From the Rev. Dr. Hodge and the Rev. Dr. McGill, Professors in the Theological Seminary, Princeton, N. J. I have for several years been intimately acquainted with the Fev. Thomas W. Cattell. He has had charge of two of my sons, and I can safely say I have never known any one in whose fidelity and devotion to his pupils, I have equal confilence. He is a good scholar and a successful teacher. I know no one who has a greater facility in gaining the love of his scholars or who exerts over them a better influence.

I am aware of the responsibility in specking in such terms of commandation of a teacher; but I am satisfied I am doing nothing but simple justice to an excellent man, in using the language which I have here employed.

CHARLES HOPGF.

I have great confidence in the Fev. Jas. P. Hughes, as a teacher, both in his appeas to give instruction, and his tact in the administration of disciplina. I have had two sons under his care, and from the most careful observation I am free to recommend the fidgebill School as one of safe and thorough instruction. of safe and thorough instruction.
