HARRISBURG, PA. Monday Morning, July 14, 1862.

CAPT. McCONKEY, of General McCall's staff. arrived here on Saturday, on his way home. battles near Richmond, and received several severe wounds.

COMPORTS FOR DISABLED SOLDIERS .-- Amongst soldiers in the various military hospitals, none would be more acceptable than properly prepared elastic pads or cushions, designed to relieve pressure on sores or wounded surfaces .-For this purpose wool, of any quality, it is said, is the best substance.

THE "Union Canal Store" owned by our enone of the acknowledged institutions of Middletown, and commands an extensive patron age. The shelves of the establishment contain almost every desirable commodity, and being presided over by gentlemen, polite and affable in their deportment, the citizens of the place esteem it a pleasure to make purchases there.

yesterday over the Pennsylvania railroad .-They are all from Posen and Pommern, North Germany, and are on their way to differnt parts of the West. They looked rather rusty and travel worn, and complained of having been ninety days on sea. They were detained four days in New York, and apprehended a delay of at least a week in Chicago.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION. -The Republican State Convention meets in this city on 17th of the present mouth for the purpose of putting candidates for Auditor General and Surveyor General in nomination. The Convention promises to be very largely attended, and will attract a large number from the State besides thes regular delegation. We presume the Pennsylvania railroad will issue excursion tickets for the occasion, in which event the attendance will be large be; ond precedent.

TAKEN TO FORT DELAWARE .- The rebel guerrillas brought to this city last Saturday, from the Shenandoah Valley, Virginia, have been taken to Fort Delaware. Among the men-was a young man named Louis Cook, a son of Stephen Cook, a former citizen of Carlisle, who removed to Kentucky about 2 years ago. Cook Senior, when here, was a violent Breckenridge Democrat and sympathizer with Southern treason. The son was not old enough then to have any decided opinions, but the germ had been implanted in him, and only waited an oppor tunity for developement.

IMPORTANT ORDER-The recruiting Service. - By an order of Capt. Dodge, U. S. A., Superintendent of Recruiting Service in Pennsylvania, issued this morning, persons raising recruits under "Order No. 28, Headquarters, State of to the Recruiting Depot in this city; but will Cavalry obtained at the State Department: keep their men together until the number proposed to be raised is complete, or until the twenty days for which subsistence will be paid, has nearly clapsed.

Major, Thomas J. Jordan, Harrisburg. Second Major, Geo. R. Brown.

The above conditions being fulfilled, the officer will make his application for transportation directly to Capt. Dodge, in this city, in every case sending with such application the certificate of the prothonotary of the county, or where that cannot be obtained, of the nearest Postmaster, that the person applying for transportation is trustworthy, and has actually enrolled the number of men for which transportation is

SCARCITY OF SILVER. - Small silver change continues to be very scarce hereabouts, and where it is all gone to we cannot say. A year ago Spanish quarters were taboed. They were adrug at twenty cents valuation, and some of the storekeepers actually refused to take them. These Spanish quarters are now avenged. Instead of being anubbed they are treated with berland county. serious consideration. So far from being at discount they are at a premium. Four of them are better than the best dollar bill we can name. Taking advantage of this state of things, the "bar-room setters" are exulting in free drinks. With a dollar note they can traverse the town, getting an imbibition at every bar-room, free of charge. "Pay next time" is the word; "we have no change," and the dollar bill therefore becomes a magician's wand, that conjures up gratuitous drinks at every corner. So great is the temporary scarcity of small change that even hickel cents are at a premium. How long this state of things is going to continue, remains for time to deter-

THE ANDERSON TROOP.—A correspondent writ ing from this celebrated troop under date of June 21st says: We are still lingering on the banks of the Tennessee as if loth to leave it.-There are several reasons for our lingering here, one of which is that the means for transporting troops, &c., across the river are very slender. It has to be done by ferryboats. Another and more weighty reason is that the river is too low to admit of the shipment of supplies to this point sufficient for our army to draw from for our march to another point where supplies can be had. It is difficult for even light draught boats to come up the shoals between this point and Eastport. They load only about fitteen tons. The railroad was opened a few days since from Corinth to Tuscumbia, and the intention was to ship supplies by rail--hauling six miles from Eastport to Inka by wagons but a few nights ago some rebel vandals (in citizens dress no doubt) tore up some track and serne county. threw the engine and cars off, disabling the engine considerably.

