HARRISBURG, PA. Tuesday Afternoon, July 8, 1862.

SICK AT BALTIMORE.—H. H. Lenhart of this county, attached to the 87th Pennsylvania regiment, is lying sick at one of the military hospitals in Baltimore.

IN TOWN.—Adjutant Cooper, of the One Hundred and First Pennsylvania, was in town this morning looking very much debilitated from long and active service in the field. The Adjutant participated in the battle at Fair Oaks.

METHODIST SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC.—The annual picnic of the Sunday school attached to the Methodist Episcopal Church of this city, will be held at the Derry Church, near Hummelstown, on Thursday next. Tickets can be purchased from the committee.

THE BUCKTAILS AT THE BATTLE OF FAIR OAKS.—Harry Davis, the artist, has immortalized the Pennsylvania Bucktails in a grand picture, representing the bloody battle of Fair Oaks, Va., intended as a part of his panorama of the great rebellion. The "boys" occupy a prominent position in the picture, as they did in the battle; and we have no doubt the picture will create as great sensation among spectators, as the rifles of the sharpshooters did among the rebels.

INCREASED ACTIVITY.—The recent proclamation of the Governor for more troops, has created quite an increased activity in the Executive and Adjutant General's departments of the State. In the latter office, the clerks are as busy as nailers, making out forms and other documents necessary in the recruiting business. From the manner in which teachers of troops are beginning to be received, there is very little doubt but that the additional quota asked for from this State, will be filled in less than a month.

COL. SAM W. BLACK'S AVENGEURS.—James Onslow, of Pittsburg, a brother "chip" attached to the Quartermaster's department of Col. Black's regiment passed through here this morning from Pittsburg on route for Washington city, where he goes to receive the necessary papers to raise a military company to be styled the Col. S. W. Black's Avengers. Jim has already seen fight, and we have no doubt that if he is commissioned a captain he will do all he can to avenge the man to whom he has been so devotedly attached.

FROM SOUTH CAROLINA.—An officer of the Signal Corps attached to the army under Gen. Hunter, arrived in town last week, and gives a very cheerful account of matters and things in South Carolina. The men, so far from being dispirited by the recent repulse at James Island, are anxious to be led against the hot-bed of treason, Charleston, itself. As an evidence of the many shifts resorted to by the rebels, to overcome the scarcity of munitions of war, the officer states that in the engagement on James Island the rebels actually fired old bottles and other miscellaneous missiles from their cannon.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—At a stated meeting of the Citizen Fire Company, held in their hall last evening, the following gentlemen were elected to fill the respective offices for the ensuing term: President—Dr. C. Seller. Vice President—C. M. Shell. Secretary—Markus Cash. Assistant Secretary—Jacob Croft. Treasurer—David Croft. Chief Engineer—George C. Fager. Assistant Engineer—Jacob Flegel. Captain of Hose—Joseph Sheets. House Committee—C. Eckert, E. W. Shell, Geo. Davis. Directors—George Bailey, Henry Swivel, E. W. Shell, Herman Frisch, Conrad Eckert, Geo. W. Davis, John Stahl, Joseph Montgomery, C. M. Shell. After the election of officers, a resolution was offered by Mr. Joseph Montgomery and passed, that a picnic, for the benefit of the company, be held at Hrehnen's woods on the 17th of the present month.

RICH SOME OF THE CANAL.—A few days ago several boats tied up for the night along the berm bank of the canal, near Highspire, this county, when the boatmen in accordance with that traditional custom, rendered famous by the intensely pointed line, commencing, "Re, ro the boatman ro" kept up the night in a series of innocent sports and amusement, to the great terror of the tenants of one or two farm houses in the vicinity, who imagined all, possible hard things of "ye jolly voyagers on ye raging canal." Towards midnight, while the revelry ran high, an individual, pretty well intoxicated, suddenly made his appearance, and commenced shouting for "Jeff Davis and the Southern Confederacy." This stirred up quite a breeze among the boatmen, and they cried out "hang the d—d secessionist!" In less than five minutes the stranger found himself pumoned by a score of strong arms, his hands were tied behind him, his hat knocked over his eyes in imitation of the traditional "black cap," and a rope was fastened under his arm pits. The rope was then drawn over a limb of an adjoining tree, the boys took hold and pulled "with a will," and in a trice "secesh" found himself dancing on nothing with the bottom knocked out. He was terribly frightened, and thought surely that his end had come. He kicked, struggled, raved, blasphemed and prayed, but all to no purpose. "Secesh" was asked if he would take the oath of allegiance, and answered in the affirmative. An old edition of "Sinbad the Sailor," was then produced, and he was made (still dangling at the end of the rope) to subscribe to the following terrible oath: "I do solemnly swear to defend the Constitution of the United States, and adjure Satan and Jeff Davis, with all their works. I do solemnly swear to drink no more fighting gin for the next six months, under penalty of being hung up by the heels, tarred, feathered and physicked." The poor fellow was then suffered to depart, which he was very glad to do, terribly nervous and frightened at the dangers through which he had passed.

