HARRISBURG, PA. Tuesday Morning, July 1, 1862. The picnic of the Excelsior club in Hasbrouck woods is postponed until to day (Tuesday).

THE LANCASTER COTTON MILLS.—The Lancaster Express of Saturday, says that the No. 1 cotton mill of that city will resume operations on Monday, the 7th proximo.

THE KEYSTONE BASE BALL CLUB, recently organized in this city, played a very entertaining match game on one of the fields above the city last Saturday afternoon.

Excursion.—Our readers will observe that the Reading Railroad Company issues excursion tickets from all their stations to Philadelphia and New York, good from the present time until the 7th day of July.

THE GLORIOUS "FOURTH."—From present indications, there is every reason to believe that the approaching anniversary of American Independence will be celebrated in our city in a memorable manner.

MEANS BUSINESS.—An intelligent contemporary complains that while many of our citizens have foregone the pleasures and comforts of home, separated themselves from all they hold dear to earth, and grided on their armor and went forth to battle for our glorious country.

THE PANORAMA OF THE GREAT REBELLION.—This magnificent work of art is progressing finely in the hands of the young and talented artist, Harry Davis.

MERCANTILE TAXES.—The storekeepers in this country may be interested to know that by an act of the last session of the Legislature, it is declared "that it shall be the duty of every city and county treasurer to see for the recovery of all licenses duly returned to him by the mercantile appraisers, if not paid before the 1st of July in each year, within ten days after that date."

STAGOLERS, JOIN YOUR REGIMENTS.—We often see in our streets strangers in uniform—and some in citizen dress—who are either on leave or nominally sick, and are making use of any pretext to avoid their duty.

CADETS OF TEMPERANCE.—At a stated meeting of the State Capital Section, No. 21, Cadets of Temperance, held on Friday evening, the 27th inst., the following officers were elected to serve the ensuing term:

THE WAY TO MAKE AN AMERICAN FLAG.—The following rule is obtained from an officer of the Navy, and at this time, when many persons are desirous to construct Union flags, and inquiry is frequently made, in consequence of the proper proportions of such flag, may be useful.

INCREASE OF ARMY ENLISTMENTS.—The recent order issued by Secretary Stanton, announcing that hereafter a premium of two dollars would be paid for each and every accepted recruit, has, it is said, produced a general increase of army enlistments.

ENCOURAGE HOME ENTERPRISE.—We set it down as a maxim, which cannot be disputed, that it is the duty of every citizen, to encourage the mechanics and business men of his own community.

ADAM HOFFMAN, a graduate of Duif's Mercantile College, Pittsburg, is desirous of forming a class in Double Entry Book Keeping.
