HARRISBURG, PA. Wednesday Afternoon, June 25, 1862.

Wanted, at this office, an active, industrious Bay. Apply between seven and nine o'clock this evening.

THE HARDWARE STORES. -- An arrangement has been made between the several hardware dealers in the city, to close their respective places of business hereafter at 8 o'clock, p. m. This is an excellent arrangement, and the example might be profitably followed by our merchants and business men generally.

FOR FORT DELAWARE. The secesh prisoners confined at Camp Curtin, left this afternoon for Fort Delaware, below Philadelphia, in the custody of a company from the One-hundredand-fifteentii Penna., regiment, Colonel Patterson, detailed for that purpose. The order for the removal of the prisoners was received from the War Department yesterday.

MUSIC FOR MECHANICSBURG. -The State Capital Band, and "Bethoven Club" of this city, left here this morning to attend the commencement exercises of the Irvin Female College at Mechanicsburg, which takes place this evening. The band before starting in the cars, favored our citizens with several spirited airs, which created quite a lively stir in the neighborhood of the depot. The musicians will return to morrow.

THE LEGITIMATE. - We understand that the dramatic company now performing at the Arch Street Theatre, in Philadelphia, under the management of Mrs. John Drew, have leased Sanford's Opera House in this city for a short dramatic season, commening of Tuesday evening, the 15th of July. The company includes the "bright particular star." Mrs. Julia Dean Hayne, and a number of the best stock actors in the country. A rich fund of amusement is promised.

COL. M'CARTER .- Rev. Col. Jas. M. M'Carter, arrived in Lancaster city on Thursdsy last, to recruit his health and strength from the severe injuries he received at the battle of Fair Oaks. His left arm, which had been completely paralized in that terrible conflict, we are happy to say is rapidly assuming its wonted strength.

He preached in the Duke street M. E. church in that city on Sunday evening last, to a very large congregation. He took his text from Numbers xiv. 14: "Thou goest before them by daytime in a pillar of a cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night." The Lancaster Union says that the comparison which the speaker drew between the passage of the Israelites from the land of bondage to the promised Canaan, and God's manifested presence and protection over them, with the exercise of the same Almighty power in aiding us -- although the ordeal through which we are passing is a severe onewas at once forcible and conclusive. When he gave a description of the awful scenes of the war which he had witnessed, the deepest emo-tion was manifest throughout the large assem-Sanford gives us a genuine old fashion nigger blage present. The discourse was able and eloquent, and will not soon be forgotten by those who heard it.

HARRISBURG AS A SUMMER RESORT.—We are glad to see that the unrivalled beauty of our city and its surroundings, are beginning to be fully appreciated by our brethern of the press throughout the State. It has a charm to us beautiful railroad trips to be enjoyed in the which we fail to discover in many localities that we visited during our wanderings years ago, and we are always pleased to quote the good oninions of these who also recard the improved the control of these who also recard the improved the control of these who also recard the improved the control of these who also recard the improved the control of these who also recard the improved the control of these who also recard the improved the control of these who also recard the improved the control of these who also recard the improved the control of these who also recard the improved the control of these who also recard the improved the control of these who also recard the improved the control of the control State Capital as one of the loveliest localities within the State's boundaries. The Philadelphia Bulletin, of yesterday, in speaking of summer tours and summer resorts, thus alludes to the superior advantages of our city:

Notwithstanding the war, some of our citinever visited Harrisburg, it can be said that they could not possibly do better than by spendscarcely to be met with in any one spot. The situation of the city is beautiful beyond fancy; the Susquehanna, which flows at its feet, is lovely beyond all rivers. It is a mile wide, and clear as crystal. It is filled with beautiful green islands, and its sunsets are marvels of beauty. It is so calm as to be filled with boat ing parties, while it is visible from many parts he city and gives life and movement to the whole scene.

to Harrisburg.
While in the winter Harrisburg is a focus of political intrigue, nobody need want to go there who has not some measure to carry through the Legislature; it it quite different unrough the Legislature; it is quite different in summer. The harpies disperse, and seek other quarries; politicians of every degree go to their own place. THE "RUNAWAY" NEGRO, about which the Patriot was so much concerned this morning, appears to have been brought to town by one of the guards at Camp Curtin, and when said or his charge, the contraband fell into the ner of Fifth and Market street, free for ladies and are to leave for the seat of war, in hands of some of the colored people living in in the morning. Everybody should go. negro passed the guard stationed at both ends of Tanner's alley, and proceeded at once to Camp Curtin, where he rejoined the rebel prisoners, from whom he has no disposition to escape, until released by due course of law. We are sorry to GENERAL ORDERS. spoil a good lie concocted by our neighbors, and we are sorry, also, to deprive them of another opportunity to shreik on the subject of violating the Constitution. If this negro had escaped. what would have become of the Constitution?

