XXXVIIth Congress—First Session.

SENATE.

Mr. Wade, Ohio, presented the petition of citizens of Cuyshoga county, Ohio, stating that they veiwed with deep humiliation the fact that the military authorities of the Government seem to be occupying themselves in the protection of rebels and traitors, and asking for the passage of a Confiscation Act.

Mr. Tanneput, III. presented a petition from citizens of fullon county, Illinois, asking the Government to extend its protection over all the loyal people in the States in rebellion, with out regard to color. Washington, June 23, the loyal people in the States in rebellion, without regard to color.

Mr. Wads, from the Committee on Territories, reported a bill providing for the admission of the State of Western Virginia into the Union.

Mr. Lane, (Ind.) from the Military Committee, reported a bill to establish certain National Arsenals.

Mr. Wilson, (Mass.) introduced a bill for the organization of an Army corps and staff, to be attached to the varieus divisions. Referred to the Military Committee.

On motion of Mr. Grings, (Iowa,) the bill for the better government of the Navy was taken port.

Mr. Saraman spoke against the drawback of five mills on cotton as being more bounty to the manufacturers. He would not seek to defeat the report of the committee of conference but was opposed to such bounty. Report of committee concurred in.

Mr. Powell introduced a bill relative to du ties of the head departments. Mr. CLARK moved to take up House confis-cation bill. Agreed to. Mr. CLARK then moved, as a substitute, the Senate bill, as reported from the special committee. Pending the question, the Senate went into executive session, Adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES." The bill to establish a Land District in Ne vada Territory was passed. Mr. Lovejoy, (III.,) introduced a bill rela-ting to Colored Schools in the District of Columbia. Referred. Mr. Lovejoy asked leave to introduce a bill cipation Act. It provides that the Commis-sioners assessing the value of slaves shall be governed by the cash value at the time of the passage of the act.

The Commissioners in all cases where it is charged on the oath of any respectable person that the claimant is disloyal or has given ut terances to disunion sentiments, should sum mon witnesses, none of whom shall be excluded on account of color. If it shall be shown that such claimant has given aid or comfort to the enemy the claims shall be disallowed.

Mr. Wickerfer, (Ky.,) objected to the introduction of the bill.

Mr. Lovejov. It is simply for reference. Mr. Wickliffs. I don't care what it's for-

Mr. Law, (Ind.,) introduced a resolution which was referred to the Committee on Nava Affairs, tendering the thanks of the House to Captain Charles H. Davis and the officers and crews, for the brilliant events on the west

Mr. DAWES, (Mass.,) called up the resolution from the Committee on Elections, declaring that Charles H. Foster, in not entitled to a sea as a representative of the Second Congression District of North Carolina. Passed.

Both Mr. Baowne, (H. I.,) and Mr. Dawis characterized the claim as a frand baseless as the fabric of a vision.

The House went into committee of the whole on the bill authorizing an additional issue of U.S. Treasury notes. Mr. BAKER, (N. Y.,) said that he had voted every means to enable the Executive to pu down this cauceless and wicked rebellion; but the measure pending was an unwise one and will lead to sad disaster, and more, that he could not sanction it. He examined the financial transactions of the reasury, some of which he argued were inde fensible. -The issue of $150,000,000 of legal tende notes as proposed, was unnecessary. They would not be money, but merely evidences of debt and irredeemable.

After a debate, Mr. Paulding's amendmen to the first section was adopted—yeas 57, nay

This amendment provides for the issue of one hundred and fifty millions of dollars of United States notes not bearing interest, pays ble to the bearer, and of such denomination as the Secretary of the Tressury may desire expe-dient; provided, that no note shall be issued for the fractional part of a dollar, and not more than fifty millions shall be of a lower denomination than five dollars.

This is the only amendment to the first so tion. The other sections were not on, and t bill passed over. Mr. STEVENS, from the committee on confe ence, made report on the disagreeing amen ments to the tex bill. After the explanations the report was adopted

Summary Punishment of Burglars-Opinions of the Press

By the arrival of the steamer Roancke, at New York, on Sunday, we have files of the New Orleans Picayune, True Della and Bee, to the 15th instant, from which we select the for lowing items:

Military Governor of New Orleans. ...

