NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.—All advertisements, Business Notices, Marriages, Deaths, &c., to secure insertion in the TELEGRAPH, must invariably be accompanied with the CASH.

Advertisements ordered in the regular Evening Edition are inserted in the morning Edition without extra charge.

HARRISBURG, PA. Wednesday Afternoon, July 2, 1862.

MILITARY RELIEF FUND.—This week's payment will be made on Thursday evening, instead of Friday, at the usual hour and place.

O. EDWARDS, Sec'y.

NOTICE.—The marshalls of the respective organizations proposing to join in the procession on the coming Fourth of July, will be good enough to meet at 12 1/2 o'clock P. M., July 2d, at the office of WM. H. MILLER, Second street.

UMBRELLAS.—Sun umbrellas, parasols, walking canes in large quantities, and in great variety, can be found at Lee's, No. 69 Market street. Closing out the season, and selling cheap. Give him a call.

A MIDDLETOWN PROMOTED.—The Philadelphia Daily News of yesterday contains the following announcement under its telegraphic head:

Lieut. Col. Nevins, of Middletown, Pa., has been commissioned, by Gov. Morgan, as Colonel of the 62d New York regiment (Anderson Zouaves).

WILL CLOSE THEIR STORES.—In addition to the grocers, the dry goods and hardware merchants have signed an agreement to close their respective stores from to-morrow night until Saturday morning. Our citizens should make a note of this, and buy what articles they need for Friday before closing up time to-morrow night.

MRS. SWAGER, the old lady residing in Front street, noticed in last Friday's TELEGRAPH as having been seriously burned by her clothes catching fire while attempting to destroy caterpillar webs on some fruit trees, died about six o'clock last evening from the effects of the injuries received on that occasion. The deceased was aged seventy-seven years, and a most estimable lady, whose loss will be deeply deplored by a large circle of friends.

SANFORD'S OPERA HOUSE.—Wyman.—This prince of magicians will hold forth at Sanford's Opera House this evening. Without detracting from any of his contemporary magicians, we think Wyman the liveliest of them all. He has more compassionateness, more witniness and mirth-provokateness than any other living professor of the black art. He gives another performance this evening, and we advise all fond of the marvellous to be on hand.

DEOLINED.—Some few days since our townsman, Mr. Alexander Koster, in a commendable spirit of patriotism and liberality, offered to the committee of arrangements of the First City Zouaves, a fine large ox, which he proposed to have slaughtered and roasted for a grand public feast on the 4th of July. The committee, however, while fully appreciating the gift, upon consultation with the sub-committees of the military and fire departments, very politely declined the liberal offer in a letter, of which the following is a copy:

HARRISBURG, July 1st, 1862. A. KOSTER, Dear Sir:—Your very liberal offer of an ox for a roast is duly appreciated, and would have been accepted in the spirit in which it was tendered, but on consultation with the committees representing the military and fire departments, we feared that the time for preparation was too short to get up a collation that would do you and ourselves that justice which the occasion demanded.

Your respectfully, D. L. JAUSS, Chairman.

W. T. BISHOP, Jr., Secretary of the Committee of Arrangements.

THE FOURTH OF JULY.—Route of the Procession.—The First City Zouaves have completed their arrangements for the celebration of the Anniversary of American Independence. The leading feature in the observance of the day will be the parade of the military, firemen, and such societies as may report themselves for that purpose. Gen. Wm. H. Miller has been appointed Chief Marshal for the occasion. The following is the route of the procession:

