A PRIVATE LETTER FROM CAPT. ISAAC S. WATERBURY, received in this city on Saturday, men in his command as being in good health,

EN ROUTE FOR M'CLELLAN'S ARMY.-Gen. E. Washington. Gen. M. is a man of small stature, elderly in appearance, his hair sprinkled with gray, wiry and compact frame, and bears upon his swarthy features unmistakable evidences of an iron will and indomitable courage.

FLAG RAISING AT THE DAUPHIN COUNTY POOR HOUSE MILL. - Our country friends in the neighinthood of the Dauphin county poor house had inta patriotic time on Friday, the occasion less the raising of a large and handsome american flag over the poor house mill by the miller, Mr. Peck, at whose expense it was purdisid. A large number of country people were present, and the assemblage was organized by the appointment of Joshua Elder, Esq. president, Peter Bishop, Jr., and John Peipher, vice presidents, and John Moyer, Secretary. Speeches were made by Joshua Weistling, A. C. Smith. W. Ewing, and S D. Ingram, Esqs., of this city, and a good time generally prevailed. evening with a very beautiful display of fire works.
