HARRISBURG, PA. Monday Afternoon, July 21, 1862.

WAR MEETING.

A meeting of the citizens of Harrisburg will be held at the Court House this evening at half past seven o'clock, to take into consideration the condition of the Country in relation to the war, and to devise means for encouraging the enlistment of volunteers.

MANY CITIZENS.

MONDAY, July 21, 1862. FOUND.—In Third street this morning a small portfolio, containing a sum of money. The owner can have the same by calling at our office, and paying for this notice.

PATRIOTIC CONTRIBUTION.—The scholars of the Locust Street Methodist Episcopal Church have contributed the sum of thirty dollars to the relief of the sick and wounded soldiers.

THE solemn and impressive religious ceremonies devoted to the observance of the forty hours devotion, commenced in St. Patrick's (Catholic) church, yesterday morning. High mass was celebrated at six o'clock a. m., Rev. Pierre Maher, and other Reverend gentlemen from a distance officiating.

IN TOWN.—Surgeon J. O. Alleman, of the 8th Pennsylvania Reserves, is in town, direct from the army on the James river. The doctor has furnished us with an official list of the killed and wounded of his regiment in the recent battles before Richmond, which will appear hereafter.

POSTAGE STAMPS AS CURRENCY.—The news that Post Office stamps have been enacted into "currency" by Congress is received everywhere with satisfaction. It will give the coup de grace at once to any scheme for flooding the country with worthless "Shinplasters," and go far to remedy the present inconveniences arising from a scarcity of small change.

CRIMINAL NEGLECT.—This morning a little brooded boy, whose name we could not learn, while passing the corner of Third and Market streets, at Leamy's store, accidentally put his foot between two pieces of a broken flag stone, which caused him to trip violently to the ground, spraining his ankle and inflicting several severe cuts on his head. He was picked up by some of the by-standers and taken to his residence. This corner has been singularly neglected by the supervisor of the district in which it is situated, and we hope that this accident will be the means of hurrying him up to his duty in the premises.

THE SOLDIERS RELIEF PIC-NIC.—Our readers should not forget the picnic to be given in Haeblen's Woods, next Thursday, the 25th inst. The proceeds of which are to be applied to the benefit of the families of our gallant volunteers. The gentlemen who have undertaken the management of the affair have had considerable experience in such matters, and doubt not will get up something decidedly attractive. There will be choice edibles and refreshments, music for dancing, and any quantity of other things provided for the amusement of the guests. No improper characters will be permitted on the ground. Omnibuses will run during the day, from the Washington Hotel, corner of Sixth and Walnut streets. Tickets 25 cents.

MR. CATTELL, of the Third street Presbyterian Church, preached a most powerful and eloquent sermon yesterday morning, his theme being the "duty of the citizen and the duty of his country." He expounded in this the hour of their peril. He expounded clearly that no man fully discharged his duty in this crisis, unless he made some sacrifice. A sacrifice of time, of labor, of service, of fortune and of life, was the highest evidence of patriotism. These sacrifices must be made voluntarily. They must be made speedily, or freedom would be pronounced a failure by the governments of the world. They must be made in a Christian spirit, for sacrifices made in that spirit, failed of their object—of the approval of God, and consequently failed of their purpose. The sacrifices of those who were in the army, were strongly alluded to by the Reverend orator. He was not willing to accept the pecuniary aid which only shared the patriotic munificence of a man, as patriotic, but which was worthy to be thus regarded, as the sacrifice which put a man to some inconvenience—was the giving up of luxuries, the renunciation of pleasures, the retrenchment of extravagance, and the adoption of strict economy and actual deprivation, in order that the great cause might be aided, and the country rescued from rebellion. This was patriotic duty of the army—and those only who thus aided the general cause were doing their duty. And well may they do their duty, for without a Government—this Heaven-blessed and Heaven-directed Government, which guarantees liberty to all men acknowledging its sway—without this Government, to guard our rights, protect our property, and encourage personal interests to flourish, without such a power we would all be slaves. Let loyal men remember this, and begin to make their sacrifices. Let wealth be used to purchase strings, and pour out its influence in aid of victory. Let us make our sacrifices before the throne of God, that the stars of liberty may not be dug down and utterly destroyed.

Rev. Cattell has heretofore preached some exceedingly powerful sermons, but his effort yesterday is pronounced by all who were present at its delivery to have been a production at once abounding in fervid eloquence, stirring appeal, and practical common sense suggestions of duty and patriotism. He undoubtedly has the approval of God for his efforts in behalf of his bleeding country and imperilled freedom; and his conduct, so noble in all respects, deserves the commendation and respect of every man in this community. We understand that a number of our citizens are about to request Mr. Cattell to repeat the sermon on such occasion as he may himself indicate.

