HARRISBURG, PA. Tuesday Afternoon, June 24, 1862.

WHO ARE TRAITORS? is a question propounded by the Mirror's Journal, as it asks the people to look around and reply to the following interrogatories: Who are disunionists? Who are traitors? Who glory in the prophecy that our brave soldiers will die off like rotten sheep?

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH, a week or two since, took us to task for certain strictures on the Pittsburg Post, contained in an article published in the TELEGRAPH. The Dispatch was very anxious to show that we were wrong, and yet the Dispatch is now laboring with an ability for which it is justly distinguished, to show that the Post is guilty of the crimes which we laid to its charge.

GENERAL BUTLER'S impartiality in the administration of law in New Orleans is of the strictest kind. While he hangs a rebel who cuts down the federal flag, he does not hesitate to inflict the same penalty upon a federal naval officer who commits depredations upon rebel property.

WILL ONE OF OUR Lancaster city contemporaries inform the editor of the Lancaster Intelligencer that the negroes who cut the grass on the capitol grounds, and about whom the Patriot became so virtuously indignant, were employed by a Democratic citizen of Harrisburg, who had purchased the grass on those grounds.

THE MEMPHIS correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial reports that there is a strong effort now made in that region to prove that the people of the northwest sympathize with the south more than they do with the inhabitants of the eastern states.

ON THE 4th of March, 1861, when President Lincoln was inaugurated, the government vessels, available for service, were only four in number, carrying twenty five guns.

THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE of Congress on the tax bill, have agreed that no goods on hand should be taxed after the present year; and that the act should go into effect on the 1st of August next.

STAND FROM UNDER.—The following paragraph is from the Nashville, (Tenn.) Union—not from a Massachusetts paper: "The rebels who were the prime movers in the rebellion are the loudest to complain that slavery is being injured by the war, keep your fingers from under our trip-hammer, then. The federal army has no time to catch a rebel's negroes, and ought not, if it had time."

THE UNION IN INDIANA. The people of the State of Indiana assembled in grand mass convention, in the city of Indianapolis, on Wednesday morning last, for the purpose of nominating a Union State Ticket, and adopting a platform upon which every man in the state of Indiana could stand in defence of the national government.

After the completion of the ticket, the committee on resolutions reported the following, which were received with immense cheering: WHEREAS, The National Government is engaged in a war waged against it by its enemies for the avowed purpose of its destruction, and the subversion of our Republican form of Government; therefore, Resolved, That the present civil war is forced upon the country by the disunionists in the Southern States, who are now in rebellion against the Constitutional Government;

Resolved, That the present civil war is forced upon the country by the disunionists in the Southern States, who are now in rebellion against the Constitutional Government; in the present national emergency, we the people of Indiana in Convention assembled, forgetting all former political differences, and recollecting only our duty to the whole country, do pledge ourselves to aid with men and money, the vigorous prosecution of the present war, which is not being waged upon the part of our Government for the purpose of conquest, subjugation, or the overthrowing, or the interfering with the rights or established institutions of any of the States, but to suppress and put down a wicked and causeless rebellion, defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution,

Resolved, That we demand and expect of our Executive and Legislative bodies, both State and National, an economical administration of Governmental affairs, and the punishment of fraud against the Government, as well as a fearless discharge of their duties.

Resolved, That as long as patriotism, courage and love of constitutional liberty, shall be honored and revered among the people of the United States, the heroic conduct of the soldiers of the Union, who have offered their lives for the salvation of their country, will be remembered with the most profound feelings of veneration and gratitude; and that we now tender to them the warmest thanks and lasting gratitude of every member of this Convention.

QUARTERMASTER MEYERS, of Gen. McDowell's staff, states that when thousands of our troops were in a half starving condition, on account of the delay in transportation of subsistence, he found sutlers with their poisonous stores, which they sold at enormous profits at Front Royal, occupying the front cars upon each train. Becoming indignant that such privileges should be allowed, Major Meyers seized one of these sutlers, and compelled him to show his pass for the transportation of his goods. The sutler turned pale and trembled, but at last pulled from his pocket a receipt for $25 from an official, who, upon the payment of that amount, gave him the front car and allowed him to fill it with whatever he pleased.

NEW PUBLICATIONS. LOVE'S LABOR WORN. By Mrs. Emma D. E. N. Southworth. Philadelphia: T. B. Peterson & Brother.

Mrs. Southworth has excelled all her other efforts in this work. We regard it as the best in the whole range of her other productions.—The story is intensely interesting, and abounds in all the excellencies of its author's vivid and picturesque genius. The characters are not merely names represented in word clothing; but existences that live and move before us in the minds eye, each acting in accordance with their peculiar nature.

ON THE 4th of March, 1861, when President Lincoln was inaugurated, the government vessels, available for service, were only four in number, carrying twenty five guns. Our navy now consists of 264 vessels of all sizes, carrying 2,567 guns, with an aggregate tonnage of 318,016 tons. The number of seamen now employed is 22,000.

The Mexican Extradition Treaty.—APPLICATIONS FOR PASSES.—A REBEL SCHOONER SEIZED.—IMPORTANT ORDER FROM THE WAR DEPARTMENT.

WASHINGTON, June 24. The treaty between the United States and Mexico, for the extradition of criminals, is officially proclaimed. The offences are confined to the principal accessories or accomplices, as to murder, assassination, piracy, forgery, counterfeiting, larceny, etc., and kidnapping—the last being defined as the taking and carrying away of free person by force or deception. The provisions of the treaty are not applied in any manner to any crime or offence of a purely political character, nor do they embrace the return of fugitive slaves.

The Secretary of War, to-day ordered that all application for passes and permits for persons of property, within the lines of the United States forces, shall hereafter be made to Brig. General Wadsworth, Military Governor of the District of Columbia, and subject to such terms and conditions as he may prescribe. The Navy Department has received dispatches stating that on the night of the 7th inst., the schooner Romona, formerly the Garibaldi, seventy tons burden, built opposite New Orleans, ran into Stone river and anchored near the entrance, not knowing it to be in our possession.

The London Times regards the defeat of Banks as one of the most important successes of the Confederates, on account of the lesson it teaches to the North, showing that efforts and sacrifices greater than any that have gone before must be made if ever a border State is to be won back to the Union.

The Daily News treats the defeat of General Banks as quite unimportant, and not in the slightest degree calculated to disconcert Gen. McClellan's plans.