COL. SIMMONS.—We find the following in today's New York Tribune: Col. Seneca G. Simmons, of the 5th Pennsylvania volunteers, Major in the 4th regiment Infantry, in the battle of Monday, commanded the 1st brigade, M'Call's division. He was shot through the breast, mortally, while on the advance, leading the brigade in the charge, was seen to fall.—The enemy got possession of his body.

CAPT. WATERBURY'S COMPANY.—A letter has been received in this city from Mr. William B. Irvine, of Captain Waterbury's company, post marked Edisto Island, S. C., which gives a very favorable account of the health and morale of that company, and the regiment to which it is attached, (Col. White's). The writer states that there has not been a death in the regiment for six months, and very little sickness. The regiment was not with the expedition to James Island, having been left to do guard duty on Edisto Island.

POLICE.—Mrs. M'Manus, an elderly Irish lady, with a face like the full moon, and a corporation weighing something less than a ton, was arrested last evening by officer Campbell for prolonging the Fourth of July to an unreasonable period—in other words, for being noisy and drunk. The old lady was shoeless, stockingless and bonnetless, and created quite a stir in the streets through which she passed, in company with the officer, to the lock-up, where she passed the night. She had a hearing before the mayor this morning, and was discharged upon paying the fine, in such cases made and provided.

MEETING OF THE STATE MEDICAL BOARD.—The demand for medical officers to fill vacancies occurring in Pennsylvania regiments now in the field, as well as those about to be recruited, has again called for the assembling of the State Medical Board to recommend to the Governor suitable candidates for appointment to this responsible post. At a time when the lives of so many of our citizens depend, in a great measure, upon the skill of the regimental surgeons, every care is necessary to see that incompetent men are not brought forward, and the usefulness of the labors of our State Board is apparent in the collection to-day of a fine body of young intelligent active physicians from all the counties of the State.

The Board is composed of Drs. Wilmer Worthington, of Chester county; Wm. Watson, of Bedford county; J. P. Wilson, of Centre county; and Surgeon General Henry H. Smith, of Philadelphia. About sixty candidates were present, and were busily engaged, when we looked in, in writing their answers to the printed questions proposed by the Board. After carefully inspecting and comparing the answers, the Board will present a "Merit Roll" to the Governor, from which all appointments will be made, and the successful candidate hereafter notified of the result. The action of the Board has proved of great service to our soldiers, who feel that in risking their lives for the maintenance of our institutions, their State is not forgetful of their welfare.

PUMPS VS. HYDRANTS.—The warm weather has created quite a run on the town pumps, and the consumption of the oil and sparkling beverage is enormous. There are but very few of these relics of "lang syne" remaining with us, and we are glad to see that they are regarded by the people in their respective neighborhoods with proper respect and veneration.

Spiller I spare that pump! Touch not its liquid spot; In youth it quenched my thirst, And is not yet played out. 'Twas my forefather's hand That placed thee in this spot; Then, spiller, let it stand—Its waters harm thee not. That never-failing pump, Whose waters bless the town, That gushes pure and free—Why wouldst thou take it down? City fathers make no laws To fill up these old wells; Oh! spare the city pumps! For in them life, health, dwells.

When but a poor school boy I seized thy ladle dear, In all its dripping joy, And quaffed thy waters clear, Here my mother washed my face, And scrubbed my little hand; Forgive this foolish treat, But let that old pump stand. When hydrants pour forth mud From reservoirs impure, And good wells silt and fret Such evils to endure—To thee we turn, old pump, For water cool and clear. When clay streams fill the plugs, Then thou art still more dear. To these bright buckets bring And pitchers, tin-cups, send. Drink from thy crystal spring, The poor man's only friend. Dear pump! thou shalt remain On this old watering spot, Altho' 'tis very plain Improvement loves thee not.