ARRESTED.—O. Barrett and Thomas C. MacDowell were arrested this morning on the charge of libel, and bound over to appear at the next Court of Quarter Sessions in the sum of five thousand dollars. General Boumfort appeared for them as surety. U. J. Jones was also arrested and held to bail on a charge of writing libellous articles for Barrett & MacDowell.

THE Pic-Nic of the Citizen Fire Company comes off at Haeblen's woods to-morrow, and from what we know of the managers, and their arrangements, we can safely say it will be one of the most delightful parties of the season.—Every accommodation will be afforded visitors to pass the day in a round of continued enjoyment, in the way of choice edibles and drinkables, ropes for "Copenhagen," swings, and last, though by no means the least important, a fine string band for worshippers at the shrine of the nimble-footed goddess Terpsichore. The utmost precaution has been taken to preserve order on the grounds. Omnibuses will run every fifteen minutes from Omit's State Capitol Hotel and Frisch's International Hotel.

RUSH FOR CENTS.—In Philadelphia the difficulty among small shopkeepers, provision dealers in the markets, and the citizens generally in making change, has caused an extraordinary demand for cents, and all that can be coined at the Mint are eagerly bought. The Ledger of that city says that recently on one of the days assigned for the exchange at the Mint of notes for United States Treasury Notes, the doors were besieged with an anxious crowd before seven o'clock, and by twelve o'clock, the hour set apart to commence the exchange, there were several hundred persons present, men, women and boys. Lines were formed of the men and boys on one side of the building, and of the women on the other, the former extending half a square along Juniper street. Many of the boys were provided with small baskets to carry the cents in. To preserve order a posse of the reserve police were in attendance, but their services were not required. Though many of those who desired cents stood in line for hours waiting an opportunity to get into the Mint, they had to go home without them, as the supply on hand was exhausted before half of the applicants were accommodated. We understand that two thousand dollars' worth of cents are coined daily at the Mint, making twelve thousand dollars' worth a week. About two-thirds of the coinage goes to New York, Boston, and other cities, leaving but four thousand dollars' worth a week for distribution in Philadelphia. But five dollars' worth are given to each applicant at the Mint, but it is said that boys are employed to stand in line, and by this means raise a large amount in cents.

THE CURRENCY QUESTION.—Below we present a correct copy of the bill passed during the last day of Congress, from which it will be observed that our business community may expect relief in a short period and that an abundance of small change will be forthcoming. Here is the bill: AN ACT to authorize payments in stamps and to provide circulation of notes of less denomination than one dollar.

As it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be and he is hereby directed to furnish the Assistant Treasurers and such designated depositories of the United States as may be by him selected, in such sums as he may deem expedient the postage and other stamps of the United States, to be exchanged by them, on application, for United States notes; and from and after the first day of August next such stamps shall be receivable in payment of all dues to the United States less than five dollars and shall be received in exchange for United States notes when presented to any Assistant Treasurer or any designated depository selected as aforesaid in sums not less than five dollars.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That from the first day of August, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, no private corporation, banking association, firm, or individual shall make, issue, circulate, or pay any note, check, memorandum, token, or other obligation, for a less sum than one dollar, intended to circulate as money or to be received or used in lieu of lawful money of the United States; and every person so offending shall, on conviction thereof in any district or circuit court of the United States, be punished by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by both, at the option of the court.

Approved, July 17, 1862. [For the Telegraph.] Who is He?—While standing on the platform at the Penna., Railroad depot, last Friday morning, my attention was called to a group of men near me, discussing the war question.—There stood a specimen of the genus homo, "gazing" away at a 2:40 rate, endeavoring to make several loyal men (his auditors) believe that in less than six months the "Southern Confederacy," would be recognized—Jeff & Co., would pay up us Northerners for our valor and determined opposition, "to the rebellion," &c., and the impudent rebel sympathizer even offered to wager a month's wages that it must be so; when a well known loyal citizen came up to the mark and said, "out with your money, lad, put down six month's wages if you dare!"

Secoh willed a degree or two—said he "hadn't" money about him, (ditto in the article of brains, observed a bystander,) but that he would raise the funds on pay-day." Our Union friend commenced to handle the ape pretty roughly, and he "slid." If the plump above referred to would have used the same traitorous language in the much-talked-of secessh city of Baltimore, the first Union man present would have felled his countenance, sure as fate.—The fellow is easily recognized; he wears a checkered cap, not quite large enough for a performing monkey—has a slight sprinkling of cat fur on his upper lip, and in other respects looks tolerably genteel. His impudence and audacity, however, will sooner or later lead him into trouble. Wonder why such a chivalrous buck is not better employed? It would be far more consistent and honorable to join a rebel band of cut throats or guerrillas engaged in the unholy cause of attempting to destroy our glorious country, than to hold a position given him by a loyal railroad company, where public and private interests, together with all other loyal citizens affairs, he would not doubt be ready and willing to betray into the hands of enemies of our common country. Let him be arrested at the first opportunity for treasonable conduct. He is not fit to walk the streets of so large a city as Harrisburg. U. JONES.

