PEOPLE'S UNION STATE TICKET. AUDITOR GENERAL: THOMAS E. COCHRAN, of York County.

SURVEYOR GENERAL: WILLIAM S. ROSS, of Luzerne County.

HARRISBURG, PA. Friday Afternoon, July 25, 1862.

BOUNTY FOR VOLUNTEERS.

FIFTY DOLLARS BOUNTY OFFERED.—LANCASTER, July 23.—The County Commissioners to-day voted to pay a bounty of fifty dollars to each volunteer to the new regiment to be raised in Lancaster county.

WEST CHESTER, July 23.—The Commissioners of Chester county have authorized a loan of $30,000 to provide a bounty for the volunteers to fill the quota called for by the Governor's proclamation.

Will not our citizens take the matter in hand, and ask our County Commissioners to make similar appropriations to raise the bounty of $50 for the volunteers of this county. It is true that the citizens of this city can and will raise sufficient means to pay the desired bounty; but after all the proper way to raise the money would be to call on the Commissioners and ask them to appropriate the amount from the County fund.

THE JEFF DAVIS ORGAN, this morning, prints what it chooses to call "an opinion," in the shape of a characteristically mean and contemptible assault on the editor of the TELEGRAPH, from the pen of John B. Bratton the ostensible editor of the Carlisle Volunteer.

CAPT. MCCONKEY, one of the Aid-de-Camps of Gen. McCull, has been detailed for service as general recruiting officer for all the regiments of the Reserve Corps.

THE RESERVE IS NOW CONSIDERED THE MOST popular and desirable divisions in the army.—It has covered itself with glory, so that those entering any of the regiments attached to that Corps at once share the glory of those who are now recognized as leaders.

GOR HIS DUES.—J. J. Jacobs, the editor of the Ashland (O.) Union, who said that this war was "a d—d abolition war, and that Abe Lincoln was as much a traitor as Jeff Davis," recently got beautifully thrashed by a lieutenant in one of the Ohio companies.

CONGRESS, during the recent session, has appropriated about $800,000,000, including upwards of $560,000,000 for the army, and somewhat less than $100,000,000 for the navy.

THE KEYSTONE STATE IN ACTION.

Allegheny County Aroused for the Government.

20,000 FREEMEN IN COUNCIL.

"The Union Must and Shall be Preserved."

"The people of Allegheny county assembled in grand mass meeting yesterday, on the west commons, Allegheny city, for the purpose of reasserting their unalterable devotion to the National Government, devise ways and provide means to carry on the war for the Union to a successful conclusion.

Rev. Dr. Howard, spoke to the assembly in approval of the motives which had induced the people thus to gather in their might. He said that the people thus gathered in their might, and that the more appropriate and happy era when peace, and union, and the Constitution shall again cover the land.

To meet the necessary and patriotic call of the President, the quota required to be furnished by each of the loyal States will be fairly assigned. That which will fall upon Pennsylvania, my knowledge of her patriotism, of her devotion to the Constitution and laws, and of her promptness to respond to the call of her country, and to meet the necessary and patriotic call of the President, the quota required to be furnished by each of the loyal States will be fairly assigned.

As a Commonwealth we have never yet disappointed public expectation. You of Allegheny county have nobly come up to the mark. You have distinguished yourselves for the number and bravery of your soldiers. You are now asked by your government, which never deserts you, but devotedly protects and cherishes you, in this hour of its anxiety, to discharge a universal duty, and assume the honorable character, by your own good will, of volunteer soldiers—not conscripts, as in despotic governments—not drafted militia, detailed by a chance lottery—not substitutes, bought by the money of the wealthy—but volunteers. There all the honor lies, and there is the basis of your country's gratitude and care, generous protection and reward.

OUR COUNTRY'S CALL. BY WILLIAM OULLEN BRYANT. Lay down the axe; fling by the spade; Leave in its track the tolling plow; The rifle and the bayonet blade; For arms like yours were fitter now; And let the hands that ply the pen Quit the light task, and learn to wield The horseman's crooked brand, and rein The charger on the battle field.

In arms against the Government, and this Mass Meeting implores the constituted authorities of the nation to an energetic employment of all the means in, and to come within their control, to whomsoever they may belong, in a manner consistent with humanity and the usage of civilized nations, to crush out at once forever the rebellion throughout the land the authority of the Constitution.