THE PATRIOTS and attendants of hospital, No. 2, take this opportunity to express their thanks to lady members of Locust Street Methodist Church for their visit to our hospital on the last 4th of July, for the delicacies which they distributed among us—substantial, demonstrative proofs of their devotion to the cause of the country, and for the patriotic songs they sang, in which, as they sang them, we felt we embodied those principles upon which as soldiers we are acting, and for which we feel that we ought to be willing even to lay down our lives. Likewise to their pastor, who, as their representative, addressed us in language which called to remembrance the associations of home, the past with all its joys and sorrows, sunshine and darkness, of friends, the golden links of whose love now seem forever broken, which reminded us of the responsibility resting upon us at the present time, in the present crisis, and which exhorted us not only to fight the battles of our country, but also those of the Cross. Our hearts bent down, and we felt truly that "Tis not the whole of life to live, Nor all of death to die." We also feel sincerely grateful to those ladies who brought us an abundant supply of lemons, oranges and pine apples. While we recollect that they have given their husbands to do battle for the country, we pray that always they may find kind friends ready to do by them as their ladies have done by us. CAMP CURTIN, July, 1862.

Y. M. C. A.—The regular monthly meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held this (Tuesday) evening at eight o'clock, p. m. A Punctual attendance is requested.

NOT KILLED.—The many friends of Capt. J. D. Boynton, of Middletown, will be glad to learn that the report of his being killed in one of the recent battles before Richmond, is altogether premature. A member of his company direct from the army, passed through here yesterday, and reports that when he left the camp the captain was in good health and most excellent spirits.

EXCURSION TO COLD SPRINGS.—Our citizens who desire to exchange the dust and heat of our pent-up city for a few hours enjoyment in "a boundless contiguity of shade," replete with pure mountain breezes, and ice cold spring water, should make it a point to attend the annual Harvest Home celebration at Cold Springs, on Thursday, July 17. Speeches are to be made, a fine string band will be in attendance, and a good social time generally is expected. See advertisement.

A MODEST ESTABLISHMENT.—Among the many improvements lately made in our city, to which we can point with pride as an evidence of prosperity and as a determination on the part of our business men, no longer to remain behind the "light house," is the completion of Ely & Kunkle's large brick building at the corner of Market and Fifth streets, which is alike creditable to the owners and ornamental to that part of our city.

The building is not only one of the largest, devoted to the grocery business, outside of New York, but the stock challenges competition.—Without going into detail, we may safely say that the firm keep on hand everything usually kept in a grocery store, (liquors excepted), and that they sell at very small profits. Their clerks are civil and accommodating, and have strict instructions under no circumstances whatever to misrepresent or take advantage of any customer. A general invitation is extended to the public to visit the new building and examine the extensive stock, whether they purchase or not.

A DREAM.—It happened on this hot day, as I sat in my chair, The hands were gone to dinner and no other person there, When sleep with all its watching powers, Did o'er my optics flow, And while I slept I dreamed the dream, That I'll relate below. I dreamed that General McClellan's army had been reinforced, that Congress had dropped the negro question, and would now make laws for white men; that it was a pleasant thing to be a Democrat, and a member of the late convention; that England was not making much of Mr. Trala; and finally waking up with my woolen clothes all saturated with sweat, and determined to go at once and purchase a summer suit of linen goods at the cheap dry-goods house of Ulrich & Bowman. jyl8-dt

In organizing the quota required from Pennsylvania under the late call of the President of the United States.

I. Troops will be accepted by squads or companies, as hereinafter indicated, and will, as rapidly as possible, be organized into companies and regiments. II. Persons proposing to organize companies will be accepted under the following provisions, and not otherwise, viz: To be commissioned a Captain, the applicant must have furnished forty (40) or more men who have passed Surgeon's examination, and been mustered into the United States service. To be commissioned a First Lieutenant, from twenty-five (25) to forty (40) men, must have been furnished as above. To be commissioned a Second Lieutenant, from fifteen (15) to twenty-five (25) men must have been furnished as above.

III. Transportation to the Central Depot, Camp Curtin, will be furnished, on application in person, or by mail, to Capt. R. I. Dodge, U. S. A., Superintendent of Volunteer Recruiting Service for Pennsylvania, at Harrisburg, to whom report must be made.

IV. Actual and necessary expenses for boarding and lodging of troops raised under this order, will be paid by the United States disbursing officer, at this post, for a period not exceeding twenty days, at a rate not exceeding forty cents per day for each man mustered into the service of the United States, on the affidavit of the officer furnishing the men supported by the receipts of the party to whom the money was paid.

