PEOPLE'S UNION STATE TICKET. AUDITOR GENERAL: THOMAS E. COCHRAN, of York County. SURVEYOR GENERAL: WILLIAM S. ROSS, of Luzerne County.

HARRISBURG, PA. Monday Morning, July 28, 1862.

THE DOUGL-FACE CANDIDATE FOR AUDITOR GENERAL.

HIS AFFIDAVITS AND HIS PRESENT ACTIONS.

When the nomination of Isaac Slenker was announced, as the dough-face candidate for Auditor General, we declared the fact that he was thus recognized by his partisans simply because his antecedents were corrupt...

In 1849, Mr. Slenker professed to be a great advocate of freedom, and was actually what is now so reproachfully regarded by his present advocates, "a freedom shrieker."

Resolved, That we deprecate civil war, as we believe that this Union can never be maintained by force of arms, and that as Democrats we are not willing to take up arms to support a platform which a majority of the people repudiated and opposed at the polls.

Resolved, That we cordially approve the policy of the National Administration, [Buchanan's], in its wise and conciliatory course in the present perilous condition of the country.

These resolutions are sufficiently emphatic and convincing to prove that the object of those who sought their passage, was treasonable—at least the sentiment tends to that conviction, and on evidence doubtless not half as strong.

That we will, by all proper and legitimate means, oppose, discountenance and prevent any attempt on the part of the Republicans in power to make any armed aggression upon the Southern States, especially so long as laws contravening their rights shall remain unrepelled on the statute books of Northern States, and so long as the just demands of the South continue to be unrecognized by the Republican majorities in these States, and unsecured by proper amendatory explanations of the Constitution.

We have a notion that this record is sufficient to fix Mr. Slenker as the embodiment of rank Breckinridge treason. He stands forth as the traitor and upholder of treason. He gave traitors his countenance when they were robbing the government. He voted for Breckinridge when he knew that his nomination was only a pretext for rebellion.

THE PURPOSES OF THE WAR—RESTORATION.

As rebellion begins to clog, and the energy and strength of treason, lose their influence, the subject of restoration begins to attract attention and elicit discussion. The true patriot is animated by only one purpose in prosecuting this war.

But reasoning thus, we have employed language in accommodation to its popular, but in our opinion, improper use. Strictly speaking there is no such thing as restoring a state to the Union—for there is no such thing as a state going out of the Union. The Constitution makes no provision for any such event.

The individual citizens who have entered into the rebellion and thereby incurred the guilt of treason, have forfeited their rights of citizenship, and are liable to the penalty due their crime; but the forcible interruption or suspension, by rebel citizens, of the functions of the state as a member of the Federal Union; and their attempt to sunder the bonds which make it a part of that Union, can make no difference with its rights and duties as a state.

Resolved, That we understand there is a great scarcity of labor among the farmers. Much grain is yet left standing for lack of harvest hands. The recent wet weather, too, has interfered with the gathering in of the grain crops; and it continues much longer, fears are entertained that the wheat will be seriously injured.

Resolved, That we have a notion that this record is sufficient to fix Mr. Slenker as the embodiment of rank Breckinridge treason. He stands forth as the traitor and upholder of treason.

Important Proclamation by the President.

THE POSITION OF SECRETARY SEWARD.

The following is a copy of a letter from the Secretary of War to a joint committee of the New York Common Council on national affairs.

WAR DEPARTMENT, July 26, 1862. Gentlemen, your views respecting the recruiting service and the proposed measures to encourage it have been attentively considered by the President, and the following regulations established by the Department are expected to attain the object you desire.

First, The Adjutant General will detail an officer at each rendezvous for mustering in recruits, who will pay to each recruit his proper share of bounty and also pay the boarding bill at the time he is mustered into the service of the United States.

Second, It being of paramount importance to fill up the old regiments speedily, a fee for recruits to the old regiments, double that for the new regiments, will be paid; to wit: four dollars for each recruit.

Third, The recruit will be clothed, armed and equipped without delay, and placed in a camp of instruction. Any other practical suggestions you may be pleased to offer will always be respectfully considered by this Department.

Yours truly, EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War. To the Councilmen JAMES HOGAN, KESNER, and FROST, and Aldermen HARLEY and MROOSMAN.

It is officially published that the call by Gov. Curtin for nine and twelve months men was made without previous consultation or direction of the President or War Department and having been made it was deemed by the President and the Department better to accept such troops as were offered under that call.