THE EXTENSION OF THE WATER PIPES up Third Ridge Road and Cumberland streets, authorized by Councils, does not seem to give satisfaction to the residents in that locality, because there is no connection in the pipes running in Third street with those in Cumberland street necessary to secure that circulation which alone insures the purity of the water. As the pipes will be laid, there is a likelihood of collecting much stagnant water, a fact sufficient to endanger the health of the people in that portion of the city. We are aware that the city is already laboring under heavy expense, and that such improvements always cost much money, but we think it would be a policy of economy always to look after the health while we are guarding the finances of the people. Will the City Councils consider this matter, in compliance with the request of the people who may suffer by the extension as it is proposed to be made by Councils.

Sanford—the incomparable Sam, of pleasant memory—from all accounts, has been driving a thriving business during his present summer tour through the country. An Albany (N. Y.) paper thus notices the performance of the troupe in that city : Sanford's Philadelphia Minstrels made a great hit last evening. We have seldom seen a more delighted audience. The orchestra belonging to this company is one of the best that travels. The singing was excellent. The "Sad Sea Waves," was admirably rendered, and brought down the house. The cornet solo by Garatequi, was truly wonderful. He got up an echo on his own performance, and with his own instru-ment, which is truly astonishing. No such corin a genu speech by Young America is immense. It is the best stump speech we have yet heard.

Sanford opens his opera house in this city next Saturday night, and of course it will be filled to overflowing with the fashion and elite who are otherwise able to join them.

WAR DEPARTMENT, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, Washington, June 12, 1862.

I. Paragraph 1269 Army Regulations is here by so modified, that Private Physicians, em-ployed as Medical Officers with an Army in the field in time of war, may be allowed a sum no to exceed one hundred and twenty-five dollars per month, besides transportation in kind.

II. The certificates of discharge to be given by the Medical Inspector General, or any Medical Inspector of the Army, under the Act of May 14, 1862, published in "General Orders," No. 53, will be made on the printed forms for Certificates of Disability, prescribed by the Army Regulations. The Inspector giving the discharge will endorse it with his own certificate that it is granted upon his own persona inspection of the soldier, and with the soldier' onsent; and for disability, the nature, degree and origin of which are correctly described in the within certificate.

III. Each Medical Director must, under the orders of his Department Commander, regulate the distribution of the sick and wounded to the hospitals within the Military Department to which he belongs. When want of room in such hospitals, or the nature of the wounds or diseases of any invalids, require that detachments shall be sent beyond the limits of their departments, the Surgeon General will designate to the Medical Directors, either by general instruc tions, or specially by telegraph, to what points they shall be sent. Officers, whose duty it may become to forward such detachments, will take care that no men, except those provided with written passes from their hospital surgeon or the Medical Director, shall be allowed to go. Furloughs will not be given by Captains of Companies or Colonels of Regiments on any pretext whatever. A furlough from such authority will not relieve a soldier from the charge of Enlisted men absent from their regiment without proper authority, are in fact deserters, and not only forfeit all pay and allowances, but are subject to the penalties awarded by law to such offenders. From the Rev. D. Hodge and the Rev. Dr. McGill, Professors in the Theological Seminary Princeton, N. J. Professors in the Theological Seminary Princeton, N. J.

I have for several years been intimately acquainted with the ev. Thomas W. Cattell. He has had charge of two cf my sons, and I can safely say I have never nowns ny one in whose fidelity and devotine to his pupils, I have equal confilence. He is a good scholer and a successful teacher. I know mo one who has a greater facility in guining the love of his scholars or who exerts over them a better influence. I am aware of the responsibility in speking in such terms of commendation of a teacher, but I am stitisted I am doing nothing but sim he justice to an excellent man, in using the language which I have here employed.

I have great confide oe in the Rev. Jas. P. Hughes, as a teacher, both in his aptness to give instruction, and his tact in the administration of discipline. I have bad two sons under his care, and from the most careful observa-tion I am free to recommend the Edgehill relocal as one of see and thorough instruction. f safe and thorough instruction.