The procession will form on Market street, right resting on Second, counter-march out Market to Third, down Third to Chestnut, down Chestnut to Second, down Second to Paxton, up Paxton to Front, up Front to Chestnut, out Chestnut to Second, up Second to Market, out Market to Fourth, up Fourth to Walnut, down Walnut to Third, up Third to North, out North to Pennsylvania Avenue, up Pennsylvania Avenue to Cumberland street, up Cumberland to Ridge Road, down Ridge Road to North street, down North to Second, down Second to Locust, up Locust to Third, down Third to Market, where the parade will be dismissed.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.—A lady of Lancaster makes a suggestion to the editors of the Express of that city, in reference to a pleasant manner in which the approaching Fourth of July could be observed, that is equally applicable to this city. She proposes that all ladies whose husbands or fathers, or brothers are not in the army, should visit the families of soldiers whose circumstances are limited, in their immediate neighborhood, and contribute some article of luxury, or sufficient change to purchase something, if, as the lady remarks, it is only six cents to purchase a saucer of ice cream, and thus enable them to enjoy the Fourth with the rest of us. Should this suggestion be generally adopted, what pleasant words of cheer and encouragement would be conveyed to our brave boys now fighting for our glorious Union, and enduring thousand and one hardships incident to camp life. Let it be carried out by all means and on the most liberal scale; too, and we can retire to our slumbers at the close of the day with the consciousness that we aided others in making their anniversary as pleasant a one as it was to us.

THE SOLDIERS of the war of 1812 will meet at Brant's Hall on Friday, July 4th, at 9 o'clock A. M., and elect officers of the association for the ensuing year.

SALUTES ON THE FOURTH.—We understand that Adjutant General Russell has directed the firing of a national salute from capitol hill at sunrise, noon and sunset, on the Fourth of July.

FOURTH OF JULY.—Ice Cream.—The ladies who intend furnishing the sick and wounded soldiers with ice cream on the Fourth of July, are informed that Dr. Barr will loan them one or more of his new patent Ice Cream Freezers, which far excel any now in use, both in saving of labor and ice, and making good, smooth, rich ice cream.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—Hugh Kelley, James Oats, Michael Dougherty, Mary Dougherty and Susan Oats, were arrested yesterday afternoon by Officer Fleck, and taken before Alderman Kline, charged with committing an aggravated assault and battery upon one John Gilmore.—Upon a hearing of the case, the offence was directly fixed upon James Oats, who, in default of bail, was sent to prison, and the remainder of the party were discharged.

THE STANDARD AND PRESBYTERIAN EXPOSITION, published in Philadelphia, is one of our best religious weeklies. It is ably edited by the Rev. Dr. Mervin, and, we are glad to know, has a large and increasing circulation. Its amount of religious reading and general news, makes it a valuable paper for the family circle, while its bold and manly support of the National government, in putting down this rebellion, recommends it to every patriot. We hope it will receive many subscribers in Harrisburg.

TOB CUT OFF.—A bapfooted lad, aged about eight years, whose name we could not learn, while handling a patent washing machine in front of the White Hall tavern, Market street, this morning, accidentally displaced some part of the machinery, which caused the fly wheel to fall on his left foot, cutting the middle toe entirely off, and breaking the bones of one or two others. The lad bore the pain which ensued with remarkable fortitude, and seemed to be more concerned about replacing the fallen wheel than with the condition of his foot. He was carried to his residence, in the lower end of the city, where the wound was dressed by a physician.

WHY, asks an intelligent cotemporary, do pretty young ladies put their hands in the pockets of their cloaks and saccos when promenading, and thus incur the penalty of a vulgar habit, and a stoop too decided even to please the most fervent admirers of the "Grecian bend?"

Why do ladies who wear stylish Balmorean petticoats, or the even more chaste looking white ones with ample skirts and delicately worked borders, hold up their outer garments at so great a height, while those who are less luxuriously provided, keep theirs down with invincible prodigality? Why do stalwart young fellows, with shoulders worthy of the Farnes Hercules, stand loafing on the street corners complaining of "nothing to do," when Uncle Sam wants the help of all his stout-hearted, broad-shouldered kindred in putting out the fires of rebellion? Why do young men who never smelt gunpowder, and never mean to, wear undress military caps, and assume a military strut, as they parade the street? Why do other young men, who affect to be gentlemen (Heaven save the mark!) smoke cigars as they walk with ladies—can it be because they fancy they add to their attractions or reputation for refinement by so doing? Why do drinking saloons flout in gorgeous array and sport magnificent mirrors in front of the rubicund noses and inflamed visages of their motley victims? Why do undertakers wear an habitually solemn face, and modulate their tones, in the most commonplace conversation, even to the minor key of subdued and sympathizing grief? Why do apothecaries dress off their windows with show bottles of green, blue, and crimson, that are never touched except to restore the fading hues of their garish liquids? Why do dealers pretend to be "selling off at cost," and constantly replenish their stocks to again incur the like "tremendous sacrifices?"

