I have for several years been intimately acquainted with the key. Thomas W. Cattell. He has had charge of two of my sons, and I can 'safely say I have never known sny one in whose fidelity and devotion to his pupils, I have equal confidence. He is a good scholar and a successful teacher. I know no one who has a greater facility in gaining the love of his scholars or who exerts over them a better influence

I am aware of the responsibility in specking in such terms of commendation of a teacher; but I am satisfied I am doing nothing but simple justice to an expellent man, in using the language which I have here employed.

CHARLES HODGE.

I have great confidence in the Rev. Jas. P. Hughes, as
