for the Telegraph. HARRISBURG BEHIND THE AGE .- In looking Hofford, M over the local columns of that bold and fearless Jones, C little Union paper, the daily Baltimore Clipper, I Kemp, L A Kamerer, A notice the following item:

Rebers.-During yesterday and Wednesday night the following parties were arrested, charged with uttering treasonable sentiments, Jacob Lazarus, John Summerville, Samuel Del avan, James Ripley and Doctor Richardson. while the balance were detained at the Central station house to await an examination before the Marshal. The chances of the above rebels are very much of a confinement in the fort. It is the intention of the police to arrest every person that utters treasonable language-a Boyer, EJE course which, in our opinion, will quickly rid Benner, S our streets corners from the vile seckssion trash Bennett, J could not be crushed out, and other treasonable Blodgett, sentiments. Let the good work go on.

"Go in," little Clipper ! Knock the spots out of the secession ranters in the monumental city! Secesh, in the Capital of our good and loyal old Keystone State, is of the sneaking and cutthroat order, and will only show its poisonous fangs when some loyal man is about to tread upon it, like the venomous rattlesnake wound about the Palmetto, loved symbol of the seces sionists!

It is an incontrovertible fact, known to every intelligent man in this community, that we have "Knight's of the Golden Circle," and "out and out" Breckinridge sympathisers in our midst, who would not only sell their country for "thirty pieces of silver;" but would render it an abode unfit for d—ls: to dwell in, if we should judge from their ill-concealed malice and bold attempts at times to utter treason, (and practice it too,) in our city.

In the city of Baltimore they show secesh no matter again, but I understand the gratuitous compliment paid him wrought a wonderful change in the man—even unto the doffing of his checkered cap and 'killing' mouse stache.

The good book reads "Can the leopard change rian his spots?" We all know the figurative meaning of the passage referred to, and may ask with the same truth and sincerity, "can the infidel traitor be trusted, or the secessionist cast away his venom?" But to be brief as possible, let me ask one plain question: If Deputy, T. Derstine, G there is patriotism and law enough in Baltimore to make secesh "haul in his horns," ought there not to be in our good city? I am a law and order loving citizen, yet, I am not ashamed to say that I would be willing to interest addler in the article of term and my titled. vest a dollar in the article of tar, and my "old woman" would part with one of her featherbeds at any time for the benefit of some rascal ly rebel. I have for several years been intimately acquainted with the Rev. Thomas W. Catickl. He has had charge of two of my sons, and I can safely say I have never anows any one in whose fidelity and devotion to his pupils, I have equal conflictence. He is a good scholer and a successful teacher. I know no one who has a greater facility in gaining the love of his scholars or who exerts over them a better influence.

I am aware of the responsibility in spe king is such terms of commendation of a teacher, but I am satisfied I am doing nothing but simple justice to an excellent man, in usin the language which I have kere employed.

CHARLES HODGE.

I have great confider ce in the Rev. Jas. P. Hughes, as a teacher, both n his spiness to give instruction, and his tact in the administration of discipline. I have had two sons under his care, and from the most careful observa-tion I am free to recommend the Fagehill rebool as one of safe and thorough instruction. je:4 dim-rdiyl6dlmj AlEXAND R.T. M'GILL.
