HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The reading of yesterday's journal consumed half an hour. Various messages were received from the Senate concerning the passage of certain bills.

The Speaker signed numerous enrolled bills, and much confused prevailed. The bill to divide Michigan into two judicial districts was passed. Mr. STEVENS, (Pa.,) moved that the House concur in the request of the Senate to extend the adj urnment till two o'clock to-day. Mr. HOOPER, (Mass.) asked the consent of the House to introduce a bill providing that, on and after the 1st of August, all postage and other U.S. stamps shall be received for all dues less than five dollars, and which may be received in exchange for U.S. notes. No private corporation or bank shall make use of any token, note or device for less than one dol-lar, to circulate as money. Any person so ofprisonment for six months, or both, at the

Before he was informed of the passage of the resolution he had prepared the the bill does not touch the persons or property (loyal citizens, it is in this just and proper. It is startling to say that Congress can free the slaves of a State, but of rebels forfeit them slaves to the government, the question is whether they shall be declared free to slavery. He had no objection to the form-r course.

In reviewing the other parts of the bill he says : military commanders should seize and says: minuary commanders should be a use whatever real or personal property may be necessary for their commands in some way, preserving evidence of such appropriation.-He also thinks it proper that military commanders should employ as many persons of Arrican descent as may be used to advantage

A Patriotic Anthem. Rouse, ye sons of freemen. Of partiot sires of yore,

Who gave you charts of freedom, They purchased with their gore! Bold traitor arms assail,

O, consecrated cause ! Shall Bunker's deadly fights And shall Monmouth's bloody plains,

And fierce Saratoga's, too, Have been for us in vain ?

O'er Atlantic's water, Strong foes look threatening on. Shall jealous malice triumph, Shall traitor cause be won Arouse, men. O. rally! Hasten where your standard calls ! Honor to the brave who fight. But glory his who falls.

For right and duty firm, Sternly smite each traitor hand: Justice, law and liberty, And thou, God, bless our land.