The Picayune of the 15th inst., says:
The designation of Mr. James Robb as Military Governor of New Orleans, under the authority of the United States, has produced general and strong manifestations of pleasure among our citizens. Mr. Roob is universally known and respected in this community for his liberality, his intelligence, and his extensive and in-timate knowledge of the condition, the characteristics and the needs of our city. An exclusively commercial city, New Orleans requires, in the authority which is to control its administration, intimate knowledge of commercial affairs; and this requirement Mr. Robb posses-

Special Orders No. 88.—William M. Clary, late second officer of the United States steam ransport Saxon, and Stanislaus Roy, of New Orleans, on the night of the 11th June inst., having forged a pretended authority of the Major General Commanding, being armed, in company with other evil disposed persons, under false names, and in a pretended uniform of soldiers of the United, States, entered the beauty of a personal with the New York 200 Toulouse organization of an Army corps and staff, to be attached to the various divisions. Referred to the Military Committee.

On motion of Mr. Grims, (Iowa,) the bill for the better government of the Navy was taken up and discussed, Messis. I sumbut, Halk and Grims participating in the debate. Various amendments were adopted.

The amendment offered by Mr. Trumbull to except all for whom the Constitution prescribes for an office, was amended on motion of Mr. Dayis so as to further except Senators. Representatives, and the Vice President, and was adopted, and the bill was passed, yeas 33 nays 5; viz:—Messis. Bayard, Carlile, Kennedy Powell and Saulsbury.

It further appeared that Clary and Roy had before this occasion visited other houses of peaceable citizens in the night time, for like peaceable citizens in the fight time, for like purposes and under like false pretences.

"Brass knuckles," burglars' keys and a portion of the stolen property, and other property stolen from other parties, were found upon the person of Boy and in his lodgings,

Whereupon, after a full hearing of the defense of the said Clary and Boy, and due consideration of the evidence, it was ordered by the Commanding General that Wm/ M. Clary and Stanislans Boy, for their offences, he punand Stanislaus Roy, for their offences, be pun-ished by being hanged by the neck until they were dead, and this sentence be executed upon them and each of them, between the hours of 8 o'clock, A. M., and 12 M., on Monday, the 16th of June inzt., at or near the Parish Prison, in the city of New Orleans.

The Provost Marshall will cause said sentences to be executed, and for so doing this order hall be sufficient warrant.

By command of MAJOR GENERAL BUTLER, Commanding Department, R. S. Davis, Captain and Acting A. A. G. James McDonald, an accessory to the burg. lary was sentenced to five years imprison in Fort Jackson, with a ball and chain.

FROM NORTH CAROLINA. Rebel Brigadier General Hanged by

North Carolina Troops. From the Newbern Progress, June 16.] Six North Carolina regiments have been dis banded by the rebels at Richmond, and are now-under guard, previous to which, however, they hung their Brigadier General. Thus, again, is furnished more testimony corroborative of the truth of our statements that there is a Union sentiment growing in this State, and a wide spread disastisfaction with the Southern Confederacy. The above is from sources that entitle it to credit.

Repentant Rebels. From the Newbern Progress, June 16.

On Thursday, the 12th instant, twelve rebel On Inursday, the LZIN instant, twelve rebel dragoons who had been mustered out of the rebel service on account of being over forty-five years of age, came into Washington and gave themselves up to the Federal authorities. It is reported that on Friday, nearly one hundred came in and surrendered themselves, but how true this is we cannot say how true this is we cannot say.

Miscellaneous Items. [From the Newbern Progress, June 16.]

During the battle of Tracter's Creek, Lieu-During the battle of Tracter's Creek, Lieutenant Avery, of the Marine Artillery, thought he discovered rifle shots coming from the leafy boughs of a tall elm, not very far distant from the field of battle. He accordingly filled his howitzer with grape and elevated it with a very satisfactory result, tumbling half a score of the schols to the ground. Not a had shot considrebels to the ground. Not a bad shot considering the result.

Since the capture of Newbern the rebels have disabled five of the engines of the A. and N. C. railroad, and they are now lying useless at Kinston and Goldsborough, not having the means or energy to repair them.

Captain Mallett, at Kinston, is sadly in want of recruits for his Rebel cavalry. He wants about thirty, and offers a lieutenant's commission to the man who will furnish them. Hard annie the Rebel army! np in the Rebel army!
On the 30th ult, the Rebels at Goldsboro' received reinforcements from Raleigh by rail, as we peceive by the Raleigh papers.
