RECRUITING .- The success of the different recruiting officers in the city has already been greater than was anticipated, and there is little or no doubt but that the several companies un der headway, will have their full complement in connection with this movement, is that a large number of recruits are from the rural districts, many of whom have came in and offer ed themselves voluntarily, without any direct efforts having been made in their localities .-This is a cheering response from the country and the hope is that this spirit may be univer sal, and continue to manifest itself in so prac tical a manner. We may, in a few days, give a more definite report of the success of each company in enrolling men, if, in the mean time they will inform us of their progress.

THE DERRY FENCIBLES.—The recent war meetings in Hummelstown have had a salutary efted in crayon by the celebrated artist, E, fect upon the citizens of that vicinity, not only Masson, of Philadelpnia. In an artistic view, in inducing them to contribute liberally towards it is certainly one of the most perfect crayons we the county bounty-fund, but also in persuading ever examined, and as a counterpart of the gallant a fluctuation of two or three per cent in the men to enter the service of their country, and Colonel, it has to us many a familiar point, which battle for the noblest and best government a less interested observer would fail to note; beever vouchsafed to man. FLOWERS IN CHURCHES, -Flowers, says Beecher, are not of man. They are Divine. Man on, by culture, develop all that God has hidden in them; but can add nothing to them, nor can he invent or build them. It is scarcely possible to pervert them to bad uses. Flowers and music may be used by bad men; but, unlike painting or sculpture, they cannot them-Felves be made to represent any evil thing. A very simple and plain room is made elegant by the presence of a few flowers. The interest of the money spent in ridiculous architecture would furnish many churches with an offering of simple flowers for every Sabbath of the year. For God has made flowers for everybody.

They are next in abundance to the great elements-air, light, water. The poorest man has a roadside flower garden. No mission church is so poor that it cannot afford wild flowers upon the altar, and a few assorted leaves in frigid seats of many a church room, if permit-

Professors in the Theological Seminary, Princeton, N.J.

I have for several years been intimately, acquainted with the Rev. Thomas W. Cattell. He has had charge of two of my sons, and I can safely say I have never known any one in whose fidelity and devotion to his pupils, I have equal configence. He is a good scholar and a successful teacher. I know no one who has a greater facility in g.lning the love of, his scholars or who exerts over them a better influence.

I am aware of the responsibility in speaking in such terms of commendation of a teacher, but I am satisfied I am doing nothing but simple justice to an excellent man, in using the language which I have here employed.

CHARLES BURGE.

I have great confidence in the Rev. Jas. P. Hughes, as a teacher, both in his apiness to give instruction, and his tact in the administration of discipline, i have had two sons under his care, and from the most careful observation I am free to recommend the Edgehill School as one of Safe and thorough instruction.
