sharpnel, silencing and driving back the rebel force.

XXXVIIth Congress--First Session

WASHINGTON, June 20.

SENATE.

Mr. HALE, (N. H.,) called up the bill to repeal the act passed June 2d, to prevent and punish frauds on the Government.

The bill provides for a return office for the deposit of a copy of all contracts made by government officers.

Pending a vote on the bill, it was postponed till to-morrow, and the bill taken up to define the pay and emoluments of officers of the army, on which a committee of conference was ordered.

The Pacific railroad bill was then taken up.

Mr. TRUMBULL moved to strike out the section providing for four branch lines at the eastern terminus, which was rejected—yeas 15, nays 25.

The bill was then read the third time and passed—yeas 35, nays 5, as follow:

YEAS—Messrs. Anthony, Browning, Clark, Chandler, Collamer, Cowan, Davis, Dixon, Doolittle, Foot, Foster, Grimes, Hale, Harlan, Harris, Henderson, Howard, Kennedy, Lane, (Ind.,) Lane, (Kansas,) Latham, McDougal, Morrill, Nesmith, Pomeroy, Rice, Sherman, Starke, Sumner, Trumbull, Wade, Willey, Wilmot, Wilson, (Mass.,) and Wilson, (Mo.)

Nays—Messrs. Howe, King, Pearce, Wilkinson and Wright.

Mr. FESSENDEN was present but did not vote, and Mr. POWELL, (Ky.,) paired off with Mr. SIMMONS, (R. I.)

Mr. TEN EYCK was excused from voting on the ground that he did not like the bill as amended.

A motion was then made to take up the confiscation bill, a debate then ensued as to which bill should be considered that of Senate or the one which passed the House.

Mr. SHERMAN, (Ohio,) said that in order to give Senators an opportunity to make up their minds which they would consider first he would move to adjourn till to-morrow, when a vote should be taken the first thing.

The Senate then adjourned.

THOUGHTS.

Translated from the writings of Queenel. Originally published A. D. 1723.

Every thing should be Christian in a Christian.

Our life should show forth our love.

False virtue is a sail that hides from us our sins.

Crime is never left imperfect.

True hope is not deceitful. The just, sooner or later, triumph over the unjust.

Fear is the first executioner to which the sinner is given over after his sin.

It is best to receive the gifts of God in his own time, rather than wish to have them in our own.

To forbid Christians to read the Bible is to interdict light to the children of light.

Men are more inclined to ask questions of curiosity, than to seek necessary instruction.

There are but few who are not in some respect like the Pharisee.

It is almost impossible to call God our Father, without the conviction that we are his children.

Let your manner belie your inward feelings, and show yourself without concealment.

What is small, is small; but to be faithful in that which is least, is to be great.

Man is too curious with regard to natural things, and too zealous as to the supernatural.

When a man is full of himself, he is empty of God, and must take charge of his own soul.

What awaits the man who fall into the hand of the living God?

God leaves the judgment of externals to man; the recesses of the heart are known to him.

Men are believed on their word, but God is not taken at his.

Heresy and schism arise from the passions of men.

Sighs are the portion of the heart on earth; praise will be the language of heaven.

It is the dawn of happiness to comprehend the misery of sin, and to desire the satisfaction of those who serve God.

It is the heart which shall be judged by him who knows the heart; with the heart we must please him.

God despises and abandons double-minded men, as he takes pleasure to instruct the simple of heart.

What is the misery of that man who feels the wants of the body more than the necessities of the soul!

Of all the virtues, Christ speaks in praise of faith only, because a living faith includes the other graces, and nothing can stand in its stead.

What termerity is it to measure the eternal and infinite mind of the Creator, by the feeble fallible reason of the creature!

The greatest sins are those committed against the love of God, because they conflict with the first and great commandment.

True humility is found in the confession of the grace of God working within the soul, and if this grace is not received in its amplitude, it is wholly rejected.

Never deal rigorously with any one; the exactitude of honesty does not demand all that is due. If you would be a friend beloved, be not strictly exacting, nor fear to be in the advance.

There is a time of just judgment coming, when we shall not have the power to do what we wish, because we did it not when it could have been done.

The world is filled with good intentions that are never executed. These but serve to render the sinner inexcusable, because the sins having the preception of the knowledge of duty.

Who is there among us who would not go to a hospital or a prison, were we assured that Christ had need of us? And yet Christ commands our attendance, and we turn a deaf ear to him, and do not minister unto him.

The everlasting pains of the lost come from a sense of the infinite dignity of an offended God. The eternal bliss of the elect results from the wondrous goodness of the Lord, who has crowned them with glory.

It is an easy thing to hide oneself from the world, and to avoid the praises of men. But it is difficult to conceal oneself from one's own eyes, and not to feel a self-gratulation and applause for an indifference or a contempt of human approbation and admiration.

NORTHERN WOMEN AND THE WAR.—The sufferings of our sick and wounded soldiers have drawn forth freely all the noble and benevolent characteristics of the women of the North, hundreds of whom have flocked to the hospitals east and west, and are cheerfully acting as angels of mercy to the poor fellows who are suffering there with wounds and disease. Conspicuous among these philanthropic women is Mrs. Henry Baylis, the wife of a merchant of this city, who as chief directress of the Women's Relief Hospital, has left a home of affluence and hurries to the relief of our sick and wounded soldiers at Yorktown. She has not only volunteered to endure the privations, and discharge the disagreeable duties of hospital life, but she has studied the profession of surgeon and nurse, so that she can care for a wounded limb equal to any of the surgeons of the army. The memory of such a woman should be cherished by the whole nation, and she is richly entitled to a fame equal to that which Florence Nightengale has so justly earned.—New York Atlas.

WHEN Mobile falls the entire State of Alabama falls with it, for the rivers of the State—the Tombigbee, the Tensaw, the Alabama—traverses its whole surface, from north to south, and are navagable by our invulnerable gunboats, not only to Montgomery, the first Rebel capital, but to nearly all other points of value.