Why, in fine, is it that "All things are not as they seem," and that men sacrifice so devotedly and unremittently to the false god, SEAM?

"SEXY."—Reader, have you ever noticed what a "big thing" style is, in this world?—Take, for instance, society in a country town, let's fancy looking stranger, with a big, galvanized watch and fob chain, come along, put on "style," wear good clothes, (no matter if he has cheated some poor tailor in the last town he stopped at, out of them,) and instantly he is a lion. Soft young ladies, their weak brain loaded with sentimental trash of "yaller kiver" literature, go into ecstasies over his "beautiful mustach," and lie awake at night, thinking over his charming ringlets. Managing mamma gives parties for him, and lay their plans to secure him for "Cordelia Angeline," or "Seraphina Floretta." Weak minded young men consider it an honor to pay his billiard and cocktail bills, and ape the style of his collar and drawl of his voice. Where, then, are the honest, upright, straightforward young mechanics and clerks of the town? Out of the ring altogether. Though they may have souls and intellects, by the side of which his would dwindle into the size of a mosquito's eye—though they may have good names beyond the shadow of reproach—though they may have been raised from childhood in the community, and no word can be said against their characters,—yet the "style," of the crack-brained pop transcends all, and in comparison with him, they dwindle into insignificance. He carries probably for a few weeks, or perhaps months, takes on big airs, wheedles the young ladies and their unsuspecting mamma, borrows all he can from the soft youths, and finally turns up missing, some fine morning, having forgotten to pay his hotel and other bills; and the next that is heard of the gentleman, is that he has been arrested in some city, as a swindler or a thief. Then the confiding mamma and weak minded daughters exclaim, "Dear me, what a pity! he was such a very stylish young man!" and disconsolate they wait for some other young man of "style" to turn up.

ATTENTION, MOUNT VERNON.—A stated meeting of the Mount Vernon Hook and Ladder company, No. 1, will be held at their truck house on Wednesday evening, at eight o'clock. All members are requested to be on hand to make arrangements for the coming Fourth of July.

NORTHERN CENTRAL RAILWAY TIDE WATER CONNECTION.—In the first branch of the city council of Baltimore last evening, a communication was received from the Mayor, enclosing a memorial from the president of the Northern Central Railway Company, A. B. Warford, Esq., of this city, which says: "The legislation of the city on the subject of the extension to tide-water of the Northern Central railway presents difficulties which need for their removal the concurrent action of the municipal authorities and the company; and as the company desires to prosecute that work with as little delay as possible, it asks the attention of the council to the subject, with a view to such further legislation as may be thought necessary."

THE GROCERS AND THE FOURTH.—We are glad to learn that the principal grocers of the city have signed an agreement to close their respective places of business from the night of the 3d inst. until the morning of the 5th. This is an excellent movement, and we hope all the other business establishments will follow the example. Let everybody join in a good old-fashioned celebration of our natal day of freedom.

RETURNED.—Dr. J. W. Moffitt having returned from his tour west of the Alleghenies, can be found at his office No. 25 North Second street, adjoining the "Buehler House," for those desiring his professional services. Having made some valuable acquisitions in the operative and mechanical departments of Dentistry, he is fully prepared to perform all operations entrusted to him in a manner satisfactory and complete.

Thankful for the confidence heretofore reposed in him, and being determined to excel in all branches of his profession he hopes to merit a continuance of the same.

