NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.—All Advertisements, Business Notices, Marriages, Deaths, &c., to secure insertion in the TELEGRAPH, must invariably be accompanied with the CASH.

HARRISBURG, PA. Tuesday Morning, July 29, 1862.

IN TOWN.—Brig. Gen. C. P. Buckingham was in town yesterday, stopping at the Jones' House.

THE CEREMONY of Baptism was performed in the river below the water house on Sunday, the 21st inst., by the Rev. J. M. Galt, officiating. Three persons, two gentlemen and a lady, were present. The affair attracted quite a large concourse of people to the river.

THE GAIETY.—Dink Berthelon, the champion solo player, and S. S. Hollis, the champion jig dancer, are among the new attractions at the Gaiety Concert Saloon, Exchange, Walnut street. They are represented as first class "stars," and will doubtless create a sensation among the habitués of that establishment.

Adj. WILLIAM R. HARTSHORN was in this city yesterday, en route for Clearfield county, where he goes to recruit his health. Adj. Hartshorn was in the battles before Richmond, and being left at Savage station, fell into the hands of the rebels. He was paroled with others, and is now in a condition to unfit him for service for some time to come.

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.—The attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement of the sale of valuable real estate, in another column of this evening's TELEGRAPH. The property embraces thirty-three acres of land, with an excellent frame house and barn, adjoining the city, and a brick house and lot on Market square. See advertisement.

BLIND MANUFACTORY.—Our readers in want of anything in the venetian blind line, would do well to call at the establishment of Mr. Sharpe in Second street above Mulberry. Mr. Sharpe makes the manufacture of blinds a speciality, and being a first class mechanic, he gets them up in a magnificent style at the cheapest prices possible. Give him a call and examine his samples.

THE WAR SPIRIT is thoroughly aroused in our county. Meetings have and are being held, at which the call of the country for help is being discussed by the people, and recruiting is going on with much spirit. If not already done arrangements should be made for a meeting in every township in the county, at which good speakers should be provided. The quota of the county is rapidly filling up, and our city will not be behind in supplying its proportion of men.

A COSTLY BLUNDER.—A saloon keeper in Cleveland, in the scarcity of change, conceived the idea of issuing tickets "good for one drink" to regular customers, when he couldn't change their money. In printing the tickets the printer made a mistake, as the saloon keeper discovered to his cost, after distributing a large amount of them. The ticket read, "good for one drink." A number of two-tided drinkers, who got hold of some of the tickets, have been indulging in a series of drunks ever since, greatly to the pecuniary loss of the "salooner."

FRAGILE USE OF POSTAGE STAMPS.—Congress, at its late session, passed an act in relation to the fraudulent use of postage stamps, which provides "that any person who shall wilfully remove or cause to be removed from any postage stamp or stamped envelope the cancelling or defacing mark thereon, with the intent to use the same, or cause the use of the same the second time, or shall knowingly or wilfully sell or buy such washed or restored stamps, or offer the same for sale, or give or expose the same to any person for use, or knowingly use the same, or prepare the same with intent for the second use thereof, every such person shall, upon conviction thereof, be adjudged guilty of felony, shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding three years, or by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by both imprisonment and fine as aforesaid; and one-half such fine, when collected, shall be paid to the informer."

THE HOPE FIRE COMPANY.—The members of the Hope Fire Company, with a commendable spirit of liberality and enterprise, have recently been improving and embellishing the interior of their building, which now renders it one of the most beautiful and comfortable establishments of the kind in the State. The large and commodious meeting room on the second story has been handsomely papered and carpeted with a magnificent pattern of three ply carpet, which together with marble topped oval card tables, ornamental cushioned chairs and lounges, chandeliers, mahogany book cases, beautiful engravings and other ornaments, gives it the appearance of a first class drawing room. The Hope boys are among the most active and vigilant of our gallant firemen, and we are glad to note this evidence of their prosperity.

A ROUGH looking customer, whose name we have forgotten, was arrested last Saturday charged with maltreating his wife. The dispute arose about some trifling matter, but the woman's tongue being rather the longest and most active, she quite out talked the husband, and lost his temper. "The man who lays his hand upon a woman other than in the way of kindness is a knave whom 'twere gross flattery to call a coward," says Duke Aranza in the "Honey Moon," but Blackwell preferred the amended reading of the actor who used to beat his wife, "The man who does not lay his hand," &c. He proceeded to lay violent hands on the gentle wife, and would have ornamented her glowing countenance with some extensive bruises, but for the interference of some outsiders and her own determined defiance. The justice wishing to rebuke all such abuse of the powers of the sterner sex sent him to prison with his ideas of chivalry extremely enlarged.

