

Daily Telegraph

HARRISBURG, PA. Friday Afternoon, July 11, 1862.

ATTENTION, ZOUAVES!—A special meeting of the Zouaves will be held at their armory at 7 o'clock this evening.

RUN OVER.—A lad named John Mason, aged about eight years, was run over by the Citizen Hose Carriage last evening in Walnut Street, but fortunately escaped with trifling injury.

THE LEBANON COURIER says that the "oath of allegiance" was administered to a few individuals in that borough on the fourth of July.

THE BOYS succeeded in getting up quite a respectable false alarm of fire about 8 o'clock last evening, which had the effect of drawing out our gallant fireman in full force, and creating an exciting time generally for a half an hour or more.

A RICHMOND paper says that "every Southern man is impressed with the duty that he must fight for the preservation of Southern institutions."

SCARCITY OF FARM HANDS.—There appears to be a scarcity of farm laborers in this county at present. Many farmers, although their grain is ready for cutting, are still hunting hands to assist them in harvesting.

RELIEF FOR THE WOUNDED SOLDIERS.—Rev. Dr. Watson and Dr. Wm. H. Marr, of Milton, Northumberland county, was in this city recently making arrangements for the proper distribution of a very handsome sum of money contributed by the citizens of that town to the relief of the sick and wounded soldiers in the hospitals at Camp Curtin.

THE CANAL.—The Huntingdon Globe says that the repairs are so far advanced that the canal from Hollidaysburg to Williamsburg Dam will be opened for the passage of boats about the 25th of this month.

DR. HALL'S COFFEE.—The well known editor of Hall's Journal of Health—a most excellent periodical, by the way—after giving a large number of substitutes for our favorite morning beverage, adds the following, which he has used for several years.

THE MEXICAN SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC at Derry Church, near Hummelstown, yesterday, was a very pleasant affair. The participants from this city numbered about four hundred.

PICTURE FOR THE BELIEF OF THE WOUNDED SOLDIERS.—A picnic will be given in Haehlen's woods, on Thursday, the 24th inst., under the auspices of a number of patriotic young men of our city.

RELIEF FOR THE SICK AND WOUNDED SOLDIERS. Mr. James B. Thompson, of our city, has left at this office the sum of five dollars for the relief of the sick and wounded Pennsylvania soldiers.

THE LANCASTER INQUIRER is the title of a new evening daily just started in Lancaster city by S. A. Wylee & Co. It presents a very creditable appearance, and evinces, also, considerable ability.

A BEAUTIFUL INCIDENT.—A Philadelphia paper noticing the arrival in that city of a number of wounded soldiers from Fortress Monroe, says that as they were being conveyed in vehicles along Vine street, towards one of the hospitals, a little girl, about ten years of age, coarsely attired, was seen to step out from the crowd.

THE BUILDING is not only one of the largest, devoted to the grocery business, outside of New York, but the stock challenges competition.

HARRISBURG, PA. Friday Afternoon, July 11, 1862.

WARNING.—All persons who are in the habit of depositing their garbage, carcasses, or decaying matter of any kind, on the open lot of Mrs. Foster in State street, next to my residence, are notified hereby to discontinue the same from this date.

A MODEL ESTABLISHMENT.—Among the many improvements lately made in our city, to which we can point with pride as an evidence of prosperity and as a determination on the part of our business men, no longer to remain behind the "light house," is the completion of Eby & Kunkle's large brick building at the corner of Market and Fifth streets, which is alike creditable to the owners and ornamental to that part of our city.
