HARRISBURG, PA. Saturday Afternoon, July 26, 1862.

Rev. GEORGE M. STEELE, of Boston, will preach in the Baptist Church, corner of Second and Pine streets, to morrow afternoon, at, a quarter past three, and eight in the evening.

KILLED ON THE RAILROAD.-Mr. Thos. Wads worth, an old citizen and soldier in the war of 1812, was recently killed by the cars while crossing the railroad track at St. Clair Station. Derry township. He was in the seventy-fifth year of his age. It is stated that he was present at the battle of Baltimore, and witnessed the death of Gen. Knox.

CAUSE FOR THANKEGIVING .- The crops in this vicinity have, so far, proved to be very heavy The grass was good, and generally secured in fine condition. The wheat and rye was, prob ably, as heavy a crop as was ever gathered in the county. The present appearance of the fill up the six companies from this county, corn, wherever we have seen it, is most promised and if Avenet should be as forwardle of Curtin. WHAT DEALERS ARE TO BE TAXED .- All retail dealers are not to be taxed under the new national law. Section sixty-fifth provides that, " when the annual gross receipts or sales of any anothecaries, confectioners, eating houses, tobacconists or retail dealers, shall not exceed the sum of one thousand dollars, such apothecaries, confectioners, cating-houses and retail dealers shall not be required to take out or pay for licenses, anything in this act to the contrary notwithstanding."

RECRUITING. - Those of our citizens who desire to enter the army, should weigh the matter well before they enlist in regiments out of the State. Pennsylvanians, in enlisting in such regiments, deprive themselves of many advantages which they would have in companies in their own State. Besides, the bounty is as large with us as it is elsewhere, and the recruit has the satisfaction of knowing that he is performing military duty alongside of his neighbor or friend.

THE WAY TO PREACH. -At a Methodist meeting in Boston last week, the clergyman made an appeal to his people to enlist in the army 'Why don't you come forward lively?" said he. "I'll enlist now-after ou receive the benediction, that will be a proper time to enroll yourself under your country's flag." The result was that in a few minutes after the ser vices were closed, the clergyman found his own name at the head of sixteen true men, who will all go to the Union army.

> THE WAR SPIRIT IN HUMMELSTOWN-Enthusi astic Meeting of the Oitizens. —According to previous notice the citizens of Hummelstown and vicinity met in the school house in Hummelstown last evening for the purpose of raising money by voluntary contributions from the citizens of Hummelstown and Deary township as bounty to those who are nobly volunteering their services in response to the call of the President for three hundred thousand additional volunteers in this the hour of our peril.

The Rev. M. A. Smith was called to the chair, and the Revs. E. Huber and J. Stechter were appointed Vice Presidents; Rav. J. P. Smith and J. M. Rockafellar officiated as Secretaries.

After a few remarks by the President explanatory of the object of the meeting, patriotic and stirring addresses were delivered by Messrs. Weistling, Mumma and Alleman, all of Harrisburg, which were received with the greatest enthusiasm and applause by the audience, and most liberally responded to by some of our citizens in fifty and hundred dollar contributions.

Encouraging Signs.—We are glad to see almost everywhere signs that the nation is arousing from the inactivity and despondency which followed the recent battles before Rich mond. A brief reflection, says a cotemporary, showed every man that no time was to be lost in moning and croaking, but that action, swift, wise, patriotic action was imperatively needed. It was seen that without this our peril was imminent, that with this we had everything to conscription brought their army up to the highest point possible, and never again could they make any more formidable demonstration worthy of the occasion. A MODEL ESTABLISHMENT.—Among the many improvements lately made in our city, to which we can point with pride as an evidence of pros perity and as a determination on the part of our business men, no longer to remain behind the 'light house," is the completion of Eby & Kunkle's large brick building at the corner of Market and Fifth streets, which is alike creditable to the owners and ornamental to that part of our city.