THE FIRST CITY ZOUAVES, Capt. Aul, were Mustered into the United States service last Saturday, and probably went into Camp Curtin to-day. This company was the first to offer its services, and the first sworn in under the new requisition.

FIRE IN CUMBERLAND COUNTY.—The alarm of fire, about ten o'clock on Sunday night, was occasioned by the burning of a barn in the Canodogunet valley, about four miles from Fairview, opposite our city. We could not learn the particulars.

THE FAIRVIEW BAND—An excellent body of musicians—favored the Russell Guard, of our city, with fine music for recruiting purposes last Saturday evening. They will visit the city again to-morrow evening, and give a balcony serenade at Brant's Hall, previous to the commencement of the grand concert for the Volunteer Relief Fund, after which they will favor a number of our citizens with serenades. A number of the gentlemen composing the band have joined the Russell Guard.

THE VOLUNTEER RELIEF CONCERT.—This grand and benevolent enterprise is progressing with a success equal to the most sanguine expectations of its public-spirited projectors. The movement has enlisted the warmest sympathies of all classes of our community, and will meet with an unprecedented patronage. Apart from its benevolent design, an additional attraction is presented in the fact that the concert will be one of the very best musical reunions ever given in this city. The programme embraces a variety of choice musical gems from the most distinguished composers, both vocal and instrumental, which will be rendered in the most artistic style by the talented ladies and gentlemen who have volunteered for the occasion.

In addition to the gentlemen amateurs of this city, the services of several artists from a distance have been voluntarily tendered, including Mr. J. A. Arnold and lady, of the Cooper English Opera Troupe, Mr. A. Voeldder, also of the opera, and Mrs. Hegman, an excellent amateur pianist.

The concert will take place at Brant's Hall this evening, and we advise all our readers not to stand upon the order of their going, but if they have not already done so, go at once and purchase a ticket.

REV. CATTELL repeated his great sermon, as was announced, on Sunday, and the crowd on the occasion was greater than any which has ever assembled to hear the delivery of any sermon in this city. The Third street Presbyterian Church was thronged long before the appointed hour for the delivery of the sermon, while the side-walks in the vicinity of the church were covered with an impatient mass of men and women, anxious to get within hearing distance, and satisfied to occupy a place outside as long as they could not get a seat inside of the church. The great rush to hear this eloquent divine, as we take it, is to be traced to the loyal feelings of the people as much as to the popularity of the preacher. In either sense, it is a credit to the city thus to sustain a good cause and its champion. It is honorable thus to recognize and approve that which is noble, patriotic and pure; and it leaves us with the reflection that a people who can thus be gathered around one common altar, and there moved to devotion and animated to patriotism by the eloquence and fervor of an humble though a most powerful and influential preacher of the Gospel—such a people are fully alive to the dangers and the safety of the government. Hundreds of people left the vicinity of the church, despairing of being able to hear the sermon as it was repeated last evening, and the hope was universal that the Reverend orator would be induced to repeat it again on some future occasion, when those who have been debarred from hearing its delivery would be gratified.

We understand that Rev. Cattell has been invited to deliver the same sermon in several localities distant from Harrisburg, and it is hoped that he will comply and gratify the people by its delivery.

AN OPINION.—As the opinion of outsiders are worthy of currency in this city, we give the following, from the Chester County Times, as a specimen. It was elicited by an article which appeared in the second organ, purporting to be a description of the members of the late Union Convention: "Whoever has spent any considerable time in Harrisburg, must have seen a weak and trembling, mendicant looking individual crawling up to the Capitol, assisted by a cane, and bearing the inevitable impress of the devastating, wasting, demoralizing influence of alcoholic beverage. They have sometimes seen him sober, or partially so; but generally drunk. At times we have met the poor creature in hotels, laboring under the influence of delirium, his mouth frothing, his eyes bloodshot and rheumy, his whole frame trembling, and his emaciated hand stretched forth to us, begging for a pittance to procure more of the poison which has brought him to this miserable condition. Such is the man, and we speak what we have seen, and testify what he chiefly does up the locals of the Harrisburg rebel paper. Through such a description of the convention viewed which he describes in the paragraph we have quoted. His employers are cruel, beyond measure, to require him to write such paragraphs, and thus expose him to inevitable retort."