Corron.-A number of farmers and gardeninde, endence of the fractious Southern slaveo-The Captain participated in the recent bloody cracy, have been planting cotton seed in small quantities, and the result of the effort is being eagerly looked for. In a number of instances, whether for want of knowledge in its planting the articles needed by our sick and wounded or on account of the soil being unfavorable, or from other causes, yet the fact is patent that it resolutely refuses to sprout and come forth;

> THE RECENT ENGAGEMENT OF THE LOCHIEL the Lochiel Cavalry with the rebels near Tomkinsville, Ky. It will be seen that Major Thomas E. Jordan, at first reported killed, is now reported safe; and as no mention is made of Col. Williams, it is reasonable to suppose he was not in the engagement, being on service with a part of his fine regiment elsewhere.

> Capt. Harris, reported wounded, is a son of Geo. W. Harris, Esq., and formerly a practising physician in this city.

Lieut. Sullivan, noticed as being killed, was formerly a clerk in the Prothonotary's office of our county, under Wm. Mitchell, Esq., of whom he is a near relative.

Postage Stamps as a Currency.—The York Pennsylvanian in noticing the fact that petitions are in circulation praying the council of that borough to issue corporation notes of a less denomination than one dollar, recommends the use of postage stamps in transacting business. It says of stamps, the denominations are 1 cent, 3's, 5's, 10's, 12's, 24's and 30's. With these any sum between a penny and a dollar may be made. It is objected to shin plasters that they form too large a bulk for pocket room. The the recent engagement of four companies of certainty of his brilliant admission had been a matter of congratulation among his friends, and a long career of usefulness, and honor seemed about to onen to him in the profession of the law. But all this was generously sacrificed on the alter of the Union. Ambition, fortune, fame and repose in the comparatively quiet pursuit of a profession, lost all their charms in the presence of a men aced government, and in hearing of the threats of traitors clamoring for war. The clerk and the student became the soldier and the patriot, and thus he died in the service of his country.

There are many, very many in Harrieburg, who will never forget Aaron Sullivan. His memory will be eternal in some hearts-and his virtues, which begatsuch goodness and generosity for those around him, will long illuminate that memory with the blessings of those who have been blessed by his acquaintance.— History, and not journalism, must offer the proper meed of praise to men who die as Aaron Sullivan died.

We confess to a rustiness in our citing events of the rebellion are bringing into prominence localities that even the most accomplished geographers themselves never previously heard of. No matter, however, where the Marine, Fire and Inland Transportation, battle was fought, it was a most brilliant en gagement, and reflected the highest honor upon our brave Pennsylvania Bucktails. So far as regards the painting of the affair by our artist friend Davis, the matter of the location of the battle will in no wise lessen it in the estimation of the public as a masterly work of Capital and Assets...........$1,200 000

A MODEL ESTABLISHMENT .- Among the many improvements lately made in our city, to which we can point with pride as an evidence of pros perity and as a determination on the part of our business men, no longer to remain behind the "light house," is the completion of Eby & Kunkle's large brick building at the corner of Market and Fifth streets, which is alike creditable to the owners and ornamental to that part of our city.

The building is not only one of the largest devoted to the grocery business, outside of New York, but the stock chillenges competion .-Without going into detail, we may safely say that the firm keep on hand everything usually kept in a grocery store, (liquors excepted,) and that they sell at very small profits.