V. Squads will be organized into companies at Camp Curtin as rapidly as possible—the companies formed into regiments—field officers appointed and commissioned by the Governor, and the regiments immediately placed at the disposal of the War Department.

VI. As a reward for meritorious conduct, and also to secure valuable military experience, appointments of field officers will be made, except under peculiar circumstances, from men now in active service. By order of A. G. CURTIN, Governor and Commander in Chief.

A. L. RUSSELL, Adjutant General. The War Department has issued the following orders:

WASHINGTON, D. C. June 21, 1862. Pursuant to a joint resolution of Congress to encourage enlistments in the regular army and volunteer forces, it is Ordered, That a premium of two dollars shall be paid for each accepted recruit that volunteers for three years or during the war, and every soldier who hereafter enlists, either in the regular army or the volunteer, for three years or during the war, may receive his first months pay in advance, upon the mustering of his company into the service of the United States, or after he shall have been mustered into, and joined a regiment already in the service. This order will be transmitted to Governors of States and recruiting officers. (Signed) EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

WASHINGTON, D. C. July 2, 1862. Ordered, That out of the appropriation for collecting, organizing and drilling volunteers, there shall be paid, in advance to each recruit for three years or during the war, the sum of twenty-five dollars, being one-fourth the amount of bounty allowed by law—such payment to be made upon the mustering of the regiment, to which such recruit belongs, into the service of the United States. (Signed) EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

Each new recruit will thus receive one month's pay in advance, immediately on his muster into the service of the United States, and joining a regiment already in the field—or, if enlisted for a new regiment, on the mustering of his company into the service of the United States. Each recruit will also receive a bounty of twenty-five dollars in advance, to be paid in like manner as his one month's advanced pay. A. L. RUSSELL, Adjutant General Pennsylvania. jyl7-dt

THE GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION. An Appeal to the Patriotism of the People.

PENNSYLVANIA, SS: In the name and by the authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, ANDREW G. CURTIN, Governor of said Commonwealth: A PROCLAMATION.

More men are required for the suppression of the Rebellion. Our regiments in the field are to be recruited to their original strength, and in addition new regiments are to be formed. Pennsylvania has hitherto done her duty to the country. Her freemen are again called on to volunteer in her defence, that the blood of her sons who have already fallen, may not have been shed in vain, and that we may hand down to our posterity the blessings of Union and civil and political liberty, which we derived from our fathers.

The number of men now required, and the regulations for the enlistment, will be made known forthwith in General Orders. Meanwhile the men of Pennsylvania will hold themselves in readiness for prompt compliance with the necessary demand upon their gallant and patriotic spirit.

Our noble Commonwealth has never yet faltered, and must stand firm now when her honor and everything that is dear to her are at stake.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this fourth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and of the Commonwealth the eighty-seventh. A. G. CURTIN, By the Governor, ELI SLIFER, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

EDGEHILL SCHOOL. PRINCETON, N. J.

Rev. JAMES P. HUGHES, A. M., { Principals. Rev. THOS. W. CATTILL, A. M., {

This Institution, founded in 1829, is designed to prepare boys thoroughly for college, and the grounds embrace more than thirteen acres. Both of the Principals devote to their whole time to the school, aided in the department of instruction by competent teachers.

The military instruction and drill, under the charge of an experienced instructor, is arranged so as not to interfere with the regular studies, occupying a part of the time appropriated to exercise and recreation. Pupils are not allowed to receive any charge only from the date of admission. Tuition—$125.00 per session of five months.

For circulars, or further information, address either of the Principals. A circular is also mailed to the Rev. Mr. Cattill, Harrisburg.

From the Rev. Dr. Hedge and the Rev. Dr. McGill, Professors in the Theological Seminary, Princeton, N. J. I have for several years been intimately acquainted with the Rev. Thomas W. Cattill. He has had charge of two of my sons, and I can safely say I have never known a day care in whose ability and devotion to his pupils, I have equal confidence. He is a good scholar and a successful teacher. I know no one who has a greater facility in getting the minds of his scholars or who exerts over them a better influence.

I am aware of the responsibility in speaking in such terms of commendation of a teacher, but I am so justified in doing so, and from the most careful observation I am free to commend the Discipline school as one of safe and thorough instruction. I have been employed.

I have great confidence in the Rev. Jas. P. Hughes, as a teacher, both in his aptness to give instruction, and his tact in the administration of discipline. I have had two sons under his care, and from the most careful observation I am free to commend the Discipline school as one of safe and thorough instruction. ALEXANDER T. GOULD, jyl4-dt