YOUNG MEN READ THIS.—Dr. Shupe of Hummelstown, has received a letter from one of the young men of that borough, now in the army in front of Richmond, from which we extract the following, with the hope that every patriotic young man may read it: "Everybody here is in fine spirits. The only thing tending to depress us, is the deplorable accounts coming from home. You seem to have forgotten there, that the Army of the Potomac has never been whipped, that for the little the rebels gained by our recent movements, they paid a ruinous price. Two more such victories as they claim, would kill the Confederacy dead."

Send on recruits; shame the young men into coming. Give us twenty thousand men to fill our skeleton regiments with, and we will take the premium of your gold and silver in short metre. Never listen to talk of reverses here, for there has been none. We tried to get to Richmond through the swamps and found them impassable, consequently we had to take another road. We are now resting and recruiting, after waiting in these swamps, and while we are doing this we wait for our trains to come down and learn enough of soldiering to go along and help us, in case we need them."

TWO COLORED men named Wm. Chilton and Singleton Sanders, were arrested last Saturday by officer Campbell, charged with the larceny of a Sharpe's revolver, watch and chain, and a box of cartridges from Mr. Charles Waiters, residing in North street. The stolen property was found in their possession. Justice Reeder sent them to prison to answer.

THE "WASHINGTON PENNSYLVANIA SOLDIERS' RELIEF ASSOCIATION," having opened an office at No. 5 Washington Building, corner of 7th street and Pennsylvania avenue, Washington city, where will be found a register of all Pennsylvania soldiers in or around the city in hospitals, invite the friends of the same to call, assuring them that all possible aid will be extended in finding their sons. Mr. Charles L. Wells, the Registrar, will be found in the office. The Corresponding Secretary, Mr. S. Todd Perley, will answer all letters in regard to sick and wounded Pennsylvania soldiers, whether in or around that city, Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York, or New Haven. Address, care Box 842, Washington, D. C.

THE COMPANIES ROUTING.—Recruiting continues lively in the city, there being no less than five or six companies in progress of formation, besides two or three recruiting stations for the regular service.

The First City Zouaves have something like ninety men enrolled, and only want a few more to make up their complement. They can be heard of at the Exchange, Walnut street.

The Russell Guards are progressing finely, and will most likely be the next company sworn into service. Their headquarters is at the office of Col. Boas, corner of Market and Third streets.

The Silver Guards are also adding many to their roll daily, with every prospect of an early filling up. Their recruiting flag hangs out at the Buel House, North street, below Fourth.

R. S. Boyd has opened a roll at the Exchange for a volunteer company, to be called the "Patriot Rangers," and is recruiting with flattering success. His headquarters are at the Exchange.

John J. Ball, another old and experienced military officer is also hunting up recruits for a volunteer company, and getting along finely. It will be seen, therefore, that there is no lack of opportunities presented to our young men to serve their country in this the hour of its need.

HARRISBURG SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS' UNION.—At the monthly meeting of this association, held on Sunday last, the fact was alluded to that many young men in our Sunday Schools were about entering the army, and various modes were suggested in which their relation to the Sunday School could be made serviceable to them whilst they were absent on this errand of patriotism. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this Association recommend to the respective classes, from which young men go into the army, to preserve their photographs in the class, accepting these as their representatives when their names are called week to week.

Resolved, That such absent members be urged to keep up a regular correspondence with their class and be encouraged occasionally to write to the school through the superintendent.

Resolved, That they be urged to make known to the chaplains of their respective regiments, their love for the Sunday School, and offer to cooperate with him in any efforts he may make to organize bible classes among their fellow soldiers.

From the Rev. Dr. Hodge and the Rev. Dr. McGuffey, Professors in the Theological Seminary at Andover, N. H.: I have for several years been intimately acquainted with the Rev. Thomas W. Cutler. He has had charge of two of my sons, and I can safely say I have never known a son of mine whose identity and devotion to his people, I have equal confidence. He is a good scholar and a successful teacher. I know no one who has a greater facility in getting the love of his scholars or who starts over them than a better influence. I am aware of the responsibility in speaking in such terms of commendation of a teacher; but I am satisfied an doing nothing but what is just to an excellent man, in using his language which I have here employed. CHARLES HODGE.

I have great confidence in the Rev. Jas. P. Hughes, as a teacher, both in his aptness to give instruction, and his tact in the administration of discipline. I have had two sons under his care, and I from the most careful observation I am free to recommend the Edgehill School as a place of safe and thorough instruction. ALEXANDER T. M'GILL. Jy14-d1w