A MODEL ESTABLISHMENT.—Among the many improvements lately made in our city, to which we can point with pride as an evidence of prosperity and a determination on the part of our business men, no longer to remain behind the "light house," is the completion of Eby & Kunkle's large brick building at the corner of Market and Fifth streets, which is alike creditable to the owners and ornamental to that part of our city.

The building is not only one of the largest, devoted to the grocery business, outside of New York, but the stock challenges competition.—Without going into detail, we may safely say that the firm keep on hand everything usually kept in a grocery store, (liquors excepted,) and that they sell at very small profits. Their clerks are civil and accommodating, and have strict instructions under no circumstances whatever to misrepresent or take advantage of any customer. A general invitation is extended to the public to visit the new building and examine the extensive stock, whether they purchase or not.

RICHMOND.—The public mind for the last forty-eight hours has been in the position of a man that has been visited by a fortune. While there is no doubt of the fortune, it is not yet in his possession; in regard to Richmond, the success of our army for the last two days, and the advice of advantages gained, makes the capture of Richmond certain, and when the fourth of July shall have arrived, we will again rally the magna charta of human freedom and continue to purchase our dry goods at the cheap store of Ulrich & Bowman, South East corner of Front and Market streets.

$5000 WORTH OF NEW GOODS!—400 pair of white dress suits, at 25, 37, 50, 60, and 75 cents; 1000 Ladies' collars, at 10, 20, 30, up to 75 cents. Extra bargains! 500 new hoop skirts for 60, 62 and 75 cents, up to $2.50, cheapest in town; the largest assortment of low priced dress goods—all prices. 100 pieces white brilliants at 12 1/2 cents; some at 15 to 18 cents; 50 dozen of shirt breasts at 12 1/2 cents, 25 and 37 cents, extra cheap. 200 dozen of Ladies' white stockings, at 12 1/2 and 16 cents. A magnificent assortment of embroidered cambric band, and cambric edging and insertings, at all prices. 50 dozen of linen pocket kerchiefs, at 12 1/2 cents; also, hemstitched kerchiefs. Wholesale buyers we would invite to our large stock; and as we have a buyer in New York, who buys only at the large auctions. We promise to sell goods at city prices.

We also received 10 dozen real German linen pocket handkerchiefs for gentlemen—a very scarce article; also 20 pieces of white and colored straw matting, and 6 pieces of new carpets from auction; 6 pieces of black silk at all prices.

EDGEHILL SCHOOL. PRINCETON, N. J. Rev. JAMES P. HUGHES, A. M., } Principals. Rev. THOS. W. CATTALL, A. M., } This Institution, founded in 1829, is designed to prepare boys thoroughly for college or for a business life. The buildings are large and commodious, and the grounds embrace more than thirteen acres. Both of the Principals devote their whole time to the school, and in the department of instruction by competent teachers. The military instruction and drill, under the charge of an experienced instructor, is arranged so as not to interfere with the regular studies, occupying a part of the time appropriated to exercise and recreation. Pupils are received at any time and charged only from the date of admission. Tuition—$125 per session of five months. For circulars, or further information, address either of the Principals. Reference is also made to the Rev. Mr. Cattall, Harrisburg.

From the Rev. Dr. Hoage and the Rev. Dr. McGill, Professors in the Theological Seminary, Princeton, N. J. I have for several years been intimately acquainted with the Rev. Thomas W. Cattall. He has had charge of two of my sons, and I can safely say I have never known a man in whose fidelity and devotion to his pupils, I have equal confidence. He is a good scholar and a successful teacher. I know no one who has a greater facility in gaining the love of his scholars or who exerts over them a better influence. I am aware of the responsibility in speaking in such terms of commendation of a teacher, but I am satisfied I am doing nothing but what fidelity and devotion to his man, in using the language which I have here employed. CHARLES HODGE.

I have great confidence in the Rev. Jas. P. Hughes, as a teacher, both in his aptness to give instruction, and his tact in the administration of discipline. I have had two sons under his care, and from the most extensive observation I am free to recommend the Edgehill school as one of safe and thorough instruction. je14 dtt ALEXANDER T. M'GILL.