Resolved, That in boldly pressing upon the enemy for victory in a cause so just, the apprehended danger of foreign intervention should quicken the tread of our armies to the scene of conflict, and prompt our Navy to new deeds of heroism and renown, that this bloody revolt and reign of terror may soon end, and that then the nations which have conspired with the traitors for our ruin, shall be taught that no European power can ever, upon the soil of this Republic, plant the flag of despotism or break down the spirit of liberty which lives in the bosoms of a race of freemen.

Resolved, That we, a portion of the people of Pennsylvania, loving our whole country, and cherishing the belief that its preservation from the grasp of violence that is now at hand hereby pledge to the National Government our undivided support in furnishing men and money to quell the rebellion; and we most earnestly implore his Excellency, the President of the United States, his ministers and advisers, speedily to assail the enemy, seize his places of strength, strip him of whatever may be employed to retard the triumph of our arms, and resolutely and with unflinching energy wage more for victory over treason.

Resolved, That our confidence in the President of the United States is not only unshaken, but hourly increased, by the boldness and wisdom with which he handles novel and perplexing questions of State inseparable from the present perilous condition of the country.

Resolved, That his Excellency, Andrew G. Curtin, Governor of our Commonwealth, deserves, and is hereby tendered the gratitude of the highly responsible duties devolving upon him in placing the State in the very front rank of the defenders of the Union; for his unswerving care of our noble men who are in their country's service; and for his well planned measures for the comfort of the sick and disabled, and that these humane exertions will hereafter brighten the pages of our history, and cover his name with honor.

Resolved, That to enable our glorious old Commonwealth promptly to place in the field her quota of men, it is expedient to raise by subscription among our own people such sums of money as will be required as a bounty to each patriotic citizen who will volunteer to serve in the army of the United States, rather than have the Executive resort to the slow process of convening the Legislature to make appropriation out of the public treasury for that purpose.

Resolved, That a bounty of $50 should, in the opinion of this meeting, be paid to each able bodied citizen who will volunteer to serve as part of the quota of Pennsylvania in the Army of the United States, (for nine months, under the recent proclamation of the President,) and that all who cannot serve their country in the field, should freely contribute of their means to sustain our cause.

In the Name and by the Authority OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, ANDREW G. CURTIN, Governor of the said Commonwealth.

A PROCLAMATION. To sustain the Government in times of common peril, by all his energies, his means and his life, if need be, is the first duty of every loyal citizen.

The President of the United States has made a requisition on Pennsylvania for twenty-one new regiments, and the regiments already in the field must be recruited.

The existence of the present emergency is well understood. No patriot will pause now to investigate its causes. We must look to the future. Everything that is dear to us is at stake.

Under these circumstances I appeal with confidence to the Freemen of Pennsylvania. You have to save your homes and your families—your own liberties and those of the whole country.

Call on the inhabitants of the counties, cities, boroughs and townships throughout our borders to meet and take active measures for the immediate furnishing of the quota of the State.

Let those who cannot go themselves contribute to provide bounties, equal, at least, to those offered by adjoining States.

The Constitution prohibits me from drawing money from the Treasury without authority of law, and I will not cast a doubt on the patriotism of our citizens by assuming the necessity of calling the Legislature into session.

This is no time to wait for legislative action and the negotiation of loans. Delay might be fatal. To put down this rebellion is the business of every man in Pennsylvania; and her citizens will show on this occasion that they do not wait for the slow process of legislation, and do not desire to throw on the Treasury of the Commonwealth a burden which they are individually ready to bear themselves.

The conduct of our men already in the field has shed immortal lustre on Pennsylvania. Let their brethren fly to arms to support them, and make victory speedy as well as certain.

I designate below the number of companies which are expected from the several counties in the State, trusting the support of her honor in this crisis, as it may be safely trusted, to the loyalty, fidelity and valor of her freemen.

Whilst the quota of the several counties is fixed equitably so as to fill the requisition for twenty-one regiments, let not the loyal people of any county limit their exertions to the enlistment of the companies named.

Our heroes sons of Pennsylvania have moistened every battle field with their blood; thousands have bravely died defending the unity of the Republic and the sanctity of our flag; and other thousands have fallen sick and wounded, and their places filled.

Freemen of Pennsylvania! Friends of Government, of order and of our common nationality! one earnest struggle and peace will again dawn upon us as a happy, prosperous and united people.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State at Harrisburg, this twenty-first day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and of the Commonwealth, the eighty-seventh.

By the Governor, ELLI SLIFER, Secretary of the Commonwealth.
