THE BUCKTALIS AT THE BATTLE OF FAIR OAKS. Harry Davis, the artist, has imortalized the ioni yivania Bucktails in a grand picture, regreenting the bloody battle of Fair Oaks, Va. intended as a tof his panorama of the great abellion. The "boys" occupy a prominent petition in the picture, as they did in the batthe and we have no doubt the picture will cretilles of the sharpshooters did among the re-

INCREASED ACTIVITY.—The recent proclamation of the Governor for more troops, has created quite king out forms and other documents neceshis State, will be filled in less than a month.

COL. SAM W. BLACK'S AVENGERS .- James Eack's regiment passed through there yesterday mining from Pittaburg en route for Washingthe col. S. W. Black's Avengers. Jim has almy seen fight, and we have no doubt that so devoted iv attached:

FROM SOUTH CAROLINA. -- An officer of the Signal Corps attached to the army under Gen. Hunter, arrived in town last week, and gives a very cheerful account of matters and things in South Carolina. The nien, so far from being dispirited by the recent repulses at James Island, are anxious to be led against the hot-bed of treason, Charleston, Itself. As an evidence of the many shifts resorted to by the rebels, to overcome the scarcity of munitions of war, the officer states that in the engagement on James bland the rebels actually fired old bottles and her miscellaneous missles from their cannon

ELECTION OF OFFICERS .- At a stated meeting of the Citizen Fire Company, held in their hall Monday evening, the following gentlemen were elected to fill the respective offices for the en-

After the election of officers, a resolution was Mered by Mr. Joseph Montgomery and passed, that a pic-nic, for the benefit of the company, held at Hrehnlen's woods on the 17th of the present month.

RICH SCENE ON THE CANAL, -A few days ago Everal boats tied up for the night along the term bank of the canal, near Highspire, this onnty, when the boatmen in accordance with that traditionary custom, rendered famous by the intensely pointed lines, commencing,

"Re, ro the boatman ro" apt up the night in a series of innocent sports amusement, to the great terror of the tenall of one or two farm houses in the vicinity, h imagined all possible hard things of "ye Towards royagers on ye raging canal." Towards midnight, while the revelry ran high, an indidual, pretty well intoxicated, suddenly uide his appearance, and commenced shouting or "Jeff Davis and the Southern Confederacy." this stirred up quite a breeze among the boatmen, and they cried out it hang the d-d Secessionist!" In less than five minutes the stranger found himself pinioned by a score of the traditional "black cap," and a rope was "th all their works. I do solemnly swear to the no more fighting gin for the next six We also feel sincerly grateful to those ladies

Col. Simmons. - We find the following in resterday's New York Tribune: Col. Seneca G. the brigade in the charge, was seen to fall. The enemy got possession of his body.

CAPT. WATERBURY'S COMPANY.-A letter has been received in this city from Mr. William B. Irvin, of Captain Waterbury's company, post marked Edisto Island, S. C., which gives a very favorable account of the health and morale of that company, and the regiment to which it is attached, (Col., White's). The writer states that there has not been a death in the regiment for six months, and very little sickness. al pic-nic of the Sunday school attached to The regiment was not with the expedition to James Island, having been left to do guard duty on Edisto Island.

Police. - Mrs. M' Manus, an elderly Irish lady, with a face like the full moon, and a corporation weighing something less thon a ton, was arrested Monday evening by officer Campbell for prolonging the Fourth of July to an unreasonable period—in other words, for being noisy and drunk. The old lady was shoeless, stockingless and bonnetless, and created / quite a stir in the streets through which she passed, in company with the officer, to the lock-up, where she passed the night. She had a hearing beale as great sensation among spectators, as the fore the mayor yesterday morning, and was discharged upon paying the fine, in such cases nade and provided.

