THE SOLDIERS RELIEF PIC-NIC. - Our readers should not forget the pic-nic to be given in Haehnlan's Woods, next Thursday, the 24th AN ACT to authorize payments in stamps and inst. The proceeds of which are to be applied to the benefit of the families of our gallant volunteers. The gentlemen who have undertaken the management of the affair have had msiderable experience in such matters, and doubt not will get up something decidedly stractive. There will be choice edibles and binkables, music for dancing, and any quanar of other things provided for the amusement of the guests. No improper characters will be permitted on the ground. Omnibuses will run during the day, from the Washington Batel, corner of Sixth and Walnut streets.

RUSH FOR CENTS .- In Philadelphia the difficulty among small shopkeepers, provision dealand wounded of his regiment in the recent ers in the markets, and the citizens generally battles before Richmond, which will appear in making change, has caused an extraordina ry demand for cents, and all that can be coined at the Mint are eagerly bought The Ledger of that city says that recently on one of the days assigned for the exchange at the Mint of nickles for United States Treasury Notes, the doors were besieged with an anxious crowd before seven o'clock, and by twelve o'clock, the hour set apart to commence the exchange, there were several hundred persons present, men, women and boys. Lines were formed of the men and boys on one side of the building, and WEEK ENDING, JULY 19, 1862.—Total Receipts of of the women on the other, the former extend-Live Stock of all kinds, for the week at Harris- ing half a square along Juniper street. To preserve order a poss of the reserve police were in attendance, but their services were not required. Though many of those who desired cents stood in line for hours waiting an opportunity to get into the Mint, they had to go home without them, as the supply on hand was exhausted before half of the applicants were accommodated. We understand that two thousand dollars' worth of twelve thousand dollars' worth a week. About two-thirds of the coinage goes to New York, two-thirds of the coinage goes to New York, Boston, and other cities, leaving but four thousand dollars' worth a week for distribution in Philadelphia. Who is Ha?-While standing on the platform at the Penna., Railroad depot, last Friday moning, my attention was called to a group of men near me, discussing the war question .-There stood a specimen of the genus homo, "gasing'' away at a 2:40 rate, endeavoring to make several loyal men (his auditors) believe that in less than six months time the "Southern Confederacy," would be recognized—Jeff & Co., would pay up us Northeners for our valor and determined opposition, "to the rebellion," &c., and the impudent rebel sympathizer even offered to wager a month's wages that it must be so; when a well known loyal citizen came up to the mark and said, "out with your money, lad, put down six month's wages if you dare ?"

Secesh wilted a degree or two-said he "hadn't money about him, (ditto in the article of brains, observed a bystander,) but that he at any time on compliance with the regula would raise the funds on pay-day." says:
"The editor of this paper was waited upon desiring to have on Saturday by a gentleman desiring to have his attention directed to some recruiting officer whose honesty and energy could be properly warranted. He only needed to have these qualities verified to justify himself in placing $300 in the hands of the officer, to be used in procuring recruits for the Union army. It was our good fortune to be able to point out a per-fectly safe trustee of this patriotic charity, and it will at once do its beneficial work."