THE FIRST CITY ZOUAVES will hold a special meeting this evening at their armory, at 8 o'clock, to complete their arrangements for going into service. By order of the Captain.

HOPKINS FIRE COMPANY.—A meeting of the Hope fire company will be held this evening, to adopt measures in reference to the death of their comrade, Mr. Robert Simpson, a member of the "Keperer Feniches," who was killed in one of the recent battles before Richmond.

FIRE.—The alarm of fire about 1 o'clock yesterday morning, was occasioned by the partial burning of a small one story and half frame tenement house, in Third street above North, owned by Daniel Best. The house was unoccupied, a family having moved out only a few days previous. The fire was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary.

OUR GOOD WAY.—The New York Times says: "The editor of this paper was waited upon on Saturday by a gentleman desiring to have his attention directed to some recruiting officer whose honesty and energy could be properly warranted. He only needed to have these qualities verified to justify himself in placing $800 in the hands of the officer, to be used in procuring recruits for the Union army. It was our good fortune to be able to point out a perfectly safe trustee of this patriotic charity, and it will at once do its beneficial work."

In many places, if not all, this example might be copied to advantage. Now and then there is a recruiting officer so exactly fitted for the business, that a given sum in his hands would be more effective than twice or three times the amount laid out by any ordinary committee or municipal officer. There are many ways of expending money for procuring recruits which will commend themselves to the wise and prudent, and none can be pointed out for general employment to the exclusion of others. It is well for every one to think over in what method he can give his money to the best advantage, but he ought not to think too long, for any way is better than that.

ASSAULT SOLDIER.—The following circular comes from the Headquarters of the Army of the Potomac, and is supposed to be sanctioned by Gen. McClellan. It should have a wide circulation, and the sentiment of the country energetically brought to the aid of the purpose of shaming these stragglers back to their posts: HARRISON'S LANDING, Va., July 10.

The shameful desertion of officers and men from the ranks of their regiments, which has been going on since the battle of Williamsburg, and which has more than demoralized the army within the last fortnight, and should receive notice at the hands of the press. The press can do no better service to the military interests of the nation than to persevere in attacking men absent under pretense of sickness. Robust and slightly wounded officers and men are parading the streets of cities or loitering at home, who are absent without leave, and who are needed here. Make it detestable for any man able to do duty to be away from the army. Hold him up to the public view. Let him be shamed to his duty.

In the recent military movements, hordes of stragglers rushed to the hospital boats and escaped from the army, while thousands who could not get on the boats were only compelled to return to the ranks of their regiments by provost guards and by hunger. Make a residence at home disgraceful to these deserters. The local police should arrest every man improperly absent from his regiment. The writer of this can not give his name—the communication is anonymous—but the press can ascertain how far it is here said to be true, by looking around and seeing the numbers of returned officers and soldiers who are in every street, in every city, in every lane and in every village of the North. If every officer and soldier fit for duty would emerge from his hiding-place, and come to his regiment, the army would be much strengthened, and the cause for which we struggle materially served.

A MODEL ESTABLISHMENT.—Among the many improvements lately made in our city, to which we can point with pride as an evidence of prosperity and as a determination on the part of our business men, no longer to remain behind the "light house," is the completion of Eby & Knicker's large brick building at the corner of Market and Fifth streets, which is alike creditable to the owners and ornamental to that part of our city.

The building is not only one of the largest, devoted to the grocery business, outside of New York, but the stock challenges competition.—Without going into detail, we may safely say that the firm keep on hand everything usually kept in a grocery store, (liquor excepted,) and that they sell at very small profits. Their clerks are civil and accommodating, and have strict instructions under no circumstances whatever to misrepresent or take advantage of any customer. A general invitation is extended to the public to visit the new building and examine the extensive stock, whether they purchase or not.

AN OLD HARRISBURGER.—If there is one weakness, as Sam Weller would say, more than another that is prominent with us, it is the pleasure of meeting those of bygone days, whose warm connection brings to our recollection the happy moments of Old Lang Syne. In this connection we had the pleasure a few days since of meeting our former townman David Pool, Esq., who now resides in Washington City. Mr. Pool visits our city for the purpose of recruiting his somewhat impaired health, and perhaps to take advantage of the beautiful stock of dry goods at Ulrich & Bowman's.

Assurances having been received from many loyal and patriotic citizens, that the establishing of camps in well chosen localities, in other parts of the State, in connection with the Central Depot at Harrisburg, would greatly facilitate the raising of the State's quota, under the late call of the President, and would more thoroughly secure the formation of Regiments of people of the same name, we are, therefore, in all cases where it can be accomplished, for the reasons above set forth.