MEETING OF THE STATE MEDICAL BOARD.—The demand for medical officers to fill vacancies ocincreased activity in the Executive and Adju curring in Pennsylvania regiments now in the inititioneral's departments of the State. In the field, as well as those about to be recruited, has latter office, the clerks are as busy as nailers, again called for the assembling of the State Medical Board to recommend to the Governor my in the recruiting business. From the suitable candidates for appointment to this renuner in which tenders of troops are begin-sponsible post. At a time when the lives of so ing to be received, there is very little doubt many of our citizens depend, in a great meait that the additional quota asked for from sure, upon the skill of the regimental surgeons, every care is necessary to see that incompetent men are not brought forward, and the usefulness of the labors of our State Board is appaonelow, of Pittsburg, a brother "chip" at sent in the collection yesterday of a fine body of taked to the Quarmaster's department of Col. young intelligent, active physicians from all the counties of the State.

The Board is composed of Drs. Wilmer Worthmany, where he goes to receive the necessary ington, of Chester county; Wm. Watson, of part to raise a military company to be styled Bedford county; J. P. Wilson, of Centre county; and Surgeon General Henry H. Smith, of Philadelphia. About sixty candidates were present, Theis commissioned a captain he will do all and were busily engaged, when we looked in, he can to avenge the man to whom he has been in writing their answers to the printed questions proposed by the Board. After carefully inspecting and comparing the answers, the Board will present a "Merit Roll" to the Governor, from which all appointments will be ernor, from which all appointments will be low priced dress goods—all prices. 100 pieces made, and the successful candidate hereafter white brillants at 12½ cm. 5 some at 15 to 18 notified of the result. The action of the Board has proved of great service to our soldiers, who feel that in risking their lives for the maintenance of our institutions their State Land 16 cts. Pumps vs. Hydrants.—The warm weather has created quite a run on the town pumps, and the consumption of the col and sparking beverage is enormous. There are but very few of these relies of "lang syne" remaining with us, and we are glad to see that they are regarded by the people, in their respective neighborhoods with proper respect and veneration.

Spoiler I spare that pump! Touch not its liquid spout; In youth it quenched my thirst, And is not yet played out. Twas my forefather's hand That placed thee in this spot; Then, spoiler, let it stand-

That never-failing pump, Whose waters bless the town, That gushes pure and free-Why wouldst thou take it down? City fathers make no laws To fill up these old wells;
Oh! spare the city pumps!
For in them life, health, dwells.

When but a poor school boy I seized thy ladle dear, In all its dripping joy,
And quaffed thy waters clear. Here my mother washed my face, And scrubbed my little hand; Forgive this toolish tear, 30 dec. But let that old pump stand.

When hydrants pour forth mud From reservoirs impure, Aud good wives scold and fret Such evils to endure-To thee we turn, old pump, For water cool and clear.

When clay streams fill the plugs, Then thou art still more dear. To thee bright buckets bring And pitchers, tin-cups, se Drink from thy crystal spring, The poor man's only friend. Dear pump! thou shalt remain On this old watering spot, Altho' 'tis very plain Improvement loves thee not.

> A MODEL ESTABLISHMENT MAmong the man improvements lately made in our city, to which we can point with pride as an evidence of prosperity and as a determination on the part of our business men, no longer to remain behind the "light house," is the completion of Eby & Kunkle's large brick building at the corner of Market and Fifth streets, which is alike creditable to the owners and ornamental to that part of our city.

The building is not only one of the largest devoted to the grocery business, outside of New York, but the stock chillenges competion .-Without going into detail, we may safely say that the firm keep on hand everything usually kept in a grocery store, (liquors excepted,) and that they sell at very small profits. Their clerks are civil and accommodating, and have strict instructions under no circumstances what ever to misrepresent or take advantage of any customer - A general invitation is extended to the public to visit the new building and examine the extensive stock, whether they purchas

More men are required for the suppression of the Rebellion. Our regiments in the field are to be recruited to their original strength, and n addition new regiments are to be formed.

Pennsylvania has hitherto done her duty to the country. Her freemen are again called on to volunteer in her defence, that the blood of her sons who have already fallen, may not have been shed in traits, and that we may hand from our fathers.

The number of men now required, and the regulations for the enlistment, will be made known forthwith in General Orders. Meanwhile the men of Pennsylvania will hold them selves to readiness for prompt compliance with the necessary demand upon their gallant and faltered, and must stand firm now when he honor and everything that is dear to her are at eight hundred and sixty-two, and of the Commonwealth the eighty-seventh.
