ACCEPTED THE INVITATION.—The members of the Mount Vernon Hook and Ladder company have accepted the invitation of the First City Zouaves to participate in the 4th of July celebration.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Mrs. Swager, a lady of about seventy-seven years of age, residing on Front street, above Mulberry, met with an accident yesterday which may result in her death.

A SILK VELVET MANUFACTORY IN CHESTER CO.—Few of our citizens are aware, says the Record, that we have had in Chester county, an establishment at which the finest silk velvet is manufactured, of every style and pattern.

PENNSYLVANIANS RELEASED.—Among the prisoners released by the Rebels upon parole, recently in the Shenandoah Valley, were the following:

Eighty-fourth Pennsylvania.—Jacob Barr, Co. G, James W. Kelly, Co. E.

Forty-sixth Pennsylvania.—Jacob Myers, Co. C, Patrick Golden, Co. K, Thomas M. Linn, Co. H, Lester Stone, Co. G, Edward Bradshaw, Co. D, S. Pifer, Co. K.

Twenty-ninth Pennsylvania.—J. D. Res, Co. C, Theodore D. Bow, Co. I, Samuel W. Gaylord, Co. H, Robert G. Wilson, Co. D.

One-hundred and tenth Pennsylvania.—A. J. Henderson, Co. B, Martin Witz, Co. A, James Hicks, Co. D, Dixon Ramsey, Co. B.

THAT "CONTRABAND."—Our readers will recollect the "contraband," who was confined with the rebel prisoners at Camp Curtin near this city last week.

EXTRAORDINARY AND PAINFUL MISTAKE.—The night of the 2d of June, says the Lewistown True Democrat, will be remembered as having been pitch dark, with rain falling in torrents.

THE SICK AND WOUNDED SOLDIERS.—An interesting cotemporary makes a suggestion in reference to a mode of raising a collection in aid of our sick and wounded soldiers, which seems as feasible, and worthy of trial in our city.

THE "UPPER END."—Our country cousins at the upper end of this county expect to have a lively time on the approaching Anniversary of American Independence.

ADAM HOFFMAN, a graduate of Duff's Mercantile College, Pittsburg, is desirous of forming a class in Double Entry Book keeping. He can be seen at his residence, Walnut street, near Fourth.

THE FORTY-SIXTH PENNSYLVANIA.—The Forty Sixth Pennsylvania Regiment under the command of our gallant townsman, Col. Joseph F. Knipe is now at Front Royal. Its officers and men are in good health and spirits and eager for a fight with the enemy.

SOME STRANGE THINGS will be elicited by the present rebellion. The Indiana American says that one day last week, the parents and friends of a young man in East Wheatfield township, Indiana county, were startled at the reception of a letter from a son who had been absent for some four years and upwards, during which time the parents had entirely lost sight of the whereabouts of their son, and did not know whether he was living.

A MODEL ESTABLISHMENT.—Among the many improvements lately made in our city, to which we can point with pride as an evidence of prosperity and as a determination on the part of our business men, no longer to remain behind the "light house," is the completion of Eby & Kunkle's large brick building at the corner of Market and Fifth streets, which is also creditable to the owners and ornamental to that part of our city.

THE BUILDING is not only one of the largest, devoted to the grocery business, outside of New York, but the stock challenges competition.

Without going into detail, we may safely say that the firm keep on hand everything usually kept in a grocery store, (liquors excepted), and that they sell at very small profits. Their clerks are civil and accommodating, and have strict instructions under no circumstances whatever to misrepresent or take advantage of any customer.

A GENERAL INVITATION is extended to the public to visit the new building and examine the extensive stock, whether they purchase or not.

COL. WM. F. SMALL.—We had the pleasure yesterday of taking by the hand Col. Wm. F. Small. The Colonel was wounded in the leg, (we think at Winchester), and has suffered severely for the last six weeks, but is now slowly recovering, and expects to be at the head of his command soon.

WE ALSO RECEIVED 10 dozen of real German linen pocket handkerchiefs for gentlemen—a very scarce article; also 20 pieces of white and colored straw matting, and 6 pieces of new carpets from auction; 5 pieces of black silk at all prices.

BATCHELOR'S HAIR DYE.—THE BEST IN THE WORLD. WILLIAM A. BATCHELOR'S celebrated Hair Dye produces a color not to be distinguished from nature—warranted not to injure the hair in the least; remedies the ill effects of bad dyes, and invigorates the hair for its growth; GREY, RED OR RUSSY HAIR instantly turns a beautiful Black or Brown, and the Hair soft and beautiful. Sold by all Druggists, &c.

THE GENUINE is signed WILLIAM A. BATCHELOR, on the four sides of each box. FACTORY, No. 81 Barclay Street, (Late 233 Broadway and 10 Bond Street.) NEW YORK.

EDGEHILL SCHOOL, PRINCETON, N. J. Rev. JAMES P. HUGHES, A. M., Principal. Rev. THOS. W. CATTALL, A. M., {

THIS Institution, founded in 1829, is designed to prepare boys thoroughly for college or a business life. The buildings are large and commodious, and the grounds embrace more than thirteen acres. Both of the Principals devote their whole time to the school, and in the department of instruction by competent teachers.

The military instruction and drill, (under the charge of an experienced instructor,) is arranged so as not to interfere with the regular studies, occupying a part of the time appropriated to exercise and recreation. Pupils are received at any time and charged only from the date of admission. Tuition—$125.00 per session of six months. For circulars, or further information, address either of the Principals. No entrance is also made to the Rev. Mr. Cattall, Harrisburg.

From the Rev. Dr. Hodge and the Rev. Dr. McGill, Professors in the Theological Seminary, Princeton, N. J. I have for several years been intimately acquainted with the Rev. Thomas W. Cattall. He has had charge of two of my sons, and I can safely say I have never known a more judicious and devoted man to his pupils. I have equal confidence in his moral character and success as a teacher. I know no one who has a greater facility in explaining the love of his scholars or who exerts over them a better influence. I am aware of the responsibility in speaking to such terms of commendation of a teacher; but I am convinced I am doing nothing but the truth in so doing. I am, Sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant, CHAS. B. HUGHES, A. M. je28-dm

I have great confidence in the Rev. J. P. Hughes, as a teacher, both in his aptness to give instruction and his ability to instruct. I have had two of my sons under his care from the most careful observation. I am sure to recommend him to all my friends. I am, Sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant, A. F. ANDERSON, A.
